A HANDSOME ALMANAC.

Many subscribers availed themselves of the opportunity to procure a handsome almanac by paying a year's subscription to THE COLUMBIAN during last month. The supply was not exhausted, and as long as they last they will be given out to all who pay during February.

The ballots for next Tuesday's election will cost the county about $197. The same number of ballots, at the rate paid in Carbon county, would have cost $238.

Jacob Hinkleman will assist his father-in-law, Thomas McBride, at the Bloom Poor District farm hereafter. He has purchased a house in Light Street, and moved there from Evansville.

The revival meetings in the M. E. Church closed on Tuesday night, and the Evangelist ended her services at that time. The meetings have been largely attended, and much good has been accomplished.

The storm of Sunday and Monday extended all over the country. Railroads were blocked by the snow, blizzards were prevalent, and much suffering ensued. On the ocean, many vessels are overdue, and some are known to have been lost.

There is no claim made for Ayer's Sarsaparilla which cannot be endorsed by scores of testimonials. This fact plainly proves that the blood is the source of most disorders and that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best of blood-purifiers. Try it this month.

Attorneys who have paper books to be printed for the Supreme Court should get them in shape at once, so that there will not be a rush at the last minute, and all want them printed at the same time. THE COLUMBIAN office is prepared to do such work with great rapidity, and at low rates.

What the law requires of constables was clearly set forth by Judge Bregy, of Philadelphia, who handed down an opinion with reference to constables and their duties, in which he quotes the following section of the law on the subject: "The constables of the respective wards, boroughs or townships in each county shall, in the first week of each term of the Court of Quarter Sessions, make returns, under oath, of all places in his bailiwick where vinous, spirituous, malt or brewed liquors or admixtures thereof are kept for sale or sold, except stores kept by druggists or apothecaries, stating which of said places are licensed under this act and which are unlicensed, and it shall be the special duty of the Judge of said Court to see that this return is faithfully made. And on the failure of any constable to comply with this provision, or if it be found upon examination or inquiry by said Court that any constable has either wilfully or negligently omitted to return all such houses and the names of the proprietors thereof in his bailiwick, he shall be guilty of wilfully and negligently making a false return, and the Court shall suspend him from office and direct the District Attorney to indict and try the said officer, and if found guilty he shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $500 and undergo an imprisonment, either simple or solitary, not exceeding two years, both or either, in the discretion of the Court."

TOWN TOPICS,

The Journal of Society.

NEW YORK. (THURSDAY.)
Is universally recognized as the most complete weekly journal in the world. Its "Sanitariums" columns are invaluable. Its society news, especially of the doings of the 400 of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, and all over the world, is not equaled by any newspaper. Its Financial department is authority with all bankers and brokers. Its "Literary Show" notes on current literature—is by the cleverest of reviewers. Its "Afield and Afloat" makes it the most interesting paper for all lovers of sport—yachting, football, rowing, shooting, fishing, etc. Its "On the Turf" exceeds all other reading matter. Its burlesques, poems and jokes are the cleverest. Its stories are by the best writers—among them Amelia Rives, F. Marion Crawford, Julian Hawthorne, Edgar Wallace, Gilbert Parker, Mary J. Hawker, "Lancet" Falconer, Barry Pain, Paul Bourget, Rudyard Kipling, Ambrose Bierce, etc. etc. and are even if a trifle risqué, yet always clever, bright and pretty. Without coarseness or anything to offend the most refined and moral woman. In addition to all this there is each week a supplement, portrait, in colors, of some man eminent in his walk of life.

THE NEWS OF THE WORLD
CONCISELY TOLD AND BRIGHTLY COMMENTED UPON.

THE PATRIOT is the only complete morning newspaper that reaches central Pennsylvania at an early hour of the day. It is one of the foremost Democratic newspapers in the state and the only one printed at the State Capital, the official and political center of the Commonwealth.

It prints the news, receiving it over its own wires through the extraordinary facilities of the great Press Association, aided by its own correspondents.
THE PATRIOT is Democratic to the core. It is opposed to bosses and an enemy of corrupt monopolies. It isn't afraid to fight the wrong; it never hesitates to speak for the right. It makes a specialty of department news and gives more each day than all the other State papers combined.

The leading question during the winter will be the Tariff Reform. In November next Pennsylvania will elect a Governor, members of Congress, and a State Legislature. The man who desires to keep informed must read, and the man who reads should get THE PATRIOT, daily or weekly.

To place THE PATRIOT in the hands of a yet larger constituency we will send the DAILY from now until March 1, 1895, by mail to any new subscriber on receipt of FIVE DOLLARS. THE WEEKLY will be sent to any new subscriber from now until March 1, 1895, on receipt of ONE DOLLAR.

THE PATRIOT is the best advertising medium in Pennsylvania outside of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.
Free to the Unemployed: It inserts without charge advertisements of those wanting employment. Its Help Order has brought assistance to hundreds. It has a cost a word Want Column for other wants.
DAILY, every week-day morning in the year. $5 a year.
WEEKLY, Tuesday evening of each week, $1 a year.
