

WASHINGTON.

An Extra Session Will Likely be Called... Chairman Cockrell Favors Rotation of Office...

From our Regular Correspondent. - WASHINGTON, January 11, 1895.

President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle were far from being pleased at the success of the combination of republicans, populists and anti-administration democrats...

Senator Lodge having announced his intention to offer an amendment to the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill...

It will be interesting to note how many republican newspapers will be honest enough to give the administration proper credit for having compelled the discrimination of 75 cents a barrel against flour shipped from the United States to Cuba...

Senator Voorhees, chairman of the Senate Finance committee, refused to grant a hearing to Coxe on his good roads and non-interest bearing bond scheme...

Secretary Carlisle's interpretation of that clause of the new tariff law which repealed the McKinley sugar bounty—that it put an immediate stop to the payment of bounties—has been unanimously sustained by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia...

Representative Sibley, of Pennsylvania, who was elected to the House by democratic votes, but who long ago proclaimed himself to be a republican on the tariff and a populist on the finance question...

Some Seasonable Fancies That Are Favored by the Fair Sex.

Bonbon boxes that can be utilized when the candies are gone are new and sensible. Chinchilla fur increases in fashion. It is said it cannot be successfully imitated.

Bodies are cut lower for fashionable dinner parties than for boxes at the opera. Some society women have put the high Normandy cap on the indignant parlor maid.

Individual candles and shades at dinner parties are gradually going out of vogue. Too profuse floral decoration at dinner parties is declared to be "questionable taste."

An enormous bow, with a spray of jet, does duty for one of the fashionable "bonnets." Colonial candlesticks of china are indispensable now in every fashionable household.

No attempted innovation in evening dress for men finds favor among "conservatives." Something new, pretty and useful for the desk is a paperweight and clock combined.

Wide velvet collars on overcoats are relegated to men who are not in the procession. It could be wished close tailed cutaway coats were cut with regard to the size of the wearer.

Thousands of young men have apparently resolved to cling to the russet shoes all winter. Screens are remarkably beautiful. Those that can be made tall or short are the newest.

The man whose clothes do not fit him is often happy in being mistaken for an Englishman. There is a fashionable craze for brooches of all kinds, with the preference for grandmama's.

EX-SHERIFF OF ULSTER COUNTY. Hon. Davis Winne Owes His Health to Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

SHANDAKEN, N. Y.—One of the most prominent men in Ulster County is the Hon. Davis Winne, of this town. His reputation is not confined alone to this county, where he held the office of Sheriff for three years, he was also this district's representative in the New York State Legislature.

In speaking of Favorite Remedy, Mr. Winne said: "It has done more for me than all the physicians I ever employed, and I most unhesitatingly recommend it to any one suffering from kidney, liver or urinary troubles, for it will cure them."

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the acknowledged specific for all diseases arising from acidity of the blood, and will cure dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, eczema, kidney, liver and urinary troubles.

You can not afford to trifle with health and life. Putting off treatment when dangerous symptoms exist is only slow suicide. Accept the aid of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy; it has restored thousands to health and strength.

Girls Who Attract Men. The girls who attract the best men are almost always a source of surprise to their feminine friends, who are often lost in wonder as to why so many more patent charms should have been passed over in such selections, writes Mrs. Burton Harrison in the January Ladies' Home Journal.

Deacon Meadows—"I hear your son has become an expert fence at college." Farmer Clovertop—"I dunno. He hain't showed no signs up 't he about hum, an' my fences needs fixin' putty bad."

Important Supreme Court Ruling.

The Supreme Court says the Wilkes-Barre Record, handed down an important decision, by which corporations are compelled to appear in court and answer charges against them.

The case is entitled Commonwealth vs. Lehigh Valley R. Co., and it involved the power of compelling corporations to appear in Criminal court when indicted for nuisance. Heretofore the district attorney had no way to compel an appearance.

This reverses the whole practice upon this point in the State of Pennsylvania. The Daughters of the American Revolution are still celebrating George Washington's wedding day in New York.
