A HANDSOME ALMANAC.

Every subscriber who pays up during this month, will be presented with a handsome almanac for 1894. They are handsomely illustrated, and have illuminated covers, and they are so expensive that we cannot afford to present them to everybody. We offer them as a special inducement to pay now. After these are gone there will be no more. Each person who pays a year's subscription in January will get one. Those who pay to January 1895 will also be presented with the American Farmer or Womankind for one year free. Don't miss this chance.

Winter comes on apace, and with it comes the usual cracked lips, rough hands, coughs, colds, and sore throats. Neglect of such conditions means in the course of a few days a change from a petty annoyance to a positive disfigurement or a dangerous illness.

Six Months in New York City.

Powell, the Magician, in 1892, appeared at the Eden Musee, one of the most refined and fashionable places of amusement in that great city, for six consecutive months, to crowded houses nightly. When it is known that Prof. Powell gave each week of his engagement there nearly a complete change of programme, some idea may be had of the extensive repertoire of this great wonder worker. His performances were witnessed by over 200,000 people in New York during that period and he was the talk and amusement craze of the fashionable amusement circles there. During the annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Society, in New York, in that year, it is estimated that over 3000 delegates from that society alone witnessed his performance. If you see him once it is dollars to doughnuts you will go again. There is a peculiar charm and fascination about his entertainment that is irresistible. Everything new. At Opera House, Friday, Jan. 19th. Prices 25, 35, 50 to suit the times. Seats on sale at Slate's book store.

Torpid livers, the cause of numerous other ailments, are made healthy and vigorous by the use of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills.

For the intelligent voter the coming year will be fraught with more interest than a campaign. By what is done this winter the fate of parties and the history of government will be determined.

The most valuable paper that comes to this office is the New York World. Fearless and independent, working at all times for the best interests of the people, and never for the selfish ends of any ring or individual, supporting the right and condemning the wrong wherever found, it becomes a great power for good throughout the land. Its policy is defined by its well-known motto: "Equal Rights to All, Special Favors to None." The reputation of The Weekly World as an incomparable newspaper is fully established. It reaches for the very best and fullest news of the entire country, and gets it. The celebrated "Tarrif Mule" articles are again running in their weekly and are creating widespread attention. Its miscellaneous pages are replete with articles of valuable and interesting information to every one. It is a large 12 page, 8-column paper for only $1.00 a year. We have succeeded in making special arrangements by which we can furnish THE COLUMBIAN and The Weekly World one year both for only $1.50. Address

A Difference in Magicians.

People nowadays generally call every sleight of hand performer a magician. This is an erroneous comparison, as there are but very few artists either in Europe or America justly entitled to the title "Magician." Powell is a typical magician, and well worthy of being so called. A wonder worker, an originator, inventor and designer of magic, oriental occultism, mental phenomena, sensational mysteries, and seemingly impossible supernatural illusions. Powell will keep you thinking for many days over his inimitable and wonderful performance. There is but one Powell, and he will appear in this city at Opera House, Friday, Jan. 19th. Be advised in time and make one of the crowd that will be attracted to see this great magician. Everything new. Prices 25, 35, 50, to suit the times. Seats on sale at Slate's book store.
