The ladies of Colorado are credited with enough strength to defeat objectionable men

Under the franking privilege to Congressmen they actually sent their soiled clothes home to wash by mail. It being discovered and denounced, an effort was then made to limit the franking privilege to actual corres-pondence and news; but it is said that this prohibition does not prohibit because there was no penalty mentioned in the prohibitory law, and consequently the Congressional wash is still liable to find its way home under the franking privilege.

There is a considerable strength of publie opinion that the new Czar will not make a bad ruler. He is pleasant, good tempered and forgiving, and his strongest disposition seems to be to win a name as a speedy bicyclist.
