When the second season of tan shoes came around a new method of polishing had been devised. It has been amplified until it has become a science.

As at present practiced by the high riests of the art it requires first a thorough rubbing with a damp rag; then the application of a halt lemon ; then some mysterious unguent that is put on with the ball of the thumb, and lastly a brown polish invented espec-ially for the occasion. This latter is brushed with a piece of canton flannel. No well-educated and self respecting bootblack would use any other kind. The chair next called for nominations for members of the standing committee. No one making an effort at nominations, the County chairman the vote as follows: Utt 42, Kostenannounced that he had a list of the old members with corrections that he would read-no objections, he proceeded as follows :

Beaver-C. B. Noetling. Benton-Chas. Meyer.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY-H. A. MC-Killip, Bloomsburg.

Above were named in their order after many objections from those who declined to nave their names placed on the ticket. A contest was finally reached for County Treasurer when H. E. Mather, of Greenwood, and R. S. Bowman of Berwick were named, resulting in the following vote : Math-er 31, Bowman 54. Mr. Bowman was declared the nominee of the convention.

The Chairman next called for the nomination of persons for County Commissioner. The following were placed in nomination: Jerry Kosten-bauder, of Franklin; George Trout-man of Centralia; C. S. W. Fox, of Locust; William H. Utt, of Main. Again the question was raised about delegates presenting their credentials, and after some wrangling and a low suggestion that the names of delegates were received by the con-vention; B. W. Hagenbuch of Bloomsburg called for a point of order that the question had finally been disposed of. His suggestion was received with applause and the chairman called for a roll of the delegates who responded with the following result : W. H. Utt Jerry Kostenbauder

Geo. Troutman C. S. W. Fox

When the Secretaries made the an nouncement it was received with cheers and calls for a speech from Mr. Utt, which one enthusiastic delegate proposed three cheers for Mr. Utt, the republican candidate for County Commissioner. The chair had not yet announced the result, and during this excitement some who were not satisfied at the nomination of Mr. Utt, said the vote was not right-Mr. bauder 19, Troutman 12, Fox 11. How much better it would be if guests at weddings would adopt the pretty custom of showering rose leaves upon bride and bridegroom. Surely nothing could more gracefully convey wishes for a "rosy future," while at the same time no danger of annoyance could possibly result. I earnestly hope that prospective brides will take this warning to heart, and request their friends to abandon the practice of rice-throwing.

Trial of Actor Ourtis.

WITNESS TO BE PRODUCED TO PROVE THAT THE ACCUSED IS INNOCENT.

Counsel for M. B. Curtis, on trial for the murder of Policeman Grant in San Francisco, say they will introduce a witness, C. W. Rumble, inventor, of Syracuse N. Y. Rumble, it is stated, was in San Francisco on the night of the murder and saw Grant shot. Rumble, who knew Curtis, says he saw the actor and another man in charge of a policeman, that the third man commenced to resist and finally shot Grant. The man then shot at Curtis and missed and then fired a third shot at Rumble, going through his coat. The man then ran in one direction and Curtis in another, leaving Rumble standing by the dead body of the officer.

Rumble says he was afraid he would be accused of murder, so he scaled a fence into a vacant lot and hid under a wagon for two hours. Next day he met Judge Treadwell, of San Francisco and told the story to him. Treadwell corroborates Rumble's story. After learning of Curtis' arrest, Rumble says he determined to keep out of the case unless the actor should be convicted. He changed his mind, however, and has written to Curtis' attorney, offering to testify.

Curtis is well known here, having appeared in the Opera House, a few years ago in "Sam'l of Posen".
