The New Year's Novelties for Ladies.

With the beginning of the year ap pear novelties of Russian effects and modern adoptions of the first Empire; the latter being undoubtedly suggest-ed by a recent revival of the Napoleo nic studies which makes its influence felt into literature, on the stage and even in art. Thus elegant opera Liwiler, A. E., farmer, wraps are frequently made with Employee and voluminous Renais. Martin, G. B., blacksmith, pire yokes and voluminous Renais sance sleeves. The draperies already announced are being developed into many original effects, indoor gowns being influenced by those of the peplum description. The dress skirt is becoming wider at the bottom, and the sleeve also more voluminous. Bodices at the present moment, are taxing all the inventive genius of the artist dressmaker by being susceptible of every conceivable novelty in trimming and material. There has never, also, existed such a rage as the present one for fur and ermine above all. Some original designs of collarettes in real Louis YIII style-drooping at the shoulders and very flat-are becoming popular among the new modes. These various movements indicated in the toilettes of the mothers are closely copied by the fashions in girls dresses and even in the costumes of very little ones themselves. In extracting these instructive items from the latest Mc-Dowell Fashion Journa's we notice that the handsome publications still maintain the high standard of their former excellence and contain besides new features of special interest. They are invaluable for their practical advice to Dressmakers and Amateurs. ". .a Mode de Paris" and "Paris Album of Fashion" cost only $3.50 each for a yearly subscription, or 35 cts. a copy. "The French Dressmaker" is $3.00 per annum or 30 cts. a copy. As for "La Mode," it only comes to $1.50 a year or 15 cts. a copy, which makes it the most economical family fashion journal in existence. If you are unable to procure any of these publications at your newsdealer do not take any substitute from him, but apply by mail to Messrs. A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th St., New York.

To day Hood's Sarsaparilla stands at the head in the medicine world, admired in prosperity and envied in merit by thousands of would-be competi tors. It has a larger sale than any other medicine before the American public, and probably greater than all other sarsaparillas and blood purifiers combined

Each success proves merit. If you are sick, is it not the medicine for you to try? Hood's Sarsapa-
