

HARRISBURG LETTER.

A Growing Sentiment in Favor of the New Revenue Bill.

JUDICIAL APPOINTMENT BILL.

It Gives the State Six New Judges and Makes Material Changes in the Present Districts—Journalists on Governor Hastings' Staff—The Governor's Presidential Boom.

(Special Correspondence.) HARRISBURG, March 25.—There is a growing sentiment in the state in favor of the new revenue bill. The hearings before the house ways and means committee the past three weeks have given the people a better understanding of the measure, and it looks now as if it might become a law with a few minor amendments.

The lack of funds to make all the appropriations desired by the legislature continues to be an interesting topic among the members, but those from Philadelphia insist that the money for the Delaware river improvement must be found somewhere, even if it has to be taken from the item set aside for schools.

Taxation Bill Aimed at Corporations. A taxation bill aimed at corporations has been put in the senate by Senator Walton.

The Nickell amendment to the constitution reducing the number of elections one-half, without throwing local and state elections on the same day, has gone through the house on second reading and will be considered during the present week on third reading.

The bill providing for the re-creation of new counties is now pending in the house and representative Fow has come to the front with a bill from the people of Wayne county to create out of parts of Wayne, Wyoming and Lackawanna counties, with Carbondale as the county seat.

The judicial appointment bill will be considered on third reading in the house tomorrow. It went through on second reading last Thursday after a bitter fight against it by the Democrats.

The bill provides that if the president judge and additional law judge of a district cannot agree on a question of law the opinion of the president judge shall be the decree of the court, from which a bill of exceptions can be sealed and taken to the supreme court.

Charles Heber Clark, secretary of the Manufacturers' club, of Philadelphia, will deliver an address in the hall of the house of representatives tomorrow evening, by request of the legislature, on free silver.

The patriotic societies are protesting against the change to be made by the senate education committee in the provisions of the religious garb bill. The measure as it passed the house puts the responsibility on the teacher, and that is the way the patriotic societies want it to remain.

The bill establishing a superior court, with five judges, for the relief of the supreme court, has been passed the second time in the house and will come up tomorrow in the senate on first reading.

bill provides that at the first election for the five judges each elector shall vote for four only. This will give the Democracy representative on the bench. The court shall sit once a year at Philadelphia, Pottsville, Harrisburg, Williamsport and Scranton and shall have jurisdiction in less than $1,000.

Journalists on Hastings' Staff.

Governor Hastings has three newspaper men in his military family. At the same time the governor appointed Henry Hall, the bright and versatile legislative correspondent of the Pittsburg Times, and James Elverson, Jr., publisher of the Philadelphia Inquirer, aides on his staff with the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Mr. Schwarz, of Monroe, has introduced a bill in the house to make lawyers of prothonotaries who have served three full terms of four out of the bill by forwarding him a number of amendments to be offered on second reading. Among the proposed changes suggested is one creating physicians out of doctor's hospitals.

At the request of the colored people of the state a bill has been introduced by Representative Hapwood, of Fayette, making February 12, the anniversary of the birth of Lincoln, a legal holiday.

The bill creating the office of state custodian is in the hands of the governor. It passed the final stage in the house last week and was amended by changing the name of the office from "custodian" to "superintendent."

The Governor's Presidential Boom. Governor Hastings' friends are making an energetic canvass in behalf of his candidacy for the presidential nomination in 1908.

The house has shown a disposition to kill the bill allowing justices of the peace to try certain petty cases by a jury of six. The bill was up last Wednesday, and after much debate it was postponed for the present.

In the Interest of Retailers. A bill which is intended to largely increase the revenues of the retail liquor dealers is now pending on the second reading calendar of the house.

The judicial appointment bill will be considered on third reading in the house tomorrow. It went through on second reading last Thursday after a bitter fight against it by the Democrats.

The bill provides that if the president judge and additional law judge of a district cannot agree on a question of law the opinion of the president judge shall be the decree of the court, from which a bill of exceptions can be sealed and taken to the supreme court.

GOLD DRAUGHTS OF AIR.

A Simple Way of Avoiding One of Winter's Greatest Dangers. As the season is now on when the cold, thin-blooded and those whose rheumatics always are in evidence, when the glass is in the neighborhood of thirty degrees start to look about for draughts in the house.

The room had open grate, also furnace heat, and the thermometer easily registered seventy to seventy-five degrees, but with all this warmth there was a draught—as I thought, on my head and neck. Every one said that the cold air came in at the window sash.

The next cold snap the same old gale came I spoke to him in regard to it. When he informed me that it was not the cold air from the outside that I felt, but the warm air of the room, which went to the top of the window, struck the cold glass, cooled and then "fell down" as the cold air would have been the casing being air-tight.

It is a remedy of a woman for women. Millions of women owe the health they enjoy, and the influence they exert, to Mrs. Pinkham and the success of her Vegetable Compound has never been equalled in the field of medicine for the relief and cure of all kinds of female complaints.

Here is another one of thousands who speaks that others may know the truth: "For five years I suffered with falling of the womb, and all the dreadful aches and pains that accompany the disease. I tried several doctors and different medicines, until I lost all faith in everything. I had not tried your Compound."

Importance of Pure Air. The season of colds, at least the season accepted as such, being upon us, it is well to remind ourselves that the best authorities ascribe the prevalence of these distempers to bad indoor air rather than to severe outdoor air.

"An open fire in every living room in every house," says another enthusiast on the same subject of ventilation, "would do more to lower the death rate from respiratory diseases than any medication or other existing remedial agency."
