CENTRAL.

This section has now settled down so that every one can go to work if they want to. First the fire destroyed considerable and the wooden bridge that crosses the West Branch of the creek below Central had to be watched from fire. This bridge is considered a very good structure and we did not want to see it destroyed.

Central was quite lively on Saturday evening. Mechanics had a trout supper and a dance. Rev. Houtz had services in the church, so the people had a choice where to go.

Next week we expect to go to the Pond for an outing and will give your valuable paper the details in full.

The printing of the Premium List of the Columbia County Agricultural Society has been awarded to THE COLUMBIAN. The order is for twenty-five hundred copies.

The Children's Day exercises in the Methodist, Lutheran, and Evangelical churches of Bloomsburg were exceptionally fine on Sunday last. These services have got to be a most pleasing feature of the churches, one in which are happily commingled the sweetest flowers, the finest attire and the most pleasing smiles of the children; and the result of their efforts must be the accumulation of quite an educational fund.

YOUR MONEY IS RETURNED if you receive no benefit from Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This fair and business-like offer is held out to all women who suffer from the diseases and derangements peculiar to their sex. To weakly womanhood no prize could be more secure, nor the benefit more lasting, than that to be derived from the purchase of a bottle of this famous "Prescription." Its success in curing all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of women, warrants its makers in guaranteeing it. What this medicine has done for thousands of delicate women, it will do for you. At the two critical periods in woman's life, the change from girlhood to womanhood, and, later, the "change of life," it's an invaluable tonic and a soothing nerve, which can produce only good results. It cures nervous prostration, insomnia, or inability to sleep, and many nervous disorders due to derangement of the functions.

An invitation to consumption is what a bad case of Catarrh means. Don't take the risk! The makers of Doctor Sage's Catarrh Remedy agree to cure your Catarrh, or they'll pay you $500 in cash.

That the best wishes of the people of Mifflinville for their future usefulness and happiness will follow them wherever they go.

DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES CHOSEN.

Last Thursday afternoon a meeting of the Democratic County Committee assembled in the Court-House for the purpose of electing delegates to the State Convention which convenes at Harrisburg on Wednesday, June 27th.

John R. Townsend, of Bloomsburg, C. H. Dorr, of Berwick, B. J. Doyle, of Conyngham, J. G. McHenry, of Benton, and Chas. Pfahler, of Catawissa, were placed in nomination by W. H. Rhawn.

The motion, being seconded by C. A. Small, was about to be voted upon when W. T. Creasy and Jesse Rittenhouse interposed objection in behalf of Samuel A. Goodhue, of Sugarloaf township. This name being also presented as a worthy and available candidate was added to those already mentioned. With the understanding that the first five receiving the higher number of votes were to be declared the choice of the convention, the vote was taken, and it resulted as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Votes. Townsend, 32 votes; Dorr, 33; Doyle, 25; McHenry, 33; Pfahler, 29; Goodhue, 9.

Accordingly, the five gentlemen first nominated will represent the county at the State Convention.

CHEAP LABOR.

The rioting on the part of the striking Huns in Western Pennsylvania coke regions illustrates the evil of the wholesale importation of labor. The Huns were brought to that region from Europe a few years ago for the reason that their labor could be obtained cheaper than that of native workman. Since they have been there, however, it is a question whether, in view of the frequent troubles they have caused, the strikes they have inaugurated, the property that has been destroyed, and the expense of employing and maintaining guards, they have not proved to be the dearest kind of labor.—Bradford Star.

From the $38,372 allotted Columbia County in the State appropriation for public schools, Bloomsburg gets about $5,000.

"Principles, not men," says the Clearhead Republican. But without good men how are you going to maintain the principles, whether Democratic or Republican?

Pure blood means good health. Reinforce it with DeWitt's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, cures Eruptions, Eczema, Scrofula and all diseases arising from impure blood. It recommends itself.—W. S. Rishton, Druggist.

Dr. Parkhurst, the eccentric slum assaulter and moral reformer of New York city, who was at first derided is now, singularly enough, mentioned as the most likely man for mayor.

T. F. Anthony, Ex-Postmaster of Promise City, Iowa, says: "I bought one bottle of 'Mystic Cure' for Rheumatism and two doses of it did me more good than any medicine I ever took." Sold by C. A. Kleim, Druggist, Bloomsburg. 11-10-8m.

With his usual determination to have a first-class establishment W. H. Gilmore has fitted up the third story of his building with billiard and pool tables. It perhaps has no equal in this section for neatness and expensive equipment. In fact this may be said of Mr. Gilmore's place from top to bottom.

DECLINED, WITHOUT THANKS.

A fine lady of prepossessing appearance was sitting in the waiting room of a photograph gallery on F street in Washington the other day when she was accosted by a handsome old gentleman with a charming manner and musical voice.

In a few moments he learned from her that she had lost her position in the Treasury Department and was anxious to get something to do. She learned from him in return that he was a member of the House of Representatives, a friend of Secretary Carlisle and a sort of fairy godfather to all handsome young lady clerks in the Government Departments. He took a great interest in their welfare and was always glad to do them any service. He promised to go to the Treasury Department that very day and see if he could not persuade Secretary Carlisle to restore her to her former position, and to call upon her that same evening to relate the result of his mission. After some further conversation he arose to leave and offered his card, upon which was the name of W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Kentucky.

The young lady flushed with mortification, threw the card upon the table and indignantly told Colonel Breckinridge that he must not say anything to Secretary Carlisle in her behalf.—Chicago Record.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANCUTA, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."
