REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The following is the full text of the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention last week, at Harrisburg:

The Republicans of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, reaffirming their adhesion to the declaration of principles adopted by the national Republican convention of 1892, re-solve:

That we demand the immediate and unconditional repeal of the purchasing clause of the act of congress entitled "an act directing the purchase of silver bullion and the issuing of treasury notes thereon," approved July 14, 1890. We congratulate the country upon the recent prompt and patriotic action of the house of representatives, and request the Senators from Pennsylvania to support similar legislation now pending in the senate.

We favor the expansion of the circulating medium of the country until the same shall amount to forty dollars per capita of our population, and approve the proposition to issue to national banks notes to the par value of the bonds deposited to secure their circulation. In this connection we repeat the following declaration of the last Republican national convention: "The American people from tradition and interest, favor bimetallism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined by legislation as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals so that the purchasing and debt-paying power of a dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall at all times be equal. The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers, and its workingmen, demand that every dollar, paper or coin issued by the government shall be as good as any other." Further, we declare that the obligations of the government should be discharged in money approved and current in all civilized nations, and to that end that a largely increased reserve of gold should be gradually accumulated and maintained.

CHARGES AGAINST THE DEMOCRATS.

Swiftly upon the heels of Democratic success in 1892 has followed unprecedented national distress. A ruinous fall in the price of farm and other products and manufactures; the closing of workshops, factories and mills; the reduction of the wages of labor; the discharge of workingmen from employment; the cessation of railroad extension and diminution of traffic; bankruptcy and the suspension of banks, are to-day the only monuments of their triumph. The present condition of the country is entirely due to the conviction that a vital attack will be made upon the system of protection. We reiterate the belief we have often expressed that the maintenance of an adequate and stable system of protective duties is essential to the well-being of the nation and the prosperity of labor and capital, and protest against any amendments to the McKinley bill until it shall have been fairly tested and judged by its practical operation.

The heroic sacrifices and unfaltering patriotism of the Union soldiers and sailors in the great war of the rebellion created a debt of gratitude that the nation can never pay, and the Republican party, ever mindful of their loyal services, and grateful for their heroism, renews its declaration of friendship for the surviving veterans, and its advocacy of liberal pensions, and so far as possible, will not only contribute to their comfort in their declining years, but will hold in sacred memory their priceless and distinguished services on the field of battle. The national Democratic administration, in the appointments of officers in charge of the interior department at Washington, who are deserve the condemnation of every loyal citizen in the nation, and the Republican party of Pennsylvania emphatically denounces the use by which the heroes of the republic are being arbitrarily deprived of their pensionsin an ingratitude of the patriotic American people and in reflecting discredit upon the great republic made perpetual by the loyal services of the Union soldiers and sailors.

We demand the enactment and enforcement of immigration laws which shall effectually prohibit the importation of ignorant and undesirable immigrants. Our intelligent workingmen should not be obliged to compete with such labor.

We recommend that the representation to the Republican national convention for 1892 be based upon the Republican vote at the presidential election of 1892, and that the Republican national committee issue its call accordingly.

Representation in future state conventions shall be based upon the vote cast at the presidential or gubernatorial election immediately preceding, one delegate being allotted to each legislative district for every 2,000 Republican votes and an additional delegate for a fraction exceeding 1,000 votes, each district to have at least one delegate.

We commend the action of the last legislature in this state setting apart from the revenues of the commonwealth an additional million dollars to defray the cost of public schools, thus increasing the appropriation for that purpose to $5,000,000 per annum and relieving the burden of local taxation to that extent. This act again forcibly illustrates the integrity of the Republican party in redeeming its pledges for the reduction of taxation.

CURED ME.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Gentlemen:—I desire to tell you just how I was, so that the public may know of your wonderful Swamp-Root. Two years ago last October I had spells of vomiting. I could not keep anything in my stomach. The Doctor said I had consumption of the stomach and bowels, continued to run down in weight. I was reduced to 60 lbs. I could vomit blood, and at one time as much as three pints; we had one of the best Physicians and they said my case was hopeless. "Oh, my sufferings were terrible." A neighbor told me of your Swamp-Root, and my husband got a bottle. I took it to please him. I used six bottles of Swamp-Root and I am now nearly as well as ever. I weigh 146 lbs., do my own work and take care of my home. Every one says, I was raised from the dead, and many will not believe that I am still living until they come and see me, and then they can't believe their own eyes. I am feeling so well." Very gratefully,

MRS. JOHN CHAMPION,
Jan. 20th, 1892. Jefferson, N. Y.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, a Notary Public, this 20th day of January, 1892.

THE END OF DR. GRAVES.

He Takes His Life With Poison in Denver Jail.

DENVER, Sep. 5.—Dr. T. Thacher Graves, the convicted prisoner of Mrs. Josephine Barnally, committed suicide in his cell in the county jail last Saturday presumably by taking poison. He was found stiff and cold in death at 9 a. m., by the man who had been caring for him. On his person was found the following letter:

DENVER, Col., Aug. 9.

TO THE CORONER OF DENVER:

DEAR SIR.—Please don't hold an autopsy on my remains. The cause of death may be conferred as follows: Died from persecution. Worn out. Exhausted.

Yours respectfully,
T. THACHER GRAVES, M. D.

The corpse was quite cold when found. No direct evidence of suicide was visible but the above letter tells the story. There were also letters to Mrs. Graves, wife of the doctor, to Julius Crew and an address to the public.

That the prisoner had long contemplated taking his own life is evident from the date of the letter—August 9 last.

As is well known, Dr. Graves was awaiting his second trial for the alleged murder of Mrs. Josephine Barnally, of Providence, who at the time of her death was visiting friends in Denver. She died April 24, 1892. On April 9 she drank from a bottle of whiskey that had arrived mail from Boston and that was labelled: "Wish You a Happy New Year. Please accept this fine old whiskey from your friends in the woods."

The whiskey contained a solution of arsenic. Dr. Graves was accused of sending the bottle. After one of the most dramatic trials in the criminal annals of this country, Dr. Graves was convicted of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to be hanged. The Supreme Court granted him a new trial which was to have begun the latter part of this month. A letter was left addressed to John W. Bridges, the "Trusty" who discovered the doctor dead in his cell.

Captain Crews, the jailer, was the last person to see Dr. Graves alive. According to the statements made to the coroner, he passed the cell at 2 o'clock Sunday morning and then the unfortunate man appeared to be all right.

As is evident from the letter addressed to the coroner, Dr. Graves unfortunately committed suicide, but with what the strange agent will fail. It is supposed, however, that he took morphine.

Dr. Graves' letter to the public reviews the case at length and protests his innocence of the crime.

Mr. Benedict said that the President stood the ordeal well and even played cribbage with him the same evening. Mr. Benedict added:

"I want to say that the President never was in better health than he is to-day. The talk about his having Bright's disease, cancer and goodness knows what, is all rot."

A Racking Cough

Cured by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

MRS. P. D. HALL, 217 Genesee St., Lockport, N. Y., says:

"Over thirty years ago I remember hearing my father describe the wonderful curative effects of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. During a recent attack of La Grippe, which assumed the form of a catarrh, soreness of the lungs, accompanied by an aggravating cough, I used various remedies and prescriptions. While some of these medicines partially alleviated the coughing during the day, none of them afforded me any relief from that spasmodic action of the lungs which would seize me the moment I attempted to lie down at night. After ten or twelve such nights I was and had about decided to sit up all night in my easy chair, and procure what sleep I could in that way. It then occurred to me that I had a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took a spoonful of this preparation in a little water, and was able to lie down without coughing. In a few moments I fell asleep, and awoke in the morning greatly refreshed and feeling much better. I took a teaspoonful of the Pectoral every night for a week, then gradually decreased the dose, and in two weeks my cough was cured."
