this truism, a Constitutional amendment which clips their wings and curtails their valuable privileges in dealing with the money power, is not apt to meet with favor.

Instead of adding any strength to the sovereign will or wish it seems to be a chief part of the Senate's business to nullify that power as far as possible by amending popular legislation that comes to it from the lower House. If the Senate cannot originate laws pertaining to the raising of revenue, it certainly can amend all such laws to death or virtual nullification, just as it has in the case of the Wilson tariffreform bill.

Until a majority of the State legis-latures elect United States Senators who are committed on the issue of a direct vote for the offices they hold, we greatly fear the ship of State will have to try to mount the same old billows. GENTLEMEN:—We have purchased one of your Home Comfort steel ranges of your salesman, Mr. Spotts, and are pleased to give our testimonial for the benefit of your company and its employees. Have used it in baking bread, which it did nicely la forty minutes, with four small sticks of wood. The oven was ready for baking in twenty minutes from the time the match was applied to the wood.

We can heartily recommend it to all those who are in need of a good range as being far superior to any we have ever used.

GENTLEMEN:—This is to certify that we purchased a Home Comfort range of your agent and it has indeed proved itself a comfort. We have used it with the atmost satisfaction for all cooking, and for baking qualifies think it cannot be excelled. We have told our friends that we would not five up this range for one hundred dollars unless we were sure we could purchase another. It affords us great pleasure in recommending it to any family in need of a first-class range.
