Republican Prophecy of Eternal Death for Demograts All Wrong .-- The Presidential Messago .- The Bond Issue Justified by Precedent .- Conjecture as to Atlitude of Ransom and Gorman .-- The W. C. T. U. Criticise Mrs. Cleveland for Cracking a bottle of Wine.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, November 19, 1894.

Those republicans and populists who are trying so hard to make some body think that they believe the demtion, is dead, are merely making themselves ridiculous. The democratic party, which, to go no further back than the memory of every middle aged recent election was a bitter lesson, a useful one.

President Cleveland is not spending much time at the White House just now, because the time is short be tween this and the assembling of Congress, and his annual message to Congress, which will be one of the most has shown him he cannot do in his the firms or persons making them. office at the White House. During his vacation the President devoted much time to studying the financial system of the country, which is generally ad mitted to be radically defective, and the result of that study will be shown in the recommendations of his message to Congress.

No democrat can possibly regret than does President Cleveland and the members of his cabinet, but in the face of the necessity for preserving the national credit, and in the absence of any other method, owing to the system inherited from a long series of republican adminstrations, regrets were idle and action imperative. When a merchant finds his credit endangered, owing to his receipts being less than his expenditures, he cannot afford to waste time in regrets because those expenditures are largely 5 per centum per annum. the result of extravagant contracts made by his predecessor. His credit cepted will be required to pay 20 per made by his predecessor. must be protected and nothing will do that but prompt payment of his obligations as they mature, and to do that he must have money and it can only be had by borrowing it on his note. That he does, trusting to his ability to stop the leaks in his business and make it profitable in order to pay it back. That is precisely the position of the administration in announcing an issue of bonds.

Senators Ransom and Gorman had a casual meeting and a friendly conversation in the Capitol one day this week, and straightway a story was started that they had evolved a plan by which a democrat was to be elected at an extra session of the North Carolina legislature to fill the unexpired Senator Ransom was to resign and be March 4, 1895, at the same extra sesno man pursueth."

Scoretary Carliste Will Put Fifty Millions of Five Percent Bands on Market, and in Denominations as Low as $50. Placing them Within Reach of All Who Have Gold.

Washington, November 13. '94-Secretary Carlisle late this afternoon, as had been anticipated for several days, issued his call for bids for $50,000,000 five per cent ten year bonds, interest to be paid in coin. which is interpreted to mean gold. The only material changes made in the present call from that issued January 14 last are the omission of the upset or minimum price, which ocratic party, as a national organiza would be accepted, and the notice that the proposals for the present issue must be sealed.

The Victorious Japanese Don't Care to Quit Fighting.

WASHINGTON, November 13 .- The prospects for United States mediation between China and Japan look less bright to-day. Six days have passed since Secretary Gresham cabled Minister Dun at Tokio offering the good offices of President Cleveland as mediator in case Japan joined China in requesting it, and as yet Japan has not accepted.

This leads to the conclusion that the Japanese Government looks with suspicion at the Chinese motives in inaugrating the negotiations, and at China's intention that she will expect Great Britain, the recognized friend of China, to co operate with the United States in the settlement.

Moreover, it is gradually becoming apparent that in the event of mediation China would expect Japan to stop her victorious march through China, which has already resulted in the capture of many Chinese towns and the overrunning of Northeastern China, and to actually lay down her arms, withdraw her troops to Japan, restore China her captured towns and establish a status exactly as it was when the war began.

The belief is growing that the delay of the Japanese Government is due largely to these considerations and that no acceptance of American med ation is likely until China modifies her expectations and makes them so definite as to be beyond future doubt of diplomatic misconstruction. - The

The President and Mr. Carlisle.

The attention of the President being recently called to the statement contained in certain newspapers to the effect that there had been a disagree. ment between him and Mr. Carlisle in regard to the issue of bonds and other matters, and intimating that such disagreement might result in the Secretary's retirement from the Cabinet. the President emphatically denied the entire "batch of silly misstatements," and said: "Never since our association together has there been the slightest unpleasantness or difference concerning the affairs of the Treasury partment or any other matter. I have every reason to believe that his attachment to me is as sincere and as great as mine is for him. I should be much afflicted if anything should cause him to entertain the thought of giving up his position while he is doing so much for his country. We have agreed exactly as to the issue of bonds and there has been no backwardness on his part on that subject. I see it is said that I am formulating a financial scheme. If such a scheme is presented it will be the work of the Secretary of the Treasury and I shall indorse and support it.

The trouble seems to be that those charged with the executive duties of the government do not apterm of the late Senator Vance, and nominations desired, whether register pear willing at all times to take the counsel of the newspapers and make public all they intend to do."
