About Newspapers.

In the year 59, B. C., Julius Caesar founded the first Roman newspaper, entitled "Acti populi Romani Diurna," which would be translated, "Daily Records of the Roman People," which was sent in many copies to the provinces of the Roman Empire.

In Austro-Hungary there are newspapers printed in fifteen different languages, a greater variety than is found in any other country.

Iceland, that little island in the north, isolated and away from the great continents of civilization, has twelve journals in circulation; ten are daily newspapers and two are magazines. Two of the papers are printed in Copenhagen, the rest of them on the island. These papers are published and circulated further north than any other papers in the world.

The most profitable newspaper in the world, notwithstanding its political differences of the past years, is the London Times, which is valued at over $25,000,000. The most profitable in France, Le Petit Journal earns more than $600,000 a year net, although about fifteen years ago it was insolvent. The London Standard is valued at $10,000,000; the Daily News at $6,500,000; the Telegraph at $6,000,000.—Los Angeles Express.

2,228,672.

These figures represent the number of bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which were sold in the United States from March, '91 to March, '92. Two Million, Two Hundred and Twenty-Eight Thousand, Six Hundred and Seventy-Two bottles sold in one year, and each and every bottle was sold on a positive guarantee that money would be refunded if satisfactory results did not follow its use. The secret of its success is plain. It never disappoints and can always be depended on as the very best remedy for Coughs, Colds, etc. Price 50c and $1.00. At C. A. Kleim's Drugstore.

Capital and Labor.

"Now, supposing I borrowed $5 from you. That would represent capital, wouldn't it?"
Yes.
"But, supposing after awhile you wanted to get it back?"
"That would represent labor."

A Feminine Slap.

Anne. "Do you know, Mabel, I had two offers of marriage last week?"
Mabel. "My darling Anne! I am so delighted! Then it is really true that your uncle left you all his money?"

After Breakfast.

To purify, vitalize and enrich the blood, and give nerve, bodily and digestive strength, take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Continue the medicine after every meal for a month or two and you will feel "like a new man." The merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla is proven by its thousands of wonderful cures. Why don't you try it?

Hood's PILLS cure constipation. They are the best after-dinner pill and family cathartic.

A New Plea.

Moneybags—But you haven't enough to support my daughter.
Impudence—If she is as extravagant as that, sir, you should be thankful to have me take her off your hands.—Judge.

A Sagacious Conclusion.

"What did Daniel do in the lion's den?" inquired the teacher.
"He must have had a regular circus," replied the smart bad boy, after some thought.—Truth.

Heroic Treatment.

Jack—Can't anything be done to break you of the habit of saying sarcastic things?
Maud—Certainly. You can cure me completely.
Jack—How?
Maud—Keep out of my sight.—

A Mother's Duty.

"Watch your daughter's physical development.
"Nature has provided a time for purification, and if the channels are obstructed, the entire system is poisoned, and misery comes.
"Irregularities from any cause, at any age, are sure indications of organic trouble.
"With irregularities come disturbances of the stomach and kidneys, violent headaches, shooting pains, extreme lassitude, and irritability.
"Remove the trouble at once, or a whole life will be sacrificed.
"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will accomplish the work speedily.
"It is the most effective remedy for irregular or suspended action known to the world."—Mrs. Chas. Hines, Box 212, Duncannon, Pa.
