

IN CONGRESS.

Congratulations to the President and Cabinet. Report of Conference Committee on the Tariff Anxiously Awaited. The Knights of Labor Want Attorney General Olney Impeached. Senatorial Consideration of Strikes and Strikers.

Washington, July 16, 1894. President Cleveland and his cabinet are almost swamped with telegrams from every section of the country congratulating them on the courage and promptness with which they have brought order out of chaos and prevented what at one time looked like it might be a revolution, and volunteering aid to any imaginable extent, in both men and money.

The Democrats of the tariff conference committee have held daily meetings this week, and the air is full of rumors, each contradictory of the other, as to what they have done. These rumors are nothing more than guesses, as members of the conference will have nothing to say until they report to their respective Houses.

Had the situation not been entirely too grave and important to be laughed at, the silly talk of Messrs. Hayes, McGuire and French, members of the Executive Committee of the Knights of Labor, who are in Washington this week, about beginning impeachment proceedings against Attorney General Olney, because of the arrest of Debs, would have been regarded as a good joke.

As it is it merely gave the intelligent public an opportunity to gauge the caliber of the men who control a once powerful and influential organization and to wonder how they ever managed to get their authority, and how long the organization can stand the use they are making of it.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, in addition to being a State's rights Democrat of the staunchest sort, is known among lawyers as an authority upon Constitutional law. His resolution offered as a substitute to the semi-anarchist resolution offered by Senator Peffer, of Kans., and supported by the Populist Senator in one of the most outrageous speeches ever made in the Senate in which the abolition of Congress and the transfer of authority to a committee composed of one member from each State was advocated.

endorsing President Cleveland and his administration for the prompt and vigorous measures taken "to repulse and repress by military force the interference of lawless men with the due process of the laws of the U. S., and with commerce among the States," and declaring that "the action of the President and his administration has the full sympathy and support of the law-abiding masses of the people of the United States, and will be supported by all departments of the government and by the power and resources of the entire nation."

"I am a State's rights Democrat, and would be the last man to stand idly by and see the authority of the State encroached upon; but I fail to see anything here that encroaches upon the authority of the State of Illinois in any way. The President is acting entirely within the lines of the Constitution, and his action is to be commended by all law-abiding citizens, regardless of their political predilection or partisan feeling."

This is the way the situation looks to Senator Davis, of Minn., the Republican whose raking-down of Peffer will not soon be forgotten: "I have looked into this matter as a lawyer, and my judgment is that the President has gone about this business as a lawyer. He has considered his ground, become acquainted with his authority and powers, and then gone in to exercise them in a righteous cause and for the good of the general public. He has not exceeded his authority one whit; on the contrary, he has not as yet exhausted it. If the Federal troops are not sufficient for this emergency the State militia is at his command. The President can swear the militia of the various States into the service of the United States, and then send them to Chicago or any other point where their mobilization may become necessary. The Constitution is broad enough in this case, and the President is entrenched upon it."

An Old Story.

When giants lived in ancient times, Sing heigh, my boy, sing ho! In good old England, or foreign climes, Sing heigh, my boy, sing ho! They carried things with a high old hand, Nor strong, nor weak, could before them stand, And they killed whom they pleased throughout the Land, Sing heigh, my boy, sing ho! But the giants didn't have things their own way when Jack the Giant-killer arrived on the scene. You remember the story. Recollect, too, that every age has its giant killer. We have our giants in the form of all sorts of dread diseases, supposed to be incurable. Our Jack is in the form of Dr. Pierce, who has proven "incurable diseases" to be a fallacy. Can you imagine more potent weapons to assist a woman in killing the giant-disease, than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription? It's the only guaranteed remedy for all functional disturbances, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of womanhood. In female complaints of every kind, if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. It's simply a question of the company you prefer—the Giant or Jack!

The breath of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spongy bones are attacked, and frequently destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which is usually the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results by its use for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Balm as by far the best and only cure. Call upon your druggist for it.
