Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The President has issued the following Thanksgiving Day proclamation:—BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.—A PROCLAMATION.

"While the American people should every day remember with praise and thanksgiving the Divine goodness and mercy which have followed them since their beginning as a nation, it is fitting that one day in each year should be especially devoted to the contemplation of the blessing we have received from the hand of God, and to the grateful acknowledgement of His loving kindness.

"Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 30th day of the present month of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to be kept and observed by all the people of our land. On that day let us forego our ordinary work and employments, and assemble in our usual places of worship, where we may recall all that God has done for us, and where from grateful hearts our united tribute of praise and song may reach the Throne of Grace. Let the reunion of kindred and the social meeting of friends lend cheer and enjoyment to the day, and let generous gifts of charity for the relief of the poor and needy prove the sincerity of our thanksgiving.

"Witness my hand and seal of the United States, which I have caused to be hereto affixed.

"Done at the city of Washington on the 3rd day of November, in the year of our Lord Eighteen Hundred and Ninety three, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and eightieth.

"GROVER CLEVELAND. By the President: "WALTER Q. GRESHAM, "Secretary of State."

Married. On Saturday, October 28th, at the office of W. B. Snyder, Justice of the Peace, in Locust township, Mr. Lewis H. Murray and Miss Malinda E. Hossler, both of Catawissa township.

IT'S A QUEER WOMAN—who cannot understand the benefit to be derived from the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Did you ever see a sickly woman with bright eyes, clear skin, and rosy cheeks? Or a healthy one without them? A woman can live in full health, do more work, have more pleasure, amount to more, by taking the "Prescription." When the bodily functions are not regular the woman is delicate.

As a support for nervous, exhausted, overworked, women, it's an invigorating tonic, a soothing and strengthening nerve; besides, it lessens pain. It's the only remedy for woman's chronic weaknesses and irregularities that's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money paid for it refunded.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The quality and variety of entertainment and instruction to be given at the county institute next week has never been excelled at an institute in this county.

The advice and encouragement of the teachers of the county and of the people of Bloomsburg warranted the engaging of none but the very best available talent, and only such talent has been secured.

Prof. John B. Demotte on Monday evening will give his grand and wonderfully illustrated lecture—"The Harp of the Senses, or the Secret of Character Building."

DeMotte comes recommended by eminent persons in all parts of the country. President Hodges of Marshall College and State Normal School of Huntington, West Virginia says: "Dr. DeMotte's lecture on 'The Harp of the Senses or the Secret of Character Building' is simply great. Nothing else equal to it has ever been given here. Every parent and teacher should hear it."

Dr. DeMotte has expended over $4,000 for illustrations used in one lecture.

This opening lecture of the institute—Monday evening, November 13th, will be the greatest of the season.

Tuesday evening Levin Irvin Handy will give his eloquent lecture on "Patrick Henry, Orator and Statesman." Mr. Handy is an orator and comes recommended by ex-State Supt. D. J. Waller in the following words: "The lecture Patrick Henry, was one of the most delightfully entertaining to which I have ever listened, and it was full of information."

The present State Supt. of Public Instruction, Dr. W. C. Schaeffer also recommends Dr. Handy's lecture in these words: "L. I. Handy's 'Patrick Henry' is a gem of a lecture."

Wednesday evening Col. Geo. W. Bain will give one of his famous lectures. The Colonel is known here and comes with the kindest and best words from Russell Conwell, Bishop Vincent, Miss Francis Willard, and hundreds of others.

Thursday evening Miss Ollie Torbett and her company will give the musical treat of the season.

This company has never appeared before a Bloomsburg audience. It comes recommended by a prominent county Supt. of Pennsylvania as follows: "The Ollie Torbett Concert Company is one of the finest and best music organizations available. Ollie Torbett will give your teachers and the citizens of your county one of the best musical treats they have ever had the privilege of enjoying.

Reserved seats for the course $1.50. The public can purchase and reserve seats at Dentler's any time.

Undisputed Merit.

The great success of the Royal Baking Powder is due to the extreme care exercised by its manufacturers to make it entirely pure, uniform in quality, and of the highest in leavening power. All the scientific knowledge, care and skill attained by a twenty years' practical experience are contributed toward this end, and no pharmaceutical preparation can be dispensed with a greater accuracy, precision and exactness. Every article used is absolutely pure. A number of chemists are employed to test the strength of each ingredient, so that its exact power and effect in combination with its co-ingredients is definitely known. Nothing is trusted to chance, and no person is employed in the preparation of the materials used or the manufacture of the powder, who is not an expert in his particular branch of the business. As a consequence, the Royal Baking Powder is of the highest grade of excellence always pure, wholesome and uniform in quality. Each box is exactly like every other, and will retain its powers and produce the same and the highest leavening effect in any climate, at any time. The Government Chemists after having analyzed all the principal brands in the market, in their reports placed the Royal Baking Powder at the head of the list for strength, purity and wholesomeness, and thousands of tests all over the country have further demonstrated the fact that its qualities are in every respect, unrivaled.

The following letters are held at the Bloomsburg, Pa., post office and will be sent to the dead letter office Nov. 21, 1893.

Mr. John F. Bender, Mrs. J. Hannas, Mrs. Lizzie Little, Miss Laura Mapler, Mr. Hermann Meyer, Mrs. Margaret Stone, Mr. Cal Wintersteen. Persons calling for these letters will please say they were advertised Nov. 7, 1893. One cent will be charged on each letter advertised.

PRIZE PUZZLES.

A series of prize puzzles will be published simultaneously in THE COLUMBIAN and Harper's Young People, the first one appearing this week, the second on November 24, and the third on January 5. They offer our boys and girls a chance to exercise their brains, and to earn a prize. Try them.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill St., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

THE NAME SHOULD REMAIN.

TO THE COLUMBIAN: SIR:—You are right. The end of the Irondale furnaces has come—but not the end of "Irondale." The name is welded to the locality, and no matter to what uses the beautiful place and valuable plant may be put, it will still be IRONDALÉ to all our people.

Of the 5000 or 6000 people in Bloomsburg to-day, very few were here when the furnaces now being demolished, were erected. According to Freeze's "History of Columbia County," they were built in 1844, the company having been incorporated in 1839.

Certainly the plant and real estate of "Irondale" is the cheapest property which has been sold in Bloomsburg for a quarter of a century. Stone, brick, fire brick, sand, timber, and water power and railroad, and public road are all there to the hand of the builder. Its possibilities are infinite. A JUNIOR.

Teachers

During institute can get good board and rooms facing Main street for $1 per day at Phillips' Cafe.

"Nothing succeeds like success," and nothing will more quickly insure success than true merit. For fifty years, Ayer's Sarsaparilla has maintained its popularity as the superior blood-purifier. It stands upon its own merits and never fails to give satisfaction.

OUR THANKSGIVING NUMBER.

The issue of THE COLUMBIAN for Thanksgiving week will contain ten pages. Besides the usual amount of general and local news, it will contain a full page of special Thanksgiving matter copiously illustrated; a full page story; a coupon which will entitle the holder to a beautiful oil panel picture, "An American Beauty"; a department for women, and for girls and boys; agricultural, humorous, and miscellaneous reading. The subscription price is only $1.00 a year, and those desiring to obtain this beautiful picture should subscribe at once. Single copies will be sent postpaid to any address in the county for 5 cents. Postage stamps will be received. Order now. 11-10-31.

Cream—not Skim Milk.

Every farmer and villager, their wives and boys and girls, will be interested in the big-little, cream-not-skim-milk paper, the FARM JOURNAL, of Philadelphia. Its 200,000 subscribers are scattered from Maine to Washington, and from Michigan to Texas. It's breezy, crisp, boiled-down pages contain as much information in the course of the year as many of the high-priced weeklies; while its earnest, manly tone and its bright and common sense way of treating farm matters leaves a good and lasting taste in one's mouth. The subscription price is 50 cents a year. We have made arrangements with the publisher by which he will send it one full year free, to all who promptly pay up for our paper. Sample copies will be sent free by addressing a postal request to FARM JOURNAL, Philadelphia, Pa. 10-6-2-m.

WATCH AND CHAIN LOST.

During the excitement at the fire in her house recently a gold watch and chain belonging to Mrs. Ella Kline was lost. It was a Christmas gift from her deceased husband, and therefore it was much more valuable to her than to anybody else. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning it to Mrs. Kline at her residence on Rock street, third house below Market.

"A chemical success and medical triumph," so speaks an eminent physician in reference to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral; and the eulogy was none too strong. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in all diseases of the throat and lungs.

Five Dollars.

FREE TO ALL READERS OF THIS PAPER.

On November 30th we shall print a coupon entitling all who receive the issue of that date to a superb work of art, just published, entitled, "An American Beauty," a splendidly perfect reproduction in oils of a new floral painting, 20 inches high, suitable for narrow upright spaces, by the artist of the famous "Yard of Roses" and "Yard of Pansies." We have made arrangements that will enable us to present this exquisite picture to all our readers' free, and all should avail themselves of our generous offer.

DR. KILMER'S SWAMP-ROOT CURED ME.

SUFFERED EIGHT YEARS! Couldn't Eat or Sleep

Dr. Kilmer & Co.—"I had been troubled for eight years with stomach and heart difficulties. I lived mostly on milk, as every thing I ate hurt me so. My kidneys and liver were in a terrible state. Could neither sleep or eat. I had been treated by the best Chicago doctors without any benefit whatever. As a last resort I tried your SWAMP-ROOT, and now I can eat anything, no matter what. Nothing hurts me, and can go to bed and get a good night's sleep. SWAMP-ROOT cured me.

Any one doubting this statement can write, I will gladly answer." Mrs. German Miller, Dec. 20th, 1892. Springport, Mich.

SWAMP-ROOT CURED ME.

Had Torpid Liver For 14 Years. Bileous all the Time.

DR. SING.—"I have been troubled with Torpid Liver for 14 years and gone through courses of bilious fever; many times it has been impossible for me to do any kind of labor. Dr. Kilmer's SWAMP-ROOT was first recommended to me by Holthouse, Backburn & Co., (Druggists) Decatur, Ind. After taking one bottle I was uncertain whether I was really deriving any benefit or not; after taking the second bottle, however, I found that my health was improving and I continued until I had taken 6 bottles. I can now cheerfully recommend SWAMP-ROOT to every one who has torpid liver, for it has completely cured me." Jan. 10th, 1893. F. W. CHRISTIANER, Decatur, Ind.
