

IN CONGRESS.

The New Quorum Rule. CHINESE TREATY, GENERAL DEBATE ON TARIFF BILL, &c. $15,000 From Breckinridge to Miss Pollard.

Death of Senator Vance of N. C. From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Speaker Crisp was not, and is not an advocate of counting a quorum, although it was advocated by good Democrats long before Czar Reed was ever heard of outside of the town in which he lives; but it became his duty as chairman of the Committee on Rules to obey the caucus resolution directing that Com mittee to prepare and report to the House such a rule, and, like the good Democrat he is, he obeyed, and the new rule will be reported to the House and probably adopted this week, and when once adopted he will see that it is properly carried out and that mem bers are not counted whether present or not, as Reed used to do.

In this connection it is proper to state that the Democrats of the House were not driven into taking this action, which so many Democrats of promi nence personally opposed, by the Re publicans as they are claiming. It was the refusal of the Republicans to vote that kept the House tied, except during the short intervals when there was a Democratic quorum present, for almost a month, thus making conspic uous the necessity for counting a quorum or allowing the business of the House to be dictated by the Re publicans; but after all it was not the Republicans who forced the Demo cratic caucus to do what should not have been necessary, but which was absolutely necessary. It was the in ability of the Democratic leaders to keep a Democratic quorum on the floor of the House that did the busi ness. They concluded that they had tried and failed so often to keep a Democratic quorum that it would be a good idea to make the Republicans help by counting them when they re fused to vote, and at the same time, thank Heaven, they are going to make the absentee come to time or forfeit his pay while absent without leave, ex cept when sick and unable to attend to his duties.

Senator White, of California, does not believe that more than five Sena tors will vote against the ratification of the new Chinese treaty. It is expected that a vote will be reached some time this week, although there has been no formal agreement to that effect.

There was not much surprise here when the jury brought in a verdict for $15,000 in favor of Miss Pollard in her breach of promise case against Representative Breckinridge, of Ken tucky. It was generally expected. Col. Breckinridge says the verdict will have no effect upon his candidacy for Congress, and that he intends return ing to Kentucky and making a personal canvass of his entire district. There is a general feeling of relief here that the trial is at last over.

The general debate on the tariff bill will by agreement close next Mon day. Then the Senate will begin the consideration of the bill by items, a process which promises to be long and tedious. Senator Smith, of New Jer sey, delivered a tariff speech to-day somewhat in line with that delivered by Senator Hill a week ago, but not so radical. The fear of the defeat of the bill is only in the opposition papers; it does not exist among the Democra tic Senators who are managing the bill. They expect that those Demo cratic Senators who stated at the caucus held previous to the reporting of the bill that they reserved the right to propose amendments on the floor of the Senate will succeed in getting some amendments adopted, with the aid of Republican votes, but they have no doubts about the final passage of the bill; nor do they believe that a single Democratic vote will be cast against it when the final vote is taken. The newspaper talk which has grown out of a "fake" interview with Senator Murphy of New York, about the bill not being voted upon before the Con gressional election is simply rot. Sena tor Murphy never said such a thing, nor thought it. The bill is going to be pushed to a vote at this session of Congress, and it is going to be passed. These two things can be relied upon.

Senator Morgan's report on the new Nicaragua Canal bill is strong and convincing, concluding thus: "The plan and certain effect of this bill if it becomes a law will be to put into ac tive business employment $100,000,000 borrowed from our own people without risk to the government. It would furnish good and wholesome employment to 50,000 Americans, who are marching on the highways, begging for work and often for food."

Senator Vance, of North Carolina, whose health has been bad for a long time, died suddenly from a stroke of apoplexy, Saturday night, at his resi dence in this city. Senator Vance was a universal favorite and regrets are heard on all sides.

Senator Pugh, of Alabama, thinks in view of late European news that President Cleveland is not a bad sort of a prophet. He says: "President Cleveland told me the other day that he believed silver would be remonet ized in 1896, and that this country and England will by that time be on a basis of bi-metallicism." It has been no secret among the President's friends that he believes England will soon have to get down from the high horse she has been sitting upon in dealing with silver. It is because of that belief that he has advised a policy of delay on the part of this country.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physi cians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

Riches And How To Win Them. Wages Upon Which the Wage-earning Women May Ponder.

The secret of being rich consists not altogether in managing to wrest a large salary from unwilling employers, though of course that is a help towards wealth, but it consists in so dividing whatever income one may have that every possible emergency in life is provided for and debt is successfully kept at bay.

Of course, the young woman with an $8-salary often has the tastes of the young woman with an $18 salary, and she who makes $18 may feel pov erty-stricken because she is compelled to deny herself the luxuries attainable on $8 a week. But the cheerful fact is to be remembered that she is wealthiest who has learned to do with out the most things.

The girl who makes $8 may be living at home. If so, she can win the gratitude of her family by paying $3 or $4 a week regularly for her board and laundry. A dollar to be spent in car fare and papers is all that she should allow herself. The remaining $3 or $4 should be divided into three parts—one for a clothing fund, one for a sickness fund and one for a saving fund. Of course she cannot dress magnificently on so small a sum; but she can be neat and comfortable, especially if she has a mother to look after her clothes. If she should not be ill, the sum she has saved to defray the expenses of a possible illness will make a desirable addition to her little sav ings-bank account.

There will be temptations for such a girl constantly to buy things "for the house," or for some one in it, but she must learn that to save her money and thereby insure herself against being a burden some time is more un selfish than to spend it on this and that trifle which appeals to her.

Whatever a young woman's income, she should divide it according to some such principle. She should let the largest sum be for the necessities of existence, and the remainder should go for saving, sickness, dressing and amusements. If she does not have a fairly good income her amusements must of necessity be free ones. Such as are to be had in church societies, girls' clubs, libraries and social inter course. If she makes enough, theatre, opera, books and picture galleries may contribute to her enjoyment. But whatever the young woman's income, this method of dividing it should be religiously adhered to, for in that way alone is it possible for her to save money. And only by saving money is real independence possible.

Mother and Child Cured. Mrs. Lizzie M. Botts of South William sport, Pa. writes; "Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured my little girl of scrofula. She was cured over a year ago and she is as well as ever now. I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for pain in my side and on my lungs. I have taken two bottles and the pain has all left me. I believe if I had not taken it I should have had consump tion."

Hood's Pills cure biliousness, head ache. Senator Hill.

It is delightful to observe the enthu siasm with which Senator Hill is wel comed by the tariff organs into Re publican fellowship. No one who has a proper appreciation of the virtue of gratitude can object to this.

THE CENTURY WAR BOOK.

Beautiful Historical Book Being Issued by "The Philadelphia Inquirer."

Widespread interest has been excited among war veterans and all classes of citizens by the magnificent record of the Civil War which is now being distributed by THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER. This is the "Century War Book," a work which has attained the reputation of being the most accurate, complete and artistically beautiful history of the war ever published. When originally issued several years ago it sold at from $22 to $28, but THE INQUIRER is offering it to its readers in weekly parts at a merely nominal cost each week. The text of the work is made up of contributions written by all the great participants in the war on both sides, including Grant, Sherman, McClellan, Longstreet, Johnston, Hill, Howard, Beauregard, Buell, Kirby Smith, Law, McMahon, Fitz John Porter, Burnside, Rosecrans, Sickles, Cox, Lew Wallace, Imboden, Pope, Horace Porter, Early, Pleasonton, Fry and many other leaders.

The main feature, however, is embraced in the portraits, illustrations and maps, over 900 in number, all executed in the highest artistic style, and many of them made from rare war-time originals. The descriptions of all the great battles are written by the leading Generals who fought them, and fully illustrated, very often by sketches made at the time. The paper and print are superb and fully in keeping with the usual work of the Century Company, which publishes the work.

This superb history is published in twenty parts, and THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER has just begun the distribu tion, it being the intention to give out one part each week until the series is completed. To obtain this valuable work all that is necessary is to cut out a coupon from THE INQUIRER and send it together with ten cents to THE INQUIRER Coupon Department, 1109 Market street, Philadelphia.

Many rise in the morning with a headache and no inclination for break fast. This is due to torpidity of the liver and a deranged condition of the stomach. To restore healthy action to these organs, nothing is so efficacious as an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills.

The advertising agency of N. W. Ayer & Son, of Philadelphia, is un questionably the largest and probably the best equipped of any in the United States. It has more and larger patrons than any other, and, taking one thing with another, it is questionable whether they are not entitled to the credit of securing for their patrons better service than can be counted on from any other. It should be, and doubtless is, a great source of pride and satisfaction to Mr. Ayer and Mr. McKinney that they have been able, while remaining in Philadelphia, to build up a larger advertising business than has ever been secured before by any advertising agency in New York or elsewhere.

Facts Worth Knowing.

In all diseases of the nasal mucous membrane the remedy used must be non-irritating. Nothing satisfactory can be accomplished with douches, snuffs, powders or astringents, because they are irritating, do not thoroughly reach the affected surfaces and should be abandoned as worse than failures. A multitude of persons who had for years borne all the worry and pain that catarrh can inflict testify to radical and permanent cures wrought by Ely's Cream Balz. Your druggist has it.
