Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, JUNE 8, 1894.

Legal advertisements are printed on the seventh page.

For the first time in the history of Nashville, Tenn., a frost was perceptible on the 1st of June this year.

Have you seen those percale wrappers at Clark's?

The Indiana strikers deemed it most prudent to disappear upon the arrival of State troops.

If there is anything that Bloomsburg can worry along without, it is the nomadic shows that invariably take away considerably more than they leave behind them.

It is now pretty positively asserted again that our statements in Congress assembled have reached the beginning of the end of the unrevised tariff bill. Let us hope so.

Norristown, Pa., was visited by a violent wind, rain and hail storm on Monday, the 4th instant. Hail the size of walnuts fell steadily for over a quarter of an hour.

Julius Lindgren, the piano tuner, has left Bloomsburg, but will return the latter part of June. Orders for tuning may be left at the store of Peacock & Co. if.

Miss Lizzie Raymer, who was living for a time with Max Gross, of Bloomsburg, married last Sunday a week, fainting during the marriage ceremony, and died on Tuesday night, the 5th instant. Her remains were taken home to Baltimore for burial.

This may be said to be fine weather for ducks, but its rough on the progeny of the hard-shell potato-bug that has been carefully deposited by the parent bug on the leaf in anticipation of enough sunshine to hatch them out. Some things need sunshine to thrive, and that's what's the matter with our young potato-bug this season.

It cures blood and skin disorders. It does this quickly and permanently. Is there any good reason why you should not use DeWitt's Sarsaparilla? It recommends itself. W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

Postmaster General Bissell has issued an order to the effect that for post-offices established after April 9 only short names of one word each will be accepted. There may be exceptions where the name selected is historical or has become local by long usage.

Children's ready made dresses at Clark's.

Died in St. Louis, Missouri, on June 2nd, Ellen Josephine Chase, in the twenty-first year of her age, youngest daughter of Mrs. Ellen Leverett and the late Isaiah Chase, formerly of New York City. Miss Chase was a niece of Rev. W. C. Leverett, of Bloomsburg.

DeWitt's Sarsaparilla is prepared, for cleansing the blood from impurities and disease. It does this and more. It builds up and strengthens constitutions impaired by disease. It recommends itself.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

Clark's have your size in this lot of wrappers.

See Gidding & Co's. new advertisement.

How can Clark's sell such a nice wrapper for 75c?

Russet Shoes of all descriptions going at a very large discount at the store of J. A. Hess.

W. L. McHenry, of Stillwater, recently sold some fine fat cattle to C. H. Reice.

Since death loves a shining mark, the proposed income tax is bright enough to make a fair sort of target, says the New York Press.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Bloomsburg, will be represented at the Encampment of the Sons of Veterans at Johnstown by their worthy President, Mrs. Mary E. Mann.

Upwards of three hundred ladies' wrappers now shown in our cloak room. Clark's.

In Maryland trouble is anticipated if the strikers attempt to resist those the operators have employed to resume operation in the mines. Their attitude is threatening.

When our weather prophets speak of "occasional showers, but probably fair during the day," they have two chances to hit it right. That's the way the more prudent Gipsy tells your fortune by looking into the palm of your hand.

Who can pretend to weigh the genuine pleasure of imprisonment as felt by Coxy. No doubt he is a kind of national martyr in his mind. With a burning ambition to keep himself before the public George Francis Train is now apt to be forgotten.

Have you seen the gingham wrappers at Clark's?

The unknown disease of fish, recently discovered among catfish and the cheaper varieties, is now quite as seriously affecting such game fish as the black bass with which our better streams and ponds are stocked. Upon examination dead bass were found to be infested with worms.

Orders for binding the "Magic City" can be left at the COLUMBIAN Office, at prices ranging from 65 cents to $1.50.

A Children's Day exercise, entitled "The Open Door," will be rendered in the Evangelical church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, consisting of Epilogue, Prologue, Recitation and Music. Also an exercise representing the Foolish Virgins trying to enter the Open Door as it is slowly closed upon them. All are invited.

John Bush, the green grocer, says: "Tell'em I have on hand all good and fresh, Peas, Beans, Wax Beans, Squashes, Bananas, Strawberries, Tomatoes, Cabbage, besides canned goods, fruits, nuts, &c."

The warm wave of much severity which was to pass over the country from the 3d to the 6th, according to weather prophecy seems to have gone into league with our scientific rain-makers. The centre of dangerous storm disturbances, being also on the 3d, 4th, and 5th, also tended to head off the first prophecy about excessive heat, and to chase in a prolonged dose of dampness instead.

Let us remind you that now is the time to take DeWitt's Sarsaparilla. It will do you good. It recommends itself.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Another printing establishment in town. It is the property of Edward Etwell, and it works like a charm.

J. R. Townsend is the leading Merchant Tailor of Columbia county. See his advertisement on fourth page.

Pugilist Corbett has at last found satisfactory terms upon which to fight the negro Jackson. It is to be hoped they will both get whipped.

"Money is the power of the world, and the press is the protection of the people," says the Commercial Union. That's about straight according to our notion.

Among those improving their premises and beautifying their homes on East Street we must mention also Henry Yost, who is making general repairs and changing the front of his house.

It is not generally known that Sarah Bernhardt, the great actress, was once a dressmaker's apprentice. Thus, sometimes, slim oaks from little acorns grow.

Jordan and Morris, two little children of Philip Peters of this place, died recently. The former expired on Sunday morning, from congestion of the bowels, and the latter on Monday morning, from pneumonia.

Grass and grain looks promising, indeed, in the country, and fruit of all kinds can now be seen on the trees in good development. Unless 50 per cent. of it drops off before maturity, many trees will break under the burden they bear.

THE COLUMBIAN is pleased to acknowledge receipt of invitation to attend the 27th Annual Commencement of the Muhlenberg College of Allentown, Pa., which takes place on June 17th to 21st, 1894. The President, Rev. Theodore L. Seib, D. D., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, June 17th, at 10 o'clock A. M.

Where did you get that handsome wrapper? At Clark's; they have a new big line.

How is this for "the wickedest city on earth," so-called: "A Paris, France, merchant who advertises goods "at cost," is made to suffer imprisonment if he does not do so." But just how he is detected when he sells at more than cost the deponent saith not. If this Paris reformation ever strikes this country, some spare territory will be needed for jails.

When a tailor, for instance, finishes a suit according to order and measurement he finds no pleasure in pulling it apart at the eleventh hour to make changes that should have been mentioned before. So it is with printers when forms are made up for press. If there is any swear in them you are apt to hear it when they are obliged to tear their forms apart in order to accommodate an order coming in at the eleventh hour.

Please tell us, ye disgruntled wage-earners who still adhere to the high-protective policy of the Republican party, what protection have you as laborers and wage-earners against the free-trade influx of pauper labor from abroad? If the manufacturer is protected in his business interests through laws that he looks after very carefully, why should you not be also against his free-trade in labor? Just think for yourself a little.

Song birds are here this season in great abundance, and so is the industrious corn-puller, called the crow, whose only song is "caw," and whose positive benefit we have yet to discover. Every farmer knows his ugly song and bad habits by heart. If his extermination were left to our decision we fear there would be much less crow for editors to eat. They don't make good eating anyhow, so why not shot them on the spot, and which spot you will generally find to be your cornfield, if you have one.

E. J. Bowman is solicited to deliver an address to the public from the Court House, on the Curse and Cure of Rum, on next Monday evening at 8 o'clock sharp. His experience in the use of rum for 30 years and his cure at our Bedal Gold Cure Institute equip him with authority on this subject. Mr. Bowman is well known as a writer and speaker, and doubtless it will be an interesting occasion. Come one. Come all. He will speak at Berwick on Tuesday night.

It seems the Cripple Creek strike, in Colorado, was based upon the important matter of ten minutes time. The operators allowed them 20 minutes for lunch and, wanting 30 minutes, they struck. Under the article of agreement they got $3 per day for 8 hours work, with 20 minutes for lunch, and with the further understanding that the mine-owners would not discriminate against either union or non-union men.

What makes a house a home? The mother well, the children rosy, the father in good health and good humor. All brought about by the use of DeWitt's Sarsaparilla. It recommends itself.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

LAST CHANCE FOR MAGIC CITY.

All those who have been taking the "Magic City" portfolios, are delighted with them, and well they may be, for they are beautiful pictures of the World's Fair, and the price is extremely low. Hundreds of them have been sold by us, and the opportunity to get them will soon end. We shall not handle them after July 1, and all who want them must order at once. Orders will be received only for full sets, 18 numbers, at $1.80, or for single numbers only to complete sets, at 10 cents each. We have arranged to have them bound for 85 cents to $1.50. Don't wait another minute, but send in your order. No coupons will be required. 3t.

Among enterprising newspapers necessarily delivered by boat, if delivered at all, during the recent floods, was the Sunbury Item. What with delinquent subscribers and other characteristic drawbacks, we may call that printing under difficulties.

A bit of fun at fishing, &c., recently cost some lively young men from Shamokin considerable more trouble than they anticipated. For appropriating to their own use about everything they found in the shape of fish and fishing-tackle belonging to Sunburyans, six of the crowd found their way to jail, while another was committed for want of $300 bail which he could not raise.

As a fitting remark for some poor Fourth-of-July orator who may have to scratch his dandruff loose for words of national elation, just look at this: The United States prints over 20,000 different papers and magazines, while all the rest of the world prints 28,000. In the aggregate of the whole world (including New Jersey) it is estimated that we turn out more books and newspapers than all the rest of the eastern and western hemispheres combined. And, best of all, right in the face of stereotype-plate editing, and consequent frequent failures, new papers are springing to our national rescue right along. That's the kind of progressive and aggressive patriots we are in "the land of the free and the home of the brave."

Calvin Bell holds a judgment for $1,000 and McAllister Myton one for $13,000 against Henry Davis Jr.; all live near Pittsburg. Bell and Myton learned that Davis' real estate is encumbered, and they started for Pittsburg on the same train to have their judgments entered so they could levy on Davis' personal property, which is sufficient to satisfy either claim, but not both. Bell is a vigorous man of 45 while Myton is much older and less active. When the train reached town both started on a run for the Court House. Bell led easily, and Myton seeing that he was losing the race began shouting: "Stop him." A crowd soon took up the cry, but changed it to "Stop thief," and a policeman arrested Bell. Before the latter could explain, Myton got his judgment recorded, and Bell threatens suit.

Children's Day Service.

Originating with a design to raise a special educational fund for the benefit of theological students, or rather for those wishing to qualify themselves for work in the moral vineyard, at home or abroad, but who have not the means to do so, our present popular Children's Day has proved to be a most happy and effective expedient. The money thus gathered is loaned, to a certain amount, to the young theological aspirants who return it to the general fund when they are put to work upon salary.

The Methodist and Lutheran churches of Bloomsburg, we are informed, will hold their Children's Day service next Sunday. The occasion being a gala day for the parents and children of our Sabbath Schools, and the cause being a most worthy one, a musical treat and a spiritual stimulus may be anticipated.

Something wrong when you tire too easily. Something wrong when the skin is not clear and smooth. Something wrong when the blood is impure. Everything right when you take DeWitt's Sarsaparilla. It recommends itself.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

"THE LITTLE GIRL IN BLUE"

Who has been attracting so much attention in Gidding & Co's. show window intends bringing her visit to a close next Saturday. She will be replaced Monday by a new attraction.

MARKET SQUARE DRY GOODS HOUSE.

Away back 16,425 days we began selling goods at double the price they now are. Then about one dozen places of business paid county licenses in Bloomsburg, now nearly one hundred.

Having made extra purchases lately of fine Laces for Trimming of Dresses, it will pay you to see them. (Cannot sample them as they do not look well in small pieces). We are having a good trade in Chemise Table Covers at 98c., $1.19, $1.29, $1.98, $2.29, $2.69 and $2.98. The last one, $2.98, sold a year or so ago at $4.50. Our plain and figured China Silk for waists at 75c. are worth a look; also the Moire Silk at 49c. per yd. We have about ten different kinds of Wash Dress Goods at prices from 5c. yard to 50c. yard. As new families are arriving almost weekly to our place, it inspires us to greater diligence in business, and has influenced us to buy larger stocks and better goods. We welcome them all to see our store.
