Jennings Demorest, New York, with three cents enclosed for postage &c., and the panel picture will be sent by mail direct to those who send him the coupons. We do not wish to mislead any one, and therefore state that the picture will be sent only to those who forward the coupon as above.

The lot of the estate of Hannah Armstrong, deceased was sold on Saturday to C. A. Kleim for $2600.

Much better order prevails at the Opera House now than for some time past.

Arouse the faculties, stimulate the circulation, purify the blood, with Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

License blanks for hotel, restaurant, wholesale bottlers, and distillers for sale at THE COLUMBIAN office. tf.

The members of the choir of St. Paul's church were entertained by Mrs. Geo. E. Elwell on Thursday night.

Street Commissioner Housel is laying sewer pipe up the Light Street road to connect with E. B. Brower's houses.

A very large line of Ladies' and Gentlemen's medium and high priced shoes will always be found at a bargain. J. A. HESS.

Arrangements are being made for the opening of East Third street, and buildings are being moved out of the line of the street.

The institute proceedings are concluded in this issue. We are indebted to Mr. J. Preston Yorks, of Divide for the very excellent report. He took it down in short hand.

You will certainly never miss getting one of the superb oil pictures which we intend giving to each of our readers as a Thanksgiving present. See description in another column.

The store of J. W. Moyer was entered last Sunday morning, and goods to the value of fifteen dollars were taken. Burglars are becoming too numerous.

I have a large stock of Men's Kip Boots of odd sizes which I will sell at a bargain. J. A. HESS.

A whist club has been organized by a number of ladies on Market street and near by, and the first entertainment was given by Miss Lilla Sloan on Tuesday evening. They will meet once a week.

Services at St. Paul's Episcopal church begin at 7:30 o'clock on Sunday evenings. Ushers are always in attendance, and strangers are welcome and will be shown to seats. Full choral service by a vested choir of twenty men and boys, and a sermon by the rector.

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as any thing else. Its easier cure a severe cold or cough with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better result; better try it.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

John Appleman of Buck Horn died last Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, after a long illness. He was a brother of Mrs. Issachar Evans and Mrs. A. J. Evans, of this town. He was a surveyor and at one time held the office of Justice of the Peace. The funeral was held on Tuesday morning at ten o'clock.

NEXT WEEK

We will have something to say about CHRISTMAS. It is coming and we are prepared.

THIS WEEK WE OFFER

A Sheep's Wool Bleached bath sponge, large, for 25 cents, an unbleached at 20 cents. Best Value possible, but supply is limited. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

RISHTON'S DRUG STORE,
Opposite Post Office.

B. F. Sponenberg and wife of the St. Charles Hotel, Berwick, celebrated their birthdays last Sunday. They were born on the same day. They gave a grand dinner, and our townsman C. H. Reice was one of their guests.

Burns are absolutely painless when DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is promptly applied. This statement is true. A perfect remedy for skin diseases, chapped hands and lips, and never fails to cure piles.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

I can give you Ladies' black overgaiters for 50 cts., Gentlemen the same price 50 cts. J. A. HESS.

Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris has received a large increase of income since the death of her husband. She was already rich, as her father-in-law at his death three years ago left her an income of $35,000 a year and the London house.

Sold Out.

F. D. Dentler has sold his shoe store to Jones & Walter of Jonestown, and the new firm will take possession the first of the year. Mr. Dentler has accepted a position as travelling salesman for a Boston shoe house.

The contract for printing government envelopes will soon expire. No new contract will be made, business men will be obliged to patronize the home printer or not use the ready stamped envelope. This is certainly right. There is no more reason why the government should furnish printed envelopes, than that they should furnish general merchandise, or fuel.

If you need Rubber Boots or felt Boots I can save you money. J. A. HESS.

A bill in equity was filed last week by the Bloomsburg & Sullivan R. R. Co., alleging that H. C. Pease is erecting a building on the right of way of the railroad. A hearing was held before Judge Ikeler on Saturday, on a motion to continue the injunction. Hon. C. R. Buckalew and L. E. Waller Esq., appeared for the railroad company, and C. G. Barkley and Grant Herring Esqs., for Mr. Pease. The hearing was continued until next Saturday.

A Kansas woman who has been elected police justice of her city has adopted a novel solution for the tramp problem. The first tramp who was brought before her for judgment was sentenced to two baths a day for ten days and to hard labor on the stone-pile, with the order that he be fed if he worked and starved if he shirked. The prisoner survived the ordeal, but now the first question a tramp asks on approaching a Kansas town is whether the police judge is a man or a woman.

For Gentlemen's fancy embroidered Slippers for Holiday gifts call and examine. J. A. HESS.

Be Careful of Whom You Buy.

The hog cholera is around through the counties and many porkers are prematurely dying. Our people who enjoy pork steaks and sausage, should be careful not to buy the latter except from persons whom they have full confidence in. Moreover our council should employ an expert who can diagnose diseased meat almost at a glance. The public health demands this of them. No more sure cause for disease than to partake of the meat of an animal that has died of that hog pest, cholera.

It's all the same, a slight cold, congested lungs or severe cough. One Minute Cough Cure banishes them.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

TO FARMERS

We have a fine stock of our New Feed Cutters and Crushers and Corn Sheller on hand to sell at panic prices. Call and see them.

WHITE & CONNER,
Orangeville, Pa.

M. L. Kline the harness maker, has purchased the Seeshultz corner now occupied by Bloomsburg Car Company. Consideration $4100. Possession will be given April 1st.

The chamois figure has disappeared from the window of Rishton's drug store. It attracted much attention while there. Look out for something else quite as novel, before the holidays.

The smallest "cat-boil" is large enough to show that the blood needs purifying—a warning which, if unheeded, may result, not in mere boils, but in something very much worse. Avert the danger in time by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Cured others, will cure you.

Excursions to California.

On account of the San Francisco Mid-Winter Fair, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company will sell excursion tickets to San Francisco, St. Jose, Colton, Los Angeles and San Diego, Cal., and Portland, Ore., at reduced rates, good until April 1, 1894. For full particulars call on any coupon ticket agent or address John R. Pett, District Passenger Agent, 386 William St., Williamsport, Pa.

The Largest Dog in the World.

Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company claims this honor. The dog in question weighs 203 pounds, stands 35 inches high to the shoulder and measures 7 feet from tip to tip, and cost Mr. Stetson $1,000. He was originally the property of the Czar of Russia and was presented by him to Miss Marguerite Fish the well known actress, and sold by her to Mr. Bradenburgh, of museum fame, and was exhibited by him in all the leading cities of the United States and can be seen daily in the monster street parade given by the company which will exhibit here Friday, Nov. 24th.

Have you seen the new bonnet? No, I have had such a bad headache of late, and been so bilious that I could not go out—remedy—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

A New Great Work of Art.

The artist who painted a "Yard of Pansies" and a "Yard of Roses" has just produced a magnificent rival to these two lovely pictures. It is a floral panel picture called "An American Beauty," 20 inches high, and admirably adapted for upright narrow spaces. By an arrangement with the publishers, who are making, by the most perfect process, exquisite reproductions in oil colors of this great picture, undistinguishable from the original, we shall print a coupon in our issue of November 30th, that will entitle all our readers to one of these superb creations, free. It is a great work of art, and we have pleasure in presenting such a valuable gift to our patrons. Do not fail to get a copy of this paper for the date mentioned. 11-24-21.

ANOTHER GREAT BUY

And another Great Bargain for our many customers throughout this vicinity. We were approached by a leading clothing manufacturer showing samples of Mens', Boys', and Children's Suits, Overcoats and Ulsters at much below the regular cost price. Our buyer is now at the factory looking them over, and they will be shipped immediately upon inspection. We expect them here by Saturday next. This is probably your last chance of the season to buy your winter Suit or Overcoat at the remarkably low figures we are able to quote. All this season's goods are of the very best, turned out by Ready Made Clothing manufacturers. You cannot afford to let this opportunity slip by if you are looking out for your own welfare. Remember they'll be here by Saturday, November 25th.

Have you heard of the splendid Thanksgiving present to our readers—a beautiful floral panel-picture in oils, which we describe in another column?

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Man, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Early Risers. Early Risers. Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, sick headache, dyspepsia and nervousness.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

A PLUCKY BULL

We have often heard of the bull that attempted to butt a locomotive off the track, but always considered it as a libel on the bull, until last Tuesday afternoon. Coming down from Scranton on the D. L. & W. road, we had just left Beach Haven, when the train slacked up, and came almost to a stand still. The cause of the stop was a half dozen cows and a young red bull. The latter was on the track, and seeing the engine coming he braced himself with his head down and tail up, and was ready for a fight, and stood there until the train was almost on him. The engineer had slowed down, and when he came close to the animal he opened the cylinder valves and the steam came rushing out. This was too much for the bull, and he jumped about four feet in the air, and made a dash from the track, and concluded not to mash the locomotive.

Cream—not Skim Milk.

Every farmer and villager, their wives and boys and girls, will be interested in the big little, cream-not-skim-milk paper, the FARM JOURNAL, of Philadelphia. Its 200,000 subscribers are scattered from Maine to Washington, and from Michigan to Texas. It's breezy, crisp, boiled-down pages contain as much information in the course of the year as many of the high-priced weeklies; while its earnest, manly tone and its bright and common sense way of treating farm matters leaves a good and lasting taste in one's mouth. The subscription price is 50 cents a year. We have made arrangements with the publisher by which he will send it one full year free, to all who promptly pay up for our paper. Sample copies will be sent free by addressing a postal request to FARM JOURNAL, Philadelphia, Pa. 10-6-2-m.
