It seems the sugar trust scandal don't scandalize quite as much as some folks would like to have it.

Matt Quay is credited with being the sprag that is cloging the wheels of Senatorial legislation. But we are inclined to think this is too much to put upon any one man.

notoriety he has now acquired he at this time. may possibly draw full houses for ginal commonwealer and escentric freak of nature.

who Senator Hill's second choice for ing to be confident of defeating with President might be, and a recent in the aid of Democratic votes, they terview now reveals the fact that have resorted to the cry of sugar trust, Vice-President Stevenson is his second thinking to blind the country to the choice. We can't think of anything fact that the sugar schedule this week the Vice-President has ever done to the people of the United States that only gives the sugar refiners about his name should be thus sacrificed at half of what they are getting under the hands of Senator Hill.

We have an idea that if Sugar King Havemeyer were to make open confession of all he knows about the sweetness he has profitably applied to Republican and Democratic statesmen alike no one would be so foolish as to charge him of being either partial or a partisan. It is not likely Mr. Havemeyer cares a sugar plum who is President so long as the party in power is not too sour to be sweet-

The strategy the Republicans of the Senate are using by violating the five minute agreement for debate shows the reluctance with which they yield a single point in the Democratic another issue of bonds had advanced effort to pass the tariff bill. Though forced along until near its finish the last Republican kick will not be made until the last item in the last schedule shall have been passed upon gifted writers of Washington fairy over all protest and objection. Just so tales by officially announcing that he faithful, indeed, are the Republicans in serving to the last our fostered and protected manufacturing interests.

We haven't space to tell you the whole thing but we extract the conclusion of the Times' figuring as follows:

"There is another feature of the sugar schedule of the new tariff to which the Press' new system of arithmetic will not apply. Under the McKinley bill the people are taxed from fifteen to twenty millions for the benefit of the sugar refiners, and over ten millions a year as bounty to sugar producers, and these taxes do not bring the Wilson bill, as adopted by the direct tax to the government of forty per cent, paid upon raw material by per pound is levied on refined sugar. Unlike the sugar tax under the Mcper pound on refined sugar is not prohibitory, and will doubtless add to the revenue of the government. Thus the McKirley bill taxes the people nearly thirty millions a year on sugar without paying a cent into the Treasury, and the Wilson bill will tax them but little more, and the Treasury will be the gainer by from thirty-six to forty millions. This is not calculated on the principal that one eighth means onehalf; it is estimated on the old and that two and two make four.

Washington, D. C., June 11, 1894. President Cleveland told a Demo cratic member of the House who ask ed him his opinion of the Senate amendments to the tariff bill that his opinion on the question of tariff reform should be well enough known without any additional expression at this time, and intimated that he considered prompt action on the subject by both House and Senate of far more importance to the country than the mere details of this or that schedule in the bill, provided, of course, that Coxey's term of service in jail ex- the bill as a whole is kept in line with pired on the oth inst. The Republican Senators are actawhile in variety theatres as an ori- ing on the old legal maxim-when you have no case abuse the opposition. Finding that they were defeated on the sugar schedule of the tariff bill, We have wondered for some time which they had been for weeks claimadopted by the Democratic Senators the McKinley law. Senator Jones is confident that all of the amendments will be adopted and the tariff bill passed by the close of next week, and Republican Senators privately admit as much.

'The southern Democrats in the House were doubly disappointed by the defeat of the bill for the repeal of the tax on State bank currency. They had confidently expected 140 vo es in favor of the bill, but it only received 102, while the opposition mustered 170. They claim that men who had allowed themselves to be counted in favor of the bill voted against it.

Secretary Carlisle waited until the fake story that he was preparing for to the stage of pretending to give all the details down to the exact amount of bonds to be issued, before he took the trouble to undo the work of the was not preparing to issue bonds, had not considered it even, and knew no reason why he should consider it at this time or in the immediate future. Figures May Lie.

Secretary Carlisle has been during his entire public life known as a man who believes in the open and above board method of doing things, and the public may rest assured that should the varp mathematics some what. The claim is made to Senate, the sugar refiners and all protect the interests of the Governother consumers of raw sugar pay a ment involved in the indebtedness of the Central Pacific Railroad to the per cent., and in addition to the forty United States. This step is in line with a resolution introduced in the refiners the tax of one-eight of a cent House sometime ago by Representative Boatner, of Louisiana, providing Kinley ball, this one-eight of a cent bring suits against the original Central Pacific syndicate, composed of Huntington, Stanford, Hopkins, Crocker, and Colton for money diverted by them for their own benefit from the earnings of the railroad. Mr. Boatner claims that the Government can get at least $40,000,000 by bringing these suits. The bonds upon which the railroad owes the Government this money are not yet due, but the claim is put in now so that the long accepted principal of arithmetic statute of limitation cannot be pleaded should the suits be entered after default in the payment of the bonds. It is expected that this Congress will legislate upon the indebtedness of all of the Pacific railroads to the Government, and C. P. Huntington is now in Washington looking out for his end of the matter.

It will only cost the trifling sum of $10,000, it seems, to investigate the bribery charges so common in Congress. Why such an amount should be wasted to prove an established fact is beyond our comprehension. No wonder we are afflicied with small-pox, cloud bursts and cyclones in rotation, with a grasshopper plague trying to crowd in upon us.

We know of nothing more apt to but coal miners to work than a scarcity of coal and consequently a demand for it. Still the facilities for turning out the black diamonds in this country are more than equal to get up genuine competition among mine operators, it would not be a great while until we should have coal dirt cheap ; but there is the difficulty.
