Commonwealth vs. Abner A. Evans. Charge false pretense. Case settled by agreement of parties, and the District Attorney made a statement to the jury that it was a proper case for county to pay the costs, and the Court was of the same opinion. The jury retired, and for some reason thought they knew better than the court and District Attorney, and so put the costs on the prosecutor, J. R. Fowler.

The grand jury made the following report:

"We find the county prison in need of the following repairs: Roof repaired, floor in different cells, seat in bath room, valves and pipes in different water closets and cells, hinges on cell door, plastering in a few of the cells, and in cellar kitchen around steam pipes. We also recommend the furnishing of more and better heat in Court House, the carpeting of the inclosure of the Register and Recorder's office, vault of same extended and made fireproof, a new table in Sheriff's office a few panes of glass in the windows of main Court Room. We favorably commend the janitor for the cleanliness and pleasant appearance of Court House.

Did you ever see one of the famous waterproof Interlined Collars or Cuffs? It's very easy to tell, for they are all marked this way

They are the only Interlined Collars and Cuffs, and are made of linen, covered with waterproof "CELLULOID." They'll stand right by you day in and day out, and they are all marked this way

The first cost is the only cost, for they keep clean a long time, and when soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth—that is the kind marked this way

These collars and cuffs will outlast six linen ones. The wearer escapes laundry trials and laundry bills—no chafed neck and no wetting down if you get a collar marked this way

Ask your dealer first, and take nothing that has not above trade mark, if you desire perfect satisfaction. All others are imitations absolutely.

If you can't find collars or cuffs marked this way, we will send you a sample postpaid on receipt of price. Collars, 25 cts. each. Cuffs 50 cts. pair. Give yours size and say whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

Almost every neighborhood contains some one who has been helped by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mrs. J. Tingley Mullen, of Clearfield, Pa., writes under date of Nov. 28th, as follows: "Last winter our oldest boy had the mumps after which he got cold and it turned to diphtheria. We did not think he could get well, and after he did recover he had not sufficient strength to walk. He had no appetite and we got a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and he began taking it. In three days he was able to eat as well as usual. My husband had catarrh of the throat and the doctors could not relieve him so he took Hood's Sarsaparilla and he has not been troubled since. Last spring I had a pain across my kidneys which troubled me a great deal and I was also afflicted with swelling in my throat: I took two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and a box of Hood's Vegetable Pills, and have no such troubles since."

La Gascoigne, the Missing Vessel, Safe.

QUARANTINE, L. I., Feb. 12.—La Gascoigne is safe. The big French liner, eight days overdue, dropped anchor at the bar just before midnight. All well on board.

The delay was due to a broken piston rod and to the terrific gales which have swept the North Atlantic for the past week or more, and brought disaster to many a staunch craft.

Captain Baudelon brought the ship through the gales and made port without help. From the time they left Havre on January 26, until Feb. 11, they spoke no trans-Atlantic steamer and saw only a four-masted schooner, the one which reported at St. Pierre, Miquelon, N. S., as having seen a large steamer off the banks apparently in distress last Saturday.

The steamer left Havre January 26. On the first day out 449 miles were logged; on the second day 407 miles; on the third day after traveling 380 miles, the piston rod broke and eighteen hours were spent in making repairs.

When they were completed the ship steamed at nine miles an hour, making in all sixty miles on the twenty-ninth. On the thirtieth, thirty first and February 1st, 215, 255 and 280 miles a day were made, respectively.

On February 2 the piston rod broke down again. The break was more serious this time. Sea anchors were put out and for forty one hours the ship was hove to making repairs.

On the fourth the first severe weather was experienced and the ship was blown 150 miles out of her course. On the fifth, the repairs having been completed, 103 miles were made.

The ship was then clear to the northward of the track of the trans-Atlantic steamers and was therefore not seen by the many steamers which passed over the regular track. On February 6 169 miles were made.

On the seventh the machinery broke down for the third time. The heavy cyclone struck her on that day and the ship lay hove to with sea anchors out all day.

No headway was made and owing to the motion of the ship repairs were difficult. On the next day the chief engineer, who had been at his post day and night, completed the repairs and the ship proceeded 131 miles.

On the ninth, for the fourth time, the machinery broke down and only seventy four miles were made. On the tenth 150 miles were made and to the great rejoicing of all on board Fire Island was at last sighted and the ship crept up to her anchorage off the bar.

The news of the vessel's safety was hailed with delight expressed in various ways by all nationalities. A Mr. Riche, of New York, having three daughters on board, broke down completely upon receipt of the glad tidings, he having previously abandoned all hope. The signals displayed on the missing boat signified that she was disabled and unmanageable. The Bolivia brought word of her safety and anchorage off Shinnecock Light, after futile attempt to proceed under her own steam.

There is a Difference

In Business Colleges, but there are no differences of opinion concerning the necessity of a business education for every young man and woman. WHICH college to select is the question. We claim there are none superior to ours. None of our teachers has had less than eight years of teaching experience. Their pupils LEARN. No college has better facilities or more pleasant surroundings. We count investigation. Let us send you our College Journal. It is free.
