Saved by a Narrow Margin.

From the Chicago Record. "Been to lodge, have you, Absalom?" said Mrs. Rambo, in a metallic tone of voice.

"Yes m' dear," replied Absalom. "What time does the lodge usually let out?" "About—um—about 11 o'clock."

"And what time do you think it is now?" "Er—it's about 12, isn't it?" "It is half past 2. Does it take three hours and a half to come home?"

"Yes, m' dear. Lodge bodies move slowly."

And Mrs. Rambo went gaspingly upstairs to bed.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with catarrh for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It is so strange that so simple a remedy will cure such a stubborn disease.—Henry Billings, U. S. Pension Att'y, Washington, D. C.

I suffered for more than ten years with that dreadful disease, catarrh, and used every available medicine that was recommended to me. I cannot thank you enough for the relief which Ely's Cream Balm has afforded me.—Emanuel Meyers, Winfield, L. I., N. Y.

Doctors Differing.

From the Boston Transcript. Butcher. "Didn't like that ham? Why, it was some that I cured myself."

Customer. "Call that ham cured? Why, man, it wasn't even convalescent."

Wanted No Big Words.

From the New York Herald. The following little story is told of a citizen of Port Chester, N. Y., whose education was somewhat superior to his wife's, a fact regarding which she was very sensitive.

On one occasion the man drove over to White Plains to inquire regarding the health of his sister-in-law, who was dangerously ill. Upon returning he was met by his wife, who asked of her sister's condition.

"She is convalescent," replied the man.

Immediately and in the most emphatic manner the woman cried out: "I want none of your soothing words; I want facts. You tell me this minute, is my sister dead or alive?"

Physicians May Advertise.

We believe the time is fast coming when all progressive physicians will feel at liberty to advertise as freely as men engaged in other business, and there is no reason why they should not do so, except the restriction laid down in an ancient code that not one doctor in ten has ever read, but of which the average physician stands in mortal terror.—Covert Medical News.
