The Sunday School Convention.

Of Wyoming Classis of the Reformed Church in the United States. Held in Trinity Reformed Church Bloomsburg, Pa., March 7 and 8.

The sessions of the Sunday school convention of Wyoming Classis were largely attended, both by delegates and the public in general, and a deep interest was manifested in all its proceedings. The following is a synopsis of the work:

THURSDAY, 10 A. M.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. C. H. Herbst, of West Hazleton. The roll of delegates was called by Rev. C. H. Brandt. Rev. D. W. Donat, of Wapwallopen, in a neat address stated the object of this convention. He said this convention was called in accordance with a request from the General Sunday School Board. It is in the line of the movement to increase the efficiency of the Sunday school. Therefore, all are asked to give their hearty cooperation to every work that may be undertaken to advance its interest.

The subject, "The Advantage of Local Sunday School Conventions," was discussed by Rev. Geo. S. Sorber, of Watsonstown. In substance he said that in the arrangement of the program for a convention subjects of vital importance are selected; and by discussing these new zeal is incited and good results must follow. The subject was further discussed by Rev. Noll, Elder Koenig, Rev. Brandt, Rev. Masonheimer and Elder Balliet.

THURSDAY, 2 P. M.

The convention opened with prayer by Rev. A. M. Masonheimer, of Weatherly.

The topic, "The Sunday School Teacher's Influence," was taken up by Elder M. N. Koenig, of Hazleton, as follows: The teacher's influence is a powerful one. By word and example he can inculcate a spirit of charity and a devotion for God's cause which will often manifest itself in times and places not expected. Revs. Sorber, Schoedler, Brandt and Rufus Miller also spoke briefly on this topic.

Rev. D. E. Schoedler, of Turbotville, then read a paper on "The Sunday School Muse." The Christian hymns are intended for worship. Great care should be taken as to what kind of hymns are admitted into our hymn books. Many hymns are written and arranged only for theatrical effect, for extolling the Sunday school or the history of the church; and as these

After THREE MONTHS of Daily Wear

This Collar

Is Still in Good Condition.

That's because it's the "CELLULOID" Collar. Its original cost was 25 cts. and it cost the wearer nothing afterwards to keep it clean. When soiled, simply wipe off with sponge or wet cloth.

These collars and cuffs are waterproof, and are the only waterproof goods made with an interlining of linen; therefore the only ones that can last and give absolute satisfaction. Every piece of the genuine is stamped as follows:

Refuse anything that is not so marked, and if your dealer has not got the right kind send direct to us, enclosing amount, and we will mail you a sample postpaid. Collars 25 cts. each. Cuffs 50 cts. pair. Give size, and state whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

detract rather than elevate, they should be rejected without ceremony.

Rev. Aaron Noll, of Hazleton, spoke on "The Relation of the Pastor to the Sunday School." The pastor if possible should attend every session of the Sunday school. However, it is not best for him to be the Superintendent, nor to teach except at times as a substitute. He should supervise the whole school rather than give his attention to one particular branch. The discussion was continued by Elder Wm. H. Balliet, of Limestoneville, Revs. Schoedler, Alspach, Noll, Brandt, Mr. F. P. Billhime, Ira Mann and C. J. Shaffer.

THURSDAY, 7:30 P. M.

The convention opened with an anthem by the choir. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Aaron Noll.

"The Advantage the Sunday School Affords for the Cultivation of the Spirit of Benevolence," by Rev. C. B. Alspach, of Danville, was discussed as follows: This subject is a very important one. With the development of the spirit of benevolence we take out of the child every feeling of selfishness. We have been teaching the child to give for the support of the school itself. This is a mistake. All that the Sunday school gives should go for benevolence, and the congregation should support the Sunday school.

Rev. H. E. Jones, Financial Secretary of Ursinus College, also spoke on this topic. He said the spirit of benevolence depends upon training, and if it is not done in childhood and youth it never will be done, and hence the Sunday school affords the best place for this.

A motion song entitled "The Clock" was then sung by a class of girls, and was much appreciated by the entire audience.

Rev. Rufus W. Miller, General Secretary of the Sunday School Board, was then introduced, who spoke on the Sunday school motto of our church, "All the church in the Sunday school. All the Sunday school in the church. All for Christ." The object of this motto is to arouse enthusiasm for the Sunday school. The Sunday school is the church assembled, and therefore, all should be in the same. When the parents will attend the Sunday school, then also will the children attend the church. The Sunday school is the place to study God's word for the purpose of leading the children to Christ. The best members of the church are those who are received at an early age. In Christ's name then let us work.

After this a duet was sung by A. N. Yost, Esq., and Miss Nellie Ent, which called forth much praise.

The session closed with benediction by Rev. Miller.

FRIDAY, 9:30 A. M.

Convention opened with devotional exercises by Rev. F. H. Fisher, of Danville.

The topic, "What Relation Should the Consistory Sustain to the Sunday School," was discussed by Rev. D. E. Schoedler. This question may be answered in a sense by another, What relation does the congregation bear to the Sunday school? Years ago the Sunday school was regarded as separate from the congregation, and if it is true the consistory has nothing to do with it. However, this is no longer held. While great freedom should be allowed the Sunday school, as a part of the congregation, the consistory should have a supervisory power over it. The discussion was then continued by Revs. Herbst, Brandt, Benner and Elders Balliet and Koenig. During this discussion Rev. P. A. Heilman, of the Lutheran church, entered and was invited to a seat as an advisory member.

Rev. A. Houtz, of Orangeville, next spoke on "The Work of the Sunday School in the Training of the Child ren for the Church." In substance he said training is characteristic of all work. This is true of the church. The church is sometimes called an army, and this suggests organization and discipline. There are duties in the church for which none are fitted unless trained for them. The training of the Sunday school should be of such a nature as to cover all the duties of the church and the Christian life.

The question box was in charge of Rev. H. A. I. Benner, of Freeland. Many questions were propounded and answered in a satisfactory manner.

Under the item of business the following resolutions were adopted:

An overture to the Sunday School Board of General Synod:

WHEREAS, There is a growing desire on the part of our schools for a Sunday school hymnal adapted to the life and genius of the Reformed church, and

Resolved, That this Classical Sunday School Convention of Wyoming Classis hereby respectfully overtures the Sunday School Board of the General Synod, if at all practicable, to prepare a suitable manuscript copy of a Reformed Sunday school hymnal, using the Reformed church hymnal as the basis, with a view to presenting it at the next meeting of General Synod.

AARON NOLL, GEO. S. SORBER, W. H. BALLIET, Committee.

GENERAL RESOLUTIONS.

1. Resolved, That this convention instructs its ministers and lay delegates to convey, as they may see best, to their respective Sunday schools the suggestions and works deliberated upon at this convention.

2. Resolved, That this convention prayerfully requests its ministers and lay delegates to hold local conventions of Reformed Sunday schools and produce a report of the same in writing at our next annual convention.

3. Resolved, That this convention approves and endorses annual Sunday school conventions and instructs the standing committee on Sunday school work of Wyoming Classis to draw up and formulate certain general rules for the government of such conventions and refer the same to Classis for approval.

4. Resolved, That the warmest thanks of this convention be extended to the good people of Bloomsburg, Pa., for the kind and hospitable entertainment given to the members of this convention and that the pastor of the church, Rev. C. H. Brandt, announce this to his people from the pulpit.

5. Resolved, That the thanks be and are hereby tendered to the Local Committee of this Convention for its efficient arrangement and work rendered the standing committee of Classis to achieve the grand success of this our first annual Sunday School Convention of Wyoming Classis.

A Humorous Fact

About Hood's Sarsaparilla—it expe's bad humor and creates good humor. A battle for blood is what Hood's Sarsaparilla vigorously fights, and it is always victorious in expelling foul taints and giving the vital fluid the quality and quantity of perfect health. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, boi's and other blood diseases.

Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the bowels and liver. 25c.

And now Dr. Parkhurst and Rev. Thomas Dixon, of New York, are being themselves hauled over the red hot coals of ecclesiastical criticism. As a reform leader in New York, where reformation was sadly needed, Dr. Parkhurst has certainly gained distinction rapidly. And Rev. Thomas Dixon has gained his notoriety through abandoning the conventional and adopting the sensational style of preaching for which he is now deposed. While these men have no doubt been agencies for good, they can only make it effectual by showing that they have consistently practiced what they preached.
