Now George Francis Train (not being able to keep in the back ground any longer when so much glory and renown is passing around) volunteers his valuable services in receiving the famous "commonwealers" now on the march to Washington from the four quarters of the Globe. George will do it up right if they give him a half a chance. He never needs more than a half a chance at anything that will bring him prominently before the public. If they make George a committee of one to receive them it might tend to make our austere statesmen unbend a little and give him the exclusive privilege of the floor of the Senate for a day or two. If they shouldn't call time on him we verily believe a week would be consumed in telling about the want of weal of the "commonwealers."

I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and took nearly seven bottles, with such excellent results that my stomach, bowels, and kidneys are in perfect condition, and in all their functions, as regular as clock-work. At the time I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, my weight was only 120 pounds; I now can brag of 150 pounds, and was never in so good health. If you could see me before and after using, you would want me for a traveling advertisement. I believe this preparation of Sarsaparilla to be the best in the market to-day."

COXEY.

Danville appears to have suffered sad affliction this year in being not only the resort of considerable small-pox, measles, and Bulgarian scratchers, but the fact has come out that she is the former domicile, if not the birthplace, of the now notorious Coxeys himself.

This latter disclosure was recently made to the writer by a reliable gentleman directly from Danville who had neither the Danville small-pox nor the Bulgarian scratchers.

He claimed to know all about Coxeys from away back, when this illustrious nomad lived there.

From what we gathered from this personal acquaintance we are safe in saying that the more desirable atmosphere of peace seldom blows through Coxeys' whiskers, and that he is generally in a peck of trouble.

If it were not for giving him away entirely we should say his Danville acquaintance pronounced him considerably more than eccentric.

But having now attained a national reputation, like the rest of our more noted statesmen and warriors, his character though public property is more likely to be defamed than lauded. This being the outgrowth of envy on the part of those who have no national popularity themselves, we cannot condescend to take any part in belittling our more brilliant public men just out of pure envy, nor shall we commence at the general of one wing of the army-of-the unemployed-anti-tariff-reformers, but we simply remark that if Coxeys still resided in Danville he would probably be confined in the state institution just this side of that borough.

Hines' Happy Hit.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Representative Hines, Democrat, of Pennsylvania, has evolved a plan that he believes will speedily dispose of Coxeys' army after their arrival in Washington.

He proposes introducing a bill appropriating $10,000, to be expended in improving some of the country roads in the District of Columbia.

"I will venture the prediction," said the Congressman to day, "that less than $500 of the appropriation will be expended. The army will get out of town so fast that all the rest of the money will be covered back into the Treasury. In fact, if such resolution had been passed a week ago it would have resulted before this in the disbandment not only of Coxeys' forces, but all the collateral branches as well."

T. F. Anthony, Ex-Postmaster of Promise City, Iowa, says: "I bought one bottle of 'Mystic Cure' for Rheumatism and two boxes of it did me more good than any medicine I ever took." Sold by C. A. Klein, Druggist, Bloomsburg. 11-10-3m.

COMMISSIONER'S MEETING.

At a meeting of the County Commissioners last Monday the following action was taken:

Commissioners present: J. G. Swank, G. M. Ikeler, and W. H. Utt.

Mr. Ikeler moved the adoption of the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The plans of the substructure of the county bridge at Bloomsburg, the most expensive and important public improvement in the history of the County, made and filed in the Commissioner's office by the late Commissioners with the contract for the said substructure, consisted of three blue prints, entitled, "Abutment River Bridge, Bloomsburg, Pa., South Side," "Abutment River Bridge, Bloomsburg, Pa., North Side," and "River Pier No. 1," and were simply crude outline sketches with only a few dimensions noted on them, and did not show the character of the pier and the foundations of the same, to be erected under the contract; and

WHEREAS, Mr. James C. Brown, the supervising Engineer of the said bridge for the County, upon his attention being called by the present Commissioners to the insufficiency of the aforesaid plans, made and filed in the said office additional plans of the masonry, dated respectfully, January 10, 13, 17, 25, and 26, 1894, and which were incomplete, and did not show the location of the bridge, the position of the tops of the piers, and the character of the foundation of the same, etc.; and

WHEREAS, The present Commissioners, to comply with the law in relation to the erection of county bridges, and to secure on file in their office correct and detailed plans of the piers and foundations of the same, to be erected under said contract and avoid all risk of founding the piers of said bridge upon insecure foundations, adopted the resolution of April 10th, 1894; and

WHEREAS, The said Engineer, in pursuance of said resolution, has submitted to the present Commissioners, plans and elevations of said piers and coffer dam, etc., dated April 12th, 1894, except plan of coffer dam which is without date, together with an estimate cost of same, amounting to $5857.96. Therefore be it

Resolved: That the said piers and foundations of the same shall be erected according to plans of same, and plan of coffer dam, last above referred to, dated April 12th, 1894, under and subject to all the provisions and stipulations contained in the contract, between Joseph Hendler and the County and the specifications accompanying said contract.

On resolution being put it was adopted by the votes of G. M. Ikeler and J. G. Swank.
