

Geo. E. Elwell. EVERY FRIDAY MORNING at Bloomsburg, the County Seat of Columbia County, Pennsylvania.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1893. TUESDAY'S ELECTIONS. DEMOCRATS DEFEATED IN MANY STATES.

Outside of Pennsylvania and New Jersey elections were held Tuesday in twelve states—New York, Ohio, Massachusetts, Iowa, Maryland, Virginia, Kansas, Nebraska, Kentucky, Michigan, South Dakota and Illinois.

In New York the election was for Secretary of State, Comptroller, Attorney-General, Treasurer, State Engineer and Surveyor, Associate Justices of the Court of Appeals and delegates to the convention to revise the State Constitution.

Interest chiefly centered in the contest for the Judgeship, in which Bartlett was the Republican candidate and Maynard that of Senator Hill and Tammany Hall.

The election in Ohio was for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Treasurer, Attorney-General, Commissioner of Public Works, Judge of the Supreme Court, Dairy Commissioner, and a Legislature consisting of 107 Representatives and 31 Senators.

The gubernatorial candidates were the present incumbent, Governor McKinley, and Neal, the nominee of the Democratic party.

In Massachusetts the Republican candidate for Governor and the whole Republican ticket was elected, while in Iowa Governor Boies, the present democratic incumbent, who sought re-election, was defeated by a majority of 33.

In Virginia Colonel C. T. O'Ferrell, the democratic candidate for Governor, is elected by 40,000 majority, while in Kentucky the Democrats have captured the Legislature.

The Salt Lake City Daily Tribune of the 19th of last October, is one of the most amusing things that ever fell into my hands.

It worships at the shrine of the silver god. It sacrifices upon the altar every principle of justice and truth. It would offer in burnt sacrifice the inalienable rights of every American freeman if that would appease the wrath of the silver god.

It is possible Mr. Hill will yet be elected president. "For twenty years" says the Tribune have depression, distress and oppression followed in the wake of demoralizing silver in 1873, and also charges the present business depression upon a change of administration.

In enumerating the plagues of Egypt as parallel to the panics and business depression for the last twenty years, the Tribune overlooked the most dire of all plagues, in our day, and that is the plague of cranks, of which it is chief.

Senator Hill may yet be the Moses that will be elected president who will lead the nation out of the plague of cranks. Senator Hill's signal ability, sterling integrity and great devotion to the cause of his country's good in the senate has gained for him the admiration of all true Americans, and the fear of the plague of cranks.

For reasons which it is scarcely necessary to mention, this issue of this paper is not decorated with a display of poultry. This does not seem to have been a lucky week for the democratic rooster.

It was so last Tuesday, and it always has been so, and probably always will be so. In New York and New Jersey there were additional causes; in the former the candidacy of Judge Maynard who was opposed by many of the leading democratic papers, and whose nomination was an unfit one; and in the latter the race track issue.

To restore gray hair to its natural color as in youth, cause it to grow abundant and strong, there is no better preparation than Hall's Hair Renewer.

The House passed the Sherman law repeal bill and the President signed the bill an hour afterwards, and then congress adjourned.

Hood's Praises Itself. Kidney Troubles - Bright's Disease Cured. Now Able to Work and Sound as a Dollar.

"I do think Hood's Sarsaparilla is 'worth its weight in gold.' For four years I suffered miserably with terrible pains in my back and trouble with my kidneys. The doctors thought I had Bright's disease. Many a time I had to give up work, and continually grew worse, and when I sat or stooped down I had to be helped up. At last I had to give up and go to bed and remain sick long weeks. It was then I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I soon found that it was helping me although I had been told nothing would help me and thought...

I Would Have to Die. But I continued to improve till I am now in perfect health and have as good a back as any man in town. Today I can do a good day's work, and truly feel that Hood's Sarsaparilla was a God-send to me. I am as sound as the best dog.
