Interesting Items From Various Points in the County, Reported by Our Staff of Correspondents.

EAST BENTON.

Week ago last Wednesday we were visited by an old fashioned settled rain.

The notices, stuck up, "Vote for Monroe H. Kulp, of Shamokin, for Congress," have turned yellow by reason of exposure to the weather. After election they will turn blue, as will also Kulp and his supporters, by reason of being gulped by a handsome Democratic majority.

Paternalism is fostered by the doctrine of protection, while independence and self reliance are fostered by the doctrine of free trade. Selfishness is the result of the former, while generosity and equality are the legitimate fruits of the latter.

A few have finished husking corn, while many in our locality have scarcely begun.

"If the love of money is the root of all evil, what must the trunk of all evil be?"

Winter grain is already assuming quite a harvest-like appearance.

There was quite a strife for the position of teacher in several of our public schools this Fall. But since the assignment of teachers we hear no complaint from any quarter.

The question of bridges over our small streams is assuming a satisfactory solution. There seems to be a determination to supercede the old wooden structures with stone bridges. Yes, and hurry the thing along.

Why does "Kulp part his hair in the middle?" Does he expect to part the vote of the 17th Congressional district in the middle, and have the Congressional fight declared a draw? Vote—not for Kulp.

Last Saturday we called to see our old friend, Rohr McHenry, who returned a few days previous from Rochester, where he had gone for treatment and surgical operation in the case of a cancer, from which he is suffering. The excruciating pain resulting from such operation emaciated his form and appearance, but he has rallied to a remarkable degree after the ordeal. Patient and resigned in his affliction he has the sympathy of the entire community. Rarely we find men so universally esteemed as Rohr. He is possessed with a magnetism of wonderful attraction, and while positive in character, he is kind, courteous and obliging to all with whom he comes in contact. We hope for his speedy and complete recovery.

Time begins to tell on the veterans of Democracy, in our and other localities. We meet them at stated periods, or times of gubernatorial and Presidential campaigns. We looked with wonder at the changes time has wrought upon them since the last rally in 1892. While a few have advanced to a great age—such as Judge Derr, of Jackson, Jacob Welliver, of Benton, John K. Grotz, of Bloomsburg, and others—who were blithe and young in our youth, are now classed among the old men. Of the latter class we mention John J. McHenry, H. F. Everett, Abraham Hartman, Stephen Drescher; and the country is full of these Democratic veterans, who are as full of fight to day as ever before in their life, and more determined.

COUNTY INSTITUTE.

light on historical subjects. On Thursday afternoon the School Directors were present, it being Directors' day.

After singing, Miss Moore took up the subject of "Reading," but proceeded to talk at random, in her peculiar and vivacious way, upon Dr. Gordy's "Psychology," St. Paul's admonition, to "prove all things and hold fast that which is good," and finally remarked, "I am like Shakespeare when he said he could easier tell twenty people what to do than to be one of them to obey."

"The Dead Line" was the subject of the afternoon address by State Superintendent Nathan Shaeffer. He remarked that teachers did sometimes prematurely, by not avoiding the "dead line." The inference to be drawn is that many teachers, after qualifying themselves, grow indifferent about progressive school work, and, in consequence, are dead to all interests and purposes as teachers. He remarked that "when a teacher can learn nothing at these Institutes he is surely approaching the dead line. It pays the parent and teacher to know about the nascent period of growth in mind and body."

After song, by Mrs. Gottschall, so well rendered as to receive applause, Dr. Gordy spoke upon the "Educational Agencies" of the past and present, remarking that the three great agencies were the church, the state and the school, anterior to the middle ages the state was the supreme agency, in the middle ages the church controlled, while at present the school is the greatest agency.

The evening exercises consisted of an appropriate and well-rendered entertainment, given by the Chicago Rivals, to an appreciative audience.

The closing exercises of the Institute took place on Friday morning, Rev. Mr. Brandt conducting the devotional exercises.

After brief remarks from Supt. Johnston concerning attendance, cards, &c., Miss Moore resumed her talk upon "Reading." Without saying just how it could be done, she remarked, "we should teach once so it would never be forgotten." That, of course, would be first class teaching.

Mr. Schaeffer here again took the floor and enlarged upon "distinguishing between the literal and figurative use of a word."

After song, by the teachers, W. W. Heffner, of Centuria, read an instructive paper on "Forestry." He was followed by Prof. A. U. Lesher and Mr. Boyd Trescott. The latter gave an illustrated address that held the attention.

Reports being called for, the Auditors reported as follows: Receipts for year 1893, $786.90; expenditures, $729.97; balance in treasury, $56.93.

Teachers' Institute Resolutions.

Resolved:—That we, the teachers of Columbia county, in convention assembled, do hereby favor the enactment of the following school laws at the next session of the Pennsylvania Legislature.

FIRST:—A law providing that no school books or apparatus shall be adopted by any board of directors without the consent of a majority of the teachers and directors in the district in which the said books or apparatus are to be adopted.

SECOND:—A law providing that the extra State appropriation shall only be extended to such districts as shall make their tax levy at least one and one-half times the amount of their share of the entire State appropriation.

THIRD:—A law providing that attendance of pupils under seventeen, in our public schools, should be compulsory, for at least sixteen consecutive weeks of each school year, and for the remainder of the year, unless engaged in some remunerative employment.

Resolved:—That in order to bring the foregoing resolution before the Legislature a committee of three be appointed by the County Superintendent.

Resolved:—That we hereby commend and endorse the work of our County Superintendent of public schools; that we express our appreciation of the excellence of the instruction and entertainment provided, and most heartily commend the introduction by the County Superintendent of a graded course of study for our now ungraded schools.

Resolved:—That we commend the recent establishment of a cooking department by the school board of Berwick as a step in the right direction.

Resolved:—That the Institute just closed has been one of the best in the history of the county, and that the instruction rendered has never been excelled in efficiency by any previous Institute.

Resolved:—That we endorse with a sense of local pride the excellent State Normal School at Bloomsburg; that we commend the thoroughness and practicability of the instruction there imparted and extend our sincere thanks to Dr. J. P. Welsh, its efficient Principal, for his kindness in permitting the teachers of this county to view the workings of its various departments.

Resolved:—That our thanks are hereby extended to the citizens of

THE CELLULOID COMPANY, 427-29 Broadway, NEW YORK.

Bloomsburg for their kindness and hospitality as extended to us during our sojourn in their beautiful town, and to all who in any way have contributed to the success of this Institute.

Resolved:—That, in our opinion, the worth of our work as teachers and the success of our schools would be greatly increased by the more frequent visitation of our schools by the School Directors, and by making the text books uniform throughout the county.

Resolved:—That we deeply deplore the death of our fellow teacher, Mr. J. P. Hannon, of Conyngham township, who for twenty two years was a faithful and efficient instructor in the schools of Columbia county.

Resolved:—That we favor the establishment of additional local Institutes.

Fifth Annual Reunion—Students and Teachers of the Bloomsburg Normal School Have a Good Time in Y. M. H. A. Hall.

Last Thursday evening between the hours of 4 and 8 the graduates of the Bloomsburg State Normal School held their fifth annual reunion and banquet in the spacious apartments of the Young Men's Hebrew Association.

The early part of the time was spent in the large parlors on the second floor, where acquaintances were renewed and school experiences and escapades recalled and enjoyed. Graduates from the earliest classes and those of more recent years mingled freely and chatted pleasantly of the old school, which some declared now deserves the name of "the new school," because of its wonderful growth and great improvements during recent years.

The banquet was enjoyed in the third floor. One hundred and sixty persons sat down to the four large tables and enjoyed the many good things prepared for them by William H. Housel, the efficient steward of the school. The feast was pronounced by all the best that had ever been served, and Mr. Housel is to be congratulated on his success as a caterer and the school is to be congratulated on having such a man to look after the physical well being of its students. Music was furnished by the orchestra of the school, which is under the management of Miss Rosa M. Haas, who is at the head of the music department. The music was of an excellent character, and special mention should be made of the violin solo of Max Stauffer, a Luzerne County boy, who is now a member of the senior class. His home is in Hazleton.

The teachers of the school who were present were Prof. William Noetting, Prof. Wilbur, Prof. and Mrs. Cope, Prof. Jenkins, Miss Smith, Miss Haas, Principal Welsh and wife. It must have done their hearts good to see the enthusiasm of their former students and feel the warmth of their greeting.

There was little time left for toasts after the banquet, as many desired to attend the entertainment of the institute. Principal Welsh spoke briefly, by request, of the two new buildings to be erected in the near future and mentioned the fact that the music department had grown to such an extent that it is now being organized into a regular conservatory and given a building of its own.

Our townsman Granville J. Clark, Esq., a graduate of the school, who is president of the Luzerne County

Alumni presided gracefully as toastmaster.

The success of the occasion, was, in great measure, due to the efficient services of B. F. Meyers, of Wanamie, who is treasurer of the association. Messrs. Clark and Meyers and Miss Bessie Wintersteen were re-elected, president, treasurer and secretary, respectively. Thus closed another of the pleasant alumni gatherings to which many of the teachers of Luzerne county look forward from year to year, with so much pleasure. When it is considered that one third of all the teachers of Luzerne county are graduates of the Bloomsburg State Normal School, it is not surprising that this annual gathering during institute week is a matter of so much interest.—Wilkes Barre Record, Oct. 26.

IS HE COMPETENT?

That was Mr. Jefferson's test for election or appointment to office. Ask that question about Kulp. The answer must be NO! And if he is not competent, don't vote for him.

Ask that question about Mr. Buckalew, and the answer must be YES! Then vote for a man of tried ability and competency—vote for Mr. Buckalew. Vote the straight ticket. Get out the vote. Vote for Buckalew. Kulp is no good in Congress.

THREE GREAT THINGS DONE.

The New York Evening Post says that the Democratic Congress has passed three measures of the utmost importance—measures which constitute landmarks in legislation.

First—The repeal of the Sherman Silver Purchase Act.

Second—The removal from the Statute Book of the Federal election laws.

Third—The passage of a tariff bill, which, in the reduction of duties and the increase of the free raw materials list, constitute a new departure.
