

Solemn Facts About Fish and Fishing.

Anglers who have been fishing from the Wrightsville dam this week report seeing many carp in the river. The carp come up as far as the dam, and, finding their further progress impeded by that structure, attempt to jump over it.

Susquehanna salmon, or wall-eyed pike, are reported plentiful and are biting freely.

A party of half a dozen anglers from Stewartstown recently spent a day fishing in the river at McCall's Ferry. Their catch aggregated 200 fish of good size, mostly bass and salmon.

Ellsworth Mohn and Henry Schouwer were off on a fishing trip to Bowmansville, and caught a few fine messes. The former caught a fish of a rare specimen. It had a head similar to that of a baboon, and had 43 horns about one-sixteenth of an inch in length.

Joseph Breneman, of Linestown, recently went fishing at McCall's Ferry, Pa., and fell in a hole 100 feet deep and was drowned. He had gone with his son to a rock in the river from which he fished. While standing near the edge he lost his footing, slid into the water and sank out of sight.

BALTIMORE TRAMP REMEDY.

Here food, shelter and work are provided on the co-operative plan by residents of the city acting jointly with the police. Woodyards and stone-yards are provided where the worthy who are willing to earn their food and shelter may find ample opportunity without wounding the pride at begging.

Help is Wanted

by the women who are ailing and suffering, or weak and exhausted. And, to every such woman, help is guaranteed by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For young girls just entering womanhood; women at the critical "change of life"; women approaching confinement; nursing mothers; and every woman who is "run-down" or overworked, it is a medicine that builds up, strengthens, and regulates, no matter what the condition of the system.

It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, a soothing and bracing nerve, and the only guaranteed remedy for "female complaints" and weaknesses. In bearing-down sensations, periodical pains, ulceration, inflammation, and every kindred ailment, if it ever fails to benefit or cure you, you have your money back.

It must be remembered that all our strikes and present distressed commercial conditions have been generated under the benign influence of Republican law. We have no other responsible law as yet. All Democratic efforts to pass other laws affecting our commerce, our tariff and our personal taxation, has thus far failed to pass. Come, now, let's give the glory of our distressed conditions to whom the glory belongs. For Democracy has really done nothing but threaten as yet.

Among the latest inventions we notice quite a valuable idea just patented. It is a Brooklyn church collection box, or money-sifter. It is to be used in taking up promiscuous church collections, claiming to leave the collector nothing to do but count the cash dropped into his little box. Incidentally the patent may possibly stimulate the generosity of the donor, since a button can't be made to serve as a nickle, nor can a nickle presume to associate with quarters. It seems to be a kind of a slot machine put to good use.

More Gasoline Stove Explosions.

While we dislike to condemn any article of common use because of its commercial value to the manufacturer and seller yet we believe it to be the legitimate province of the newspaper to give the news and protect society wherever the article in question may endanger life and property.

"The explosion of a gasoline stove at Strawberry Mansion, in Philadelphia, recently resulted in the severe burning of Harry Knox and W. J. Baird. Both men were taken to the German Hospital, and Baird will probably die.

"Flames also roared through every room of the wretched tenement house 211 North Second street, imperiling the lives of a half dozen families of the very poorest class. Rebecca King, a 2-year-old child, was burned to death, and Augusta King, an infant, was badly injured by the flames. Mrs. Fannie King, an industrious seamstress, the mother of two children, became a raving maniac when she learned the awful disaster which had befallen her.

"The fire originated from the explosion of a gasoline stove, which was being carried into the street by Israel Grosplan, one of the tenants of the house. The lamp was burning badly, and appreciating the danger the man intended to carry it into the street to remedy its faults. When near the bottom of the stairway, the stove exploded like a bomb, and almost simultaneously the stairway caught fire. Grosplan maddened with pain from the burning oil which had splashed him, nevertheless did all he could to get the stove out of the house, but was compelled to give up."

"Another explosion of similar character occurred at 933 South Second street in the apartments of Annie Vohinsky, and the woman and her three months' old child were badly burned and taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital. Firemen were compelled to burst in the door of the room, and Fireman Barrett, who first entered, found the terrified woman with her clothes on fire, and the flames had spread to the little one's apparel. The baby was burned and nearly suffocated by the smoke, and the woman's flesh is frightfully burned. The woman died in terrible agony some time after her admission to the hospital."

"Still another gasoline explosion occurred in the pork packing establishment of Jacob Bofinger & Co., 611 North Third street, at an early hour in the morning. Fifteen hundred dollars will cover the loss occasioned by all the above fires, but in the case of the tenement house the poor people have lost their all."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Senatorial Scripture.

To prove the fallacy of free trade in wool Senator Proctor recently quoted Scripture, convulsed the Senate and established an enviable reputation as a humorist, all in one speech. Thus the good book is made to serve all purposes. We give the gist of his Scriptural applications, though we fail to see wherein the Almighty ever instructed any nation on earth to corner wool.

"The first recorded attempt to break down the interests of sheep husbandry was when Cain slew his brother Able, who was the keeper of seep." The Senate was immediately convulsed, and the closest attention was paid to the quaint remarks of the tall statesman from Vermont. He continued: "The motives and purposes which actuated Cain were plainly the same as those which actuate his followers to-day. It was jealousy of a preferred and protected industry. Cain was a tiller of the ground, and brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord."

"This offering may have been of rice or cotton or sugar—the Record does not state. The punishment meted out to Cain fairly foreshadows that which shall be meted out by the people to the promoters of this measure; a mark shall be set upon them, and when the time of retribution comes they will say, with Cain: 'My punishment is greater than I can bear.'"

Mr. Proctor went on to quote considerably from the Holy Writ to show that sheep husbandry was, from the earliest times, considered a favored industry. Abraham tendered ewe lambs as witnesses of an oath in one of the earliest real estate transactions on record. Mr. Proctor alluded to the success of Jacob in improving the breed of sheep, which grew out of a bargain with Laban, his father-in-law, as described in the 13th chapter of Genesis. The quotations were particularly apt. "The shepherd and his calling and his flock," continued Mr. Proctor, "are often alluded to in the Holy Writ, and furnish some of its grandest imagery and most beautiful illustrations. Many of those specially favored of the Lord were shepherds, and everywhere that calling is referred to as one of the highest character, plainly recognizing its importance to the welfare and prosperity of the people."

"The fate of those who attack this industry and the flocks of their country is plainly foreshadowed in and prophesied in many places." Mr. Proctor quoted the following: "David said unto Saul, 'Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion and a bear and took a lamb out of the flock and I went out after him and smote him and delivered it out of his mouth, and when he arose against me I caught him by the beard and smote him and slew him. Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living God.'"

"The same fate, Mr. President," remarked Mr. Proctor, in his deepest bass and most solemn manner, "will surely be meted out to the political Philistine of the present day in November, 1894, and 1896. The rewards awaiting those who are faithful in sustaining the industries of their country are also foretold." Mr. Proctor quoted several passages to show the glorious future of those who cared for the sheep, and he concluded his reference to the Bible as follows, sending the Senate into a convulsion of laughter: "As a further evidence of the Divine preference it is written that he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left." The intended application of this sentence to the present situation is obvious.

The Puzzle Solved.

Perhaps no local disease has puzzled and baffled the medical profession more than nasal catarrh. While not immediately fatal it is among the most nauseous and disgusting ills the flesh is heir to, and the records show very few or no cases of radical cure of chronic catarrh by any of the many modes of treatment until the introduction of Ely's Cream Balm a few years ago. The success of this preparation has been most gratifying and surprising. No druggist is without it.

How does this idea strike you? Keep up a high protective tariff so that American manufacturers can pay labor more than the pauper-wages paid him abroad, then help the poor pauper to emigrate to the land of the free where he can be made useful by being thrown into competition with the protected American laborer.

Another little slice of terra firma, evidently once far above high water, but now called Johnson's Island, is said to be the property of the United States. There being rich deposits of guano on the island, Hawaii and England both want possession it seems. It is quite possible to stir up a stink over this roosting place of sea-birds.

TO HELP WOMEN.

That is Why This Woman Writes.

Few people have any idea of the suffering that oppresses some women. Pains run rampant through their entire bodies. They suffer secretly as long as they can, and then go all to pieces and don't care what happens.

Yet this misery is easily relieved; thousands of American women proclaim the fact. The portrait presented here is that of Mrs. J. M. Bender, who lives on the old York Road at Nicetown, Pa. She has been for many years in very poor health. She had failing of the womb and other forms of female weakness, with headache, severe backache, pains all over her body, and nervous kidney trouble. Her blood was in such a bad state that physicians said she had dropsy. Nearly discouraged she tried Ely's Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to her great surprise it made her a well woman. She now wishes to tell women all over the world to take the Vegetable Compound and be well. Any druggist has it. Nothing in all the world has cured so many cases of female weaknesses as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Why don't you try it?

Lafayette College.

Lafayette College, at Easton, celebrated its fifty-ninth commencement on the 16-20th inst., and graduated a class of fifty members, equally divided between the Classical and Technical courses of study. The Senior Class Day, by the excellent choice of music and elaborate preparations, attracted an assemblage of 2,000 persons.

Among the novelties not on the usual programs of College occasions were a fantastic parade of the Freshmen in honor of their sailing safely into Sophomore seas and a dramatic representation by the Sophomore Class of the story of Pocahontas. The principal addresses were by Robert E. Speer, of New York City, on "The Heroism of Missions," Dr. John S. MacIntosh, of Philadelphia, on "Scotland's Story of Andrew Melville," and Walter C. Gilmore, of Williamsport, on "College Men and Politics." It is pleasing to note that seventeen of the students will be delegates to the Moody World's Bible Conference, at Northfield, on the 30th inst. The opening of the new athletic grounds, covering seven acres, and the receipt of a $5,000 legacy from Dr. Charles Elliott were noticeable as exponents of the constant growth of the College. President Warfield stated that the receipts from tuition had increased $3,000 per annum. The ladies of Easton gave a banquet to 250 graduates at the close of the commencement exercises, when it was announced that W. H. Keech, of Pittsburg, James R. Hogg, the carpet manufacturer of Philadelphia, E. J. Fox, of Easton, and Senator Griggs, of New Jersey, had been chosen trustees.

Besides the regular degrees the following honorary degrees were conferred: Master of Arts on James R. Hogg, of the class of '78, Philadelphia, and on Joseph A. McCurdy, '83, lawyer, Greensburg.

Doctor of Philosophy on Prof. DeBennville Keim Ludwig, principal of the Rittenhouse Academy, Philadelphia. Doctor of laws on Charlemagne Tower, member of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, Philadelphia. Doctor of Divinity on Rev. James W. Gilland, of '77, Shamokin, pastor-elect of the Westminster Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.; on Rev. James Gray Bolton, '72, pastor of the Hope Church Philadelphia, and on Rev. Harlan Gates Mendenhall, of '74, pastor of Greene Avenue Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.
