Oats is a fair crop. The farmer's picnic which was to be held at Coles Creek last Saturday had a dampener; but the farmers had a genuine picnic all the same—a thrice welcome rain.

Lower Fishingcreek correspondent in the Benton Argus is after the "road boss." Well, we're with him, for it is a shame to have to pay heavy road tax and then have no roads. We have in the past two weeks travelled over some of the roads in Orange and Scott township, and the west side of Fishingcreek and a portion of Huntington township, Luzerne county, and can truthfully say that there are not as many loose stones in the roads mentioned as there are between Forks station and Jones & Watters stores, Jonestown, a distance of four miles. Now, if the Argus man can explain this to us we will give him the rag. He guesses the supervisor has gone to the World's Fair; if so we hope he will soon return.

The Shickshinny Echo correspondent from Forks is a "no-city fisherman" too.

World's Fair Philanthropists.

Messrs. Boddie Bros., wealthy Chicago gentlemen, having the interest of their city at heart, and desiring to disprove the falsity of the statement that only in boarding houses can be found moderate priced accommodations during the World's Fair, remodelled and furnished at great expense one of their famous absolutely fire-proof business structures, located corner of Franklin and Jackson streets, within short walking distance of the Union Depots, Theatres, Post Office, Board of Trade, Steam, Elevated, Cable Roads and Steamboats to the World's Fair, furnished newly throughout 500 rooms, superb parlors, elevators, electric lights, exhaust fans to keep cool entire building, named this property THE GREAT WESTERN HOTEL, and invite the public to take their choice of rooms for $1.00 per day, children 5 to 12 fifty cents. Elegant restaurant and dining rooms where fine meals are served at 50 cents, or a la carte at very moderate prices.

There would be less heard or known of extortion and imposition connected with the World's Fair were there more public spirited, fair minded men in Chicago as are the owners and proprietors of THE GREAT WESTERN HOTEL. Our readers should write as early as possible to secure rooms for they are being taken up rapidly.—St. Paul Daily News. 7-14-6t.

W. A. HARTZELL, Proprietor

Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, has arrived from England. He was shown the articles of agreement for his fight with Corbett and expressed himself as well satisfied. He is satisfied to meet Corbett if Mitchell whips him, as he has an old score to settle. Regarding the place of fighting he said: "My only stipulation will be that the contest must be held north of Mason and Dixon's line. I have no desire to fight in the South and am willing to fight in any place decided upon by Corbett."

Jackson said that while in London he had frequently talked with Mitchell, who, he said, could be expected here very soon. Mitchell, he added, is not particular where he fights and will go where the most money can be found.

He is looking well, having reduced his weight substantially.
