ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.
FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1894.

Fire was put under the boilers at the Penn Elevator Works on Tuesday to test the machinery.

Township and borough auditors will audit all accounts except school districts on the second Monday in March.

A movement is being agitated to petition the court for a free county bridge at Millville.

A fair audience attended the "Diamond Breaker" at the Opera House on Monday night, and everybody was pleased.

Russel Karns has rented his Laporte hotel to Stewart & May of Clearfield county, who have taken charge of the house.

Mrs. A. B. Stewart of Orangeville, died at her home last Friday afternoon. She had been an invalid for some time.

It's all the same, a slight cold, congested lungs or severe cough. One Minute Cough Cure banishes them.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

Last week some one started the report that there was a case of small pox in town. The Board of Health investigated the matter and found that it was entirely unfounded.

The third story that W. H. Gilmore is adding to his building is rapidly progressing. It will be covered on the sides with steel sheeting representing stone work, for which Eshleman & Wolf are agents.

No better aid to digestion, No better cure for dyspepsia, Nothing more reliable for biliousness and constipation than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

Under the auspices of the Missionary Society, there will be a musicale given at the Reformed parsonage in Orangeville, on the evening of next Thursday, March 15. A silver collection will be lifted. All lovers of music are invited.

Samuel Kressler, brother of our townsman Casper Kressler, died at Wilkesbarre on the 28th ult, aged nearly ninety years. He resided in Espy for many years, and until recently, was a very active man for one of his age. The burial took place in Afton cemetery last Saturday.

The Mears Manufacturing Company has received a large order for washing machines from a firm in Nebraska. They also have other large orders, and are working full time.

They are well prepared to turn out a large amount of work, and their machines are sent all over the country.

Of all the blood-purifiers which were offered for exhibition at the World's Fair, Ayer's Sarsaparilla was the only one accepted. In admitting this great remedy, the World's Fair Directors publicly indorsed the favorable opinion which physicians and chemists have always held with regard to Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

I. Maier says he will have the prettiest line of clothing, hats, shirts and neckwear this spring that he has had at any previous time. He will in a few days go to New York and Philadelphia to make his purchases before moving into the Opera House block, where goods will be sold at prices lower than any where else in Bloomsburg. 3-9-2t.

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as any thing else. Its easier cure a severe cold or cough with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better result; better try it.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

FARMER'S INSTITUTE.

Preliminary arrangements having been completed by our resident member, the Farmer's Institute held under the auspices of the State Board of Agriculture convened at the Millville Opera House, on Wednesday, February 28, 1894. Chandler Eves, Ex-Officio chairman, assisted by Wilson M. Eves, and Thomas Wilson, a trio of Millville stalwarts.

The platform was occupied also by the Secretary of the State Board Thomas J. Edge and wife of Harrisburg, Hon. John A. Woodward, of Howard, Pa., Hon. N. F. Underwood, of Lake Como, Pa., T. B. Terry of Hudson, Ohio., Rev. Thomas L. Josephs, Lewisburg, Pa., C. W. Eckman, Millville, Pa., and others.

Every available seat was occupied, and many were disappointed in not gaining admittance.

A fraternal greeting by Hon. John A. Woodward; A practical talk on Business Farming by T. B. Terry; An excellent essay on Weights and Measures, by Hon. N. J. Underwood.

The inquiries, "Why the boys leave the farm," and "What constitutes a legal fence?" were responded to by Sec'y. T. J. Edge, in his usual intelligent and pertinent manner, general discussions upon the above questions by Hon. E. M. Tewksbury and others occupied the remainder of the afternoon session.

Promptly at 7:30 the house was filled, T. B. Terry answered the questions presented by the audience. Hon. N. F. Underwood recited "The Early Owl," Rev. Thomas L. Josephs was then introduced and occupied the entire evening with his lecture, "A Wheel within a Wheel."

Thursday morning at 9:30 the institute convened. "How to Grow Potatoes," by T. B. Terry, who has made a specialty of this branch of Agriculture. "The Average Farmer and the Average Farmer's Cow," an excellent essay by C. W. Eckman, junior member of the Eckman firm at this place received especial comment. "How to Raise Corn," a paper by Alex. Billmeyer one of the most successful farmers of Montour Co., with other practical points was read by the chairman. "Small Fruits for Home Use," was the subject assigned to T. B. Terry, who in his attractive way occupied the time until adjournment.

Thursday P. M.—"Fertilizer Brands and their Meaning" was illustrated with charts by Secretary Edge showing the amount of fertility in some brands and exposing those that were false.

The prominence given to Agriculture at the World's Fair was the very interesting theme by Hon. John A. Woodward, Commissioner of Penna's Exhibit at the World's Fair. "Farmers' Interest in School Work," by S. P. Deiterick, of Mooresburg, Montour Co. This essay is deserving of more than a passing notice and will be published entire.

Thursday evening—The large audience was a tribute not only to the distinguished speakers present, but to the intelligence of this community. Recitations were given by Misses Myra Eves and Mary Rich, followed by T. B. Terry's lecture, "The Wife's Share." This lecture had a peculiar significance. That in these later days of the 19th century there exists a necessity of explaining to intelligent men the wife's share in a life partnership. We can only briefly refer to the ability of the speaker (being on the side of right) he was master of the situation.

His matrimonial platform if adhered to would remove the unwarranted authority assumed in many families, and insure the proper adjustment of financial affairs that have embittered the lives of so many otherwise happy women. After some remarks by Hon. John A. Woodward, the chairman announced the adjournment of these very interesting sessions.

FRANCES M. EVES Sec'y.

When the blood is pure, the bowels in good order, and the liver active, it is a pleasure to live and blessings can be secured by using Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. 2t
