S. P. Krickbaum is not gaining in health as rapidly as is desirable.

The small-pox scare is the cause of many sore arms by reason of vaccination.

There was a case of small pox reported from Pinecreek. There were also two cases reported from Benton. But the small pox are not so thick yet hereabouts.

At last the Democrats breathe a little easier as Tariff reform has taken a new start. Dilly-dallying seems to have dilly-dallied out. Such a dilly-dallying Senate ought to be dilly-dallied to "Limbo."

There will be an entertainment Saturday evening of May 5th, at the closing of the Cambra public school.

Prof. Casterline is a very successful teacher. He will also open a select school after the close of the public term.

The Old-fashioned Style of pill gives you a feeling of horror when you see it and when you feel it. Like the "blunderbuss" of a former decade it is big and clumsy, but not effective. In this century of enlightenment you have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure all liver troubles in the most effective way. They're not easily seen for they're small as grains of mustard seed, but the effect is lasting and the cure complete. For Indigestion, Constipation, Bilious Attacks, Sick and Bilious Headache, nothing has been found to equal these pills of Dr. Pierce's invention. They give such complete relief that their makers promise that they'll give you satisfaction or your money will be returned. Smallest, cheapest, easiest to take. One a dose. 25 cts. a vial. A vest-pocket remedy.

Espy.

Miss Martha Abbott has improved the appearance of her house by a new coat of paint.

Messrs. Chas. Hess and Wm. Heckman took a drive to Berwick on Sunday.

Freas Ringrose, who has been working in the telegraph office at Bennett's for a short time, is home again.

Prospects for the boat yard are becoming brighter. Nine new men have been added this week, and work appears to be on the increase.

Our landlord, Mr. Purman, takes daily outings with his team of ponies. They are a fine little pair of animals.

Messrs. John K. Miller and John Fidler have purchased bicycles of Dr. Redeker.

Sections From Fish Laws of Pennsylvania.

1st. It is made illegal to catch speckled trout save only by rod and line, at any time, or to place any set lines or set nets across any stream inhabited by them, under penalty of $25.00.

2d. No person shall kill, sell, or have in possession after being killed, any speckled trout, save only from the 15th day of April to the 15th day of July, under penalty of $10.00 for each fish. No person shall take, for sale, any trout less than five inches long, or fish in any waters, for three years, in which brook trout have been planted by the fish commissioners, when public notice of said planting has been given under penalty of $20.00.

The above extracts from the fish laws of Pennsylvania about cover the ground as far as trout are concerned.

In the last section the words "No person shall take, for sale, any trout less than five inches long," etc., show that one may catch and eat trout five inches long, but that none of that length or under dare be bought or sold.

Be cautious, you sports who buy trout and then swear you caught them; be cautious. —Walton.

Smiling Through Tears.

Telling his wife he was weary of life, Isaac Sparr, a wealthy farmer near Altoona, shot himself to death.

It is wrong to suppose that the most miserable in this life, and therefore about the only suicides, are those who are poverty-stricken.

With more than enough of this world's goods either the mind or stomach may be so deranged as to make life not worth living.

While with nothing but a firm reliance upon God's promises happiness and cheerfulness unknown to the affluent is quite characteristic of those whom God's love and guidance causes to smile through their tears, and they really enjoy life.

This happy peculiarity of smiling through tears may be classed among the mysteries of God's kind providence, and yet it is a tangible fact that is easily verified.

The Gist of It.

Had there been no income-tax adhering to the tariff bill it would doubt have passed long ago. It is this proposition to tax the rich that has clogged the wheels of legislation and thrown labor out of employment from Maine to California quite as much as the proposition to reform or revise the tariff which the rich had fixed up to suit themselves under Republican administrations. Had Republican adjustment of the tariff been what the sovereign power of this country wants then we should have had no change, no discontent because of distress under the Republican regime, and certainly no ousting of Republicans in order that Democrats might reform the tariff and place an equitable tax upon fabulous wealth as a means of raising revenue.

The public servant, whether he be a Senator or a Representative, who fails and deliberately fails to be at his post of duty when duty calls is nothing more nor less than a shirk who don't begin to earn the $5,000 salary he receives, to say nothing about his perquisites which he may multiply by simply staying from his post of duty, in order to avoid voting and acting as his constituents would have him vote and act. Since reduction of pay is in order these days, why not commence with our derelict statesmen who once managed to live on one-half their present pay?

In devising ways and means to get a quorum in Congress hereafter, the tellers will count members not responding when their names are called. The tellers will be chosen by the Speaker, one from each side of the House. When put to the test the plan was found to be popular. All but 47 of the Democrats voted for it, and all the Republicans. The Populists, however, did not record their votes either way.

A Spring Salad.

An appetizing Spring salad is made from cucumbers, white onions and green pepper. Chop the cucumbers, and to each one of medium size add a teaspoonful of chopped onion and a half tablespoonful of chopped green pepper with the seeds removed. Dress with French dressing. Serve with fish or broiled beefsteak.

Mrs. J. H. HORSYDER, 152 Pacific Ave., Santa Cruz, Cal., writes:

"When a girl at school, in Reading, Ohio, I had a severe attack of brain fever. On my recovery, I found myself perfectly bald, and, for a long time, I feared I should be permanently so. Friends urged me to use Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, on doing so, my hair and I now have as fine a head of hair as one could wish for, being changed, however, from blonde to dark brown."

Began to Grow,

"After a fit of sickness, my hair came out in combfalls. I used two bottles of and now my hair is over a yard long and very full and heavy. I have recommended this preparation to others with like good effect."—Mrs. Sidney Carr, 1490 Regina st., Harrisburg, Pa.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for several years and always obtained satisfactory results. I know it is the best preparation for the hair that is made."

MISS POLLARD'S AWARD.

In arriving at a verdict of $15,000 for Miss Pollard it seems the jury took the usual method of allowing each jurymen to mark down whatever he thought best. Then by adding the amounts and dividing by twelve the result was the amount determined upon as the jury's verdict.

In commenting upon this mode of concentrating twelve different conclusions into one conclusion or award, the friends of Mr. Breckinridge are disposed to criticize it severely from a legal standpoint, holding that the verdict or amount should represent the views of all the jurors and not be the result of an accommodation of their combined views or judgment, which they hold is thus reached without the exercise of judgment. Holding that such a verdict is unfairly gained, they even claim that a competent judge would have dismissed the whole case on its appearance as an impossible action. The verdict seems to give pretty general satisfaction to every body but Breckinridge and his counsel.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.—"Mystic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cts. Sold by C. A. Kleim, Druggist, Bloomsburg. 11-10-8m.

A BAD BEST.

It seems that Jack Best, of the Coxe brigade, is somewhat of a misnomer, from the fact that he reached jail for stealing, not chickens, but patent medicine. Had our wealthy anti-tariff-reform boomers given Best security for the requisite $200 bail, the foul stench of a jail would never have permeated the wardrobe of Mr. Best—perhaps. We say perhaps with more or less emphasis in this case, because we can't tell for certain, about it. Mr. Best, (Coxey's best man for all we know) gives about the following version to the sad mishap: From a feeling of fellow-kindness he took another young gentleman to sleep with him one night, who perhaps would have been obliged to sleep out under the broad canopy of heaven. And unfortunately his bed room was in the immediate neighborhood of some of Dr. Huber's liniment which was stored in the bath room. No doubt their strict sense of cleanliness led them into the bath-room, where the temptation to steal the liniment got the better of Best's distressed friend. Somewhat like other more important cases recorded in history, the distressed young gentleman not only stole the liniment from the doctor, but out of his kindness of heart and full appreciation of Mr. Best's favor actually gave him a number of bottles to sell. Mr. Best then proceeded to cut rates on the doctor's prices it seems actually selling the goods as low as five cts. a bottle, and making money at that. It was not until Mr. Best discovered that the liniment was stolen by his bunk mate, and the iron arm of the law had embraced him, that he made his humble confession, which we must admit reflects somewhat upon the character and integrity of the bunk-mate of Mr. Best.

T. F. Anthony, Ex-Postmaster of Promise City, Iowa, says: "I bought one bottle of 'Mystic Cure,' for Rheumatism and two doses of it did me more good than any medicine I ever took." Sold by C. A. Kleim, Druggist, Bloomsburg. 11-10-8m.
