1893. Harper's Bazar. ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR is a journal for the home. It gives the fullest and latest information about fashions, and its numerous illustrations, Paris designs, and pattern-sheet supplements are indispensable alike to the home dress-maker and the professional milliner. No expense is spared to make its artistic attractiveness of the highest order. Its bright stories, amusing comedies, and thoughtful essays satisfy all tastes, and its last page is famous as a budget of wit and humor. In its weekly issues everything is included which is of interest to women. The Serials for 1893 will be written by WALTER BESANT and EDNA LYALL. CHRISTINE TREHSE HERNICK will furnish a practical series, entitled "At the Toilet." GRACE KING, OLIVE THORNE MILLER, and CASADACE WHEELER will be frequent contributors. The work of women in the Columbian Exposition will be fully represented with many illustrations. T. W. Higginson, in "Women and Men," will please a cultivated audience.

1893. Harper's Weekly. ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is acknowledged as standing first among illustrated weekly periodicals in America. It occupies a place between that of the hurried daily paper and that of the less timely monthly magazine. It includes both literature and news, and presents with equal force and felicity the real events of current history and the imaginative themes of fiction. On account of its very complete series of illustrations of the World's Fair, it will be not only the best guide to the great Exposition, but also its best souvenir. Every public event of general interest will be fully illustrated in its pages. Its contributions, being from the best writers and artists in the country, it will continue to excel in literature, news, and illustrations, all other publications of its class.
