NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Interesting Items From Various Points in the County, Reported by Our Staff of Correspondents

EAST BENTON.

The drought is unbroken and incredible as it may seem, corn promises a bountiful yield. Oats, though short, has the appearance of good quality, but may not reach the average in quantity. Potatoes are thought to be a partial and probably a total failure. Since late in May or early in June we have only two substantial showers, last Saturday night week ago, and Saturday afternoon previous. Last Saturday night heavy showers passed around to the north, while we were visited by the dust. In our locality the winter crop is up to the average, but the hay crop leaves a large vacant space in the hay mows. At this writing there is but little prospect for rain, and should the drought continue for some weeks to come, one cannot tell what effect it will have upon the corn crop. It would seem that the parched condition of the earth would dry up all vegetation. The weather at times is exceedingly hot also. Streams and springs are failing; scarcely never have been known to be lower.

A lot of new notes of the sharpest kind have just been printed and are for sale at this office. Also common receipts, estate receipts, and collectors' receipts, neatly bound in books of 25, 50 and 100.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., post office and will be sent to the dead letter office August 8, 1893.

Ground has been purchased and a church building will soon be erected at Jamison City. It will be under the discipline of the M. E. Church. The building will be a one story frame, costing about fifteen hundred dollars. An effort was made upon a former occasion to build a church but about that time came the failure of the Fishingcreek Lumber Company. The subject was then dropped until the present. It will now be built ready for occupancy before winter.

Ignorance of the merits of DeWitt's Little Early Risers is a misfortune. These little pills regulate the liver, cure headache, dyspepsia, bad breath, constipation and biliousness. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14-17.

World's Fair Philanthropists.

Messrs. Boddie Bros., wealthy Chicago gentlemen, having the interest of their city at heart, and desiring to disprove the falsity of the statement that only in boarding houses can be found moderate priced accommodations during the World's Fair, remodelled and furnished at great expense one of their famous absolutely fire-proof business structures, located corner of Franklin and Jackson streets, within short walking distance of the Union Depots, Theatres, Post Office, Board of Trade, Steam, Elevated, Cable Roads and Steamboats to the World's Fair, furnished newly throughout 500 rooms, superb parlors, elevators, electric lights, exhaust fans to keep cool entire building, named this property THE GREAT WESTERN HOTEL, and invite the public to take their choice of rooms for $1.00 per day, children 5 to 12 fifty cents. Elegant restaurant and dining rooms where fine meals are served at 50 cents, or a la carte at very moderate prices.

There would be less heard or known of extortion and imposition connected with the World's Fair were there more public spirited, fair minded men in Chicago as are the owners and proprietors of THE GREAT WESTERN HOTEL. Our readers should write as early as possible to secure rooms for they are being taken up rapidly.—St. Paul Daily News. 7-14-93.

Fashionable Livery.

The well known horseman has opened a fashionable livery in connection with his boarding stable at the Exchange Hotel Stables, where fine turnouts can be obtained, single or double. He has well broken and safe saddle and driving horses for ladies, all at reasonable rates. Orders left at the Exchange Hotel will receive prompt attention. Drivers furnished when desired.

Why We Do Not Want Hawaii.

From the New York World.
Hawaii is of little conceivable use to us in peace or war. In war it would be especially difficult and costly to prevent it from falling into the hands of the enemy. As an outpost it would cost much more than it can be worth and probably it could be captured at less expense than it could be defended. Its people are naturally and positively alien. There is but a small number of foreigners and descendants of foreigners upon whom under any circumstances we could think of conferring the full privileges of citizenship. Its government would be a hard problem and a cause of scandals without end. Its Japanese and Chinese contract laborers, its feeble-minded and leprous natives, we do not want. We can protect it as much as may be necessary for the preservation of our business interests, but as for annexation we want none of it.

All that honesty, experience and skill can do to produce a perfect pill, has been employed in making DeWitt's Little Early Risers. The result is a specific for sick headache, biliousness and constipation. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14-17.

Judge Williams Wrong.

The honorable members of the legal fraternity who had hoped that Judge Paxon's retirement from the state supreme bench took from that lofty position all its bias, prejudice and favoritism find themselves mistaken by the extraordinary action of Judge Henry W. Williams, of Tioga county, in the matter of the public building commission of Philadelphia.

When the question of the dissolution of that commission by statute was before the legislature—and when at the same time the constitutionality of the Penrose bill was being discussed and questioned—Judge Williams wrote a letter to Representative North of McKean county, a portion of which North read in the house, in which the justice said: "It would be a public calamity to the city of Philadelphia to have the commission removed at this time. Quote me as emphatically as you can, 'This was an advance opinion upon a subject that a judge having once given could not well recall. When, therefore, the question of the constitutionality of the measure was raised before the court of which he was a member it would have been but proper for him to have declined to sit on the ground that he had already prejudiced his own judgment. But instead of doing what was clearly right and proper this justice did sit, and his was the casting vote which gave to the commission the power that the legislature had wrested from it. The judge stuck to his opinion as informally expressed to Representative North.

The example is a bad one and is certain as a precedent to do incalculable injury. It is bound to weaken public respect for our highest court and to restrain public confidence in its judgment, if not in its integrity. Judge Williams should never have decided in advance, but having once expressed an opinion not only to influence legislation but to encourage an appeal to the body of which he is a member, he should have refused to sit in the case, and thereby endeavored to preserve his own good name and the integrity of the court.—Patriot.

One word describes it—"perfection." We refer to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures obstinate sores, burns, skin diseases and is a well known cure for piles. W. S. Rishton, Druggist. 10-14-17.

New edition of Episcopal Hymnals at W. H. Brooke & Co's.

Lippincott's Magazine for August.

The complete novel in the August number of Lippincott's is "In the Midst of Alarms," by Robert Barr (Luke Sharpe). It is a tale of the Fenian invasion of Canada in 1871.

The sixth in the series of Lippincott's Notable Stories is "Jane's Holiday," by Valerie Hays Berry. It is illustrated.

In "The Lady of the Lake," Julian Hawthorne describes some of the stately and other attractions of the Columbian Exposition.

The Athletic Series is continued in an article on "The National Game," by Norton B. Young. It is accompanied by portraits of several leading players.

"Zachary Taylor, his Home and Family," is by the President's grandniece Mrs. Anna Robinson Watson. It corrects certain popular errors (as that concerning the first marriage of Jefferson Davis), and gives much interesting information about one of the least known of our great men. This article is illustrated, as is another valuable biographical paper, "A Philadelphia Sculptor" (William Rush), by E. Leslie Gilliam.

W. H. Babcock discusses "Supermundane Fiction," and M. Crofton, in "Men of the Day," presents brief sketches of Sir J. E. Millais, Sir Arthur Sullivan, General Diaz, and Philip D. Armour.

The poetry of the number is by Clara Jessup Moore, Howard Hall, and M. H. G.
