HARRISBURG LETTER.

Many Bills on the House Calendar for Immediate Action.

THE QUAY COUNTY BILL AGAIN.

It Will Come Up for Final Passage in the House on Wednesday-How the Greater Fittsburg Bills Were Corrected and Pushed Through Both Houses.

(Special Correspondence.)

HARRISBURG, May 13 .- The legislature is getting ready to adjourn. Bills are being rushed through both bodies with unprecedented haste. Speaker Walton wants to get away the latter part of next week. He insists that the calendars can be cleared by that time if the house will keep Fight at work. Mr. Walton's belief is not shared by his older and more experienced colleagues. They say it is absolutely im-possible to adjourn finally before the first week of June. If it should be decided to quit business at that time many of the bills on the calendars will have to be dropped. There is much to do from now until the close of the session. The apportionment and appropriation bills have not yet been considered. At this evening's session of the house a calendar of forty-eight appropriation bills will be read for the first time. The senate apportionment committee has not yet reported out any bills. The house committee still has up-wards of 150 on hand, which will be held back until those now on the calendar are well advanced.

May Extend the Session into June. The apportionment bills are near the bottom of the calendars. They will probably be taken up on special orders and passed with the understanding that they will be sent to a conference committee for amendment. Many of the appropriation bills will also go to a conference committee. This will cause much delay, and may extend the session far into June. Governor Hastings is insisting upon a new appor-tionment, but the members whose districts are adversely affected by the bills now under consideration are kicking and will fight hard to prevent their passage.

The house judicial apportionment bill, after having been hung up in the senato committee for more than a month, was amended and then reported out. It will be considered this week in the senate on second reading. The congressional, legislative and senatorial apportionment bills are not satisfactory to a majority of the members of both bodies, and are sure to be amended before they reach third reading. The revenue bill framed by the state tax conference will be considered on third reading tomorrow in the house. On Wednesday the bill creating the county of Quay will be called up in the house for final passage. Its friends are confident that they have enough votes to put it through this stage. On Tuesday evening the op-ponent of the Porter school bill will be given a hearing by the house municipal corporations committee.

The School Appropriation Bills,

During the week the advocates of the various bills for the distribution of the school appropriation will have a conference to try to agree on a measure satisfac-tory to all parties. The grangers are willing to agree to a bill giving each school $50 and distributing the balance of the ap-propriation on the basis of the number of taxables, as at present. By this plan Philadelphia would receive about $50,000 less than its present share of the appropriation.

The appellate court bill will be called up this week in the house for third reading and final passage by Representative Kun-kel of this city. Many other postponed bills will be called up during the week by their sponsors through fear the rules com-mittee will decide at its next meeting to the alterations were made in the build ing. The rule has been to arrange them when the house was not in session, using for that purpose a blg ladder on the inside. On Thursday evening it became necessary to close them while the house was in session, and, as the ladder could not be used from the inside, Speaker Walton notified the fire department to send a truck around for the purpose, and as the machine dashed up the hill and the big ladders were raised in front of the building the news quickly spread that the Capitol was on fire. The firemen had some difficulty in explaining the situation. and it was several hours before the excitement subsided, and the last "Where's the fire?" had been asked and answered. Speaker Walton's Gallery of Celebrities.

The resolution introduced by Representative Pomeroy for a gallery of the por-traits of all the speakers of the house recalls the fact that Speaker Walton has one of the best collections of portraits of dis-tinguished men in the country. He has been gathering it for years, and the col-lection now numbers over 500, among them being entities over 500, among them being paintings of representative men of all nations and all ages. He has practically a complete set of the sovereigns of England, Spain and other countries, besides men who have distinguished themselves in particular walks of life. His celebrities is very complete.

The house was responsible for a mild sensation in the senate on Wednesday. The constitution provides that neither house can adjourn for more than three days without the consent of the other. The necessary consent has, however, never heretofore been refused. On Wednesday the senate, having run out of work, de-cided to adjourn over until Tuesday afternoon, but to the horror of the grave and difinified body the house refused to give its consent. Subsequently, however, the house reconsidered and allowed the senators to go home.

Three Night Sessions Weekly,

The first attempt of the house to hold night sessions was a dismal failure, but with the present week they will begin in carnest, the new order of business being as follows: Monday evening session, bills on first reading; local and special bills on third reading and final passage. Tuesday morning, afternoon and evening, revenue bills on second reading; revenue bills on third reading and flual passage; house bills on third reading and final passage. Wednesday morning and afternoon, revenue bills on third reading and final passage; senate bills on third reading and final passage. Wednesday evening, appropriation bills on second reading; senate bills on third reading and final passage. Thursday morning, afternoon and evening, appropriation bills on third reading and final passage; senate bills on second reading; senate bills on third reading and final passage. Friday, senate bills on second reading.

There is quite a delegation of newspaper editors and publishers in the legis-lature, and on Tuesday evening they gave a banquet to the Legislative Correspondents' association at the Bolton House. Covers were laid for sixty, and Representative Smith, of Bedford, the chairman of the committee of arrangements, presided Speeches were made by Representative Pomeroy, the president of the Editors' and Publishers' association; Senator Brewer, Colonel Henry Hall, Representatives Fow, Salinger, Gould, Parcels and others. WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 13, 1895. Secretary Carlisle has long since ceased to notice published misrepresentations concerning himself or the Treasury department, but he had to smile when the story reached Washington that the populists were making campaign material out of the alleged alaim of Treasury officials at the purchase of gold bullion from western miners by the syndicate which purcnased the last issue of bonds. This silly story went on to say that it was the purpose of the syndicate to make a corner in gold and after the price had been forced up to make a raid on the gold in the Treasury and force another big issue of bonds to replenish it. There never was a more ridiculous story conducted upon a basis partially true. It has been well known that the syndicate mentioned has been buying gold from western miners for collection of American statesmen and the last two months, but it has also been equally well known that it was bought in order that the syndicate might live up to its contract with the government which called for the turning of so much gold into the Treasury within a certain period. There has been no alarm on the part of the Treasury officials simply because there has been nothing to be alarmed about. The reason why the gold was bought from the western miners was that the premium at which it could be bought was less than it cost to ship it from Europe, thus making its purchase over here profitable to the syndicate. The contract with the syndicate stipulates that one half the gold paid into the Treasury for the bonds shall come from Europe and the contract has up up to this time been kept to the letter. The last payments will not be due until next October.

> Ex-Senator Butler, of South Carolina, who made many warm friends during his eighteen years service in the Senate, left Washington, with his family, this week, for his home. He says he is now out of politics and does not again expect to take an active part, but those who know him best say it will be simply an impossibility to keep him quiet when there is fight-ng going on. Many shrewd observers believe that with more prosperous times there will come a radical change in the sentiments of a majority of those who now advocate the free coinage of silver because they believe almost any change must be for the better. For instance, two democrats from widely separated states-Judge Montgomery, of Mich., and Judge Berry, of Ga., who hap-pened to be in Washington this week, thus diagnosed the silver case in their respective states : Judge Montgomery said-" I think the Republicans of Michigan are fully as much divided on the silver question as the democrats. Some of the most influential men in the republican party out there are thoroughly imbued with the free silver sentiment. My own belief is that we have seen the maximum agitation on that subject. I do not think it will drop all such measures from its calendar.

Governor Hastings is disposing of the bills as fast as they reach him. He has very few under consideration. Among them is the Farr compulsory education hill, which will probably be signed tomorrow, along with the other bills not yet acted upon. On Wednesday a meeting of the board of pardons will be held for the consideration of a number of cases which have been pending for several months. Rushing the "Greater Fittsburg" Bills.

A feat in legislation which has probably never been equaled before was accomplished on Wednesday afternoon last by those two tireless Pittsburgers, Chris Ma-gee and Senator "Billy" Flinn. The three bills which were required to make the "greater Pittsburg" a possibility were in the governor's hands, but at the last moment a flaw was discovered in one of them. It was merely technical, but the bill could not become a law until it was corrected, and the two big hustlers were anxious to have everything completed before the evening of the same day, when the passage of the bills was to be celebrated with a mammoth banquet to the members of the legislature and others.

The amount of red tape would have discouraged almost anybody else. First a joint resolution was passed by both the senate and the house recalling the bill from the governor. As the governor had to sign the resolution, the senate took a recess for an hour. At the end of that time Private Secretary Beitler appeared with the announcement that the resolution had been approved, and returned the bill. It was then amended, but another recess of the senate was necessary to permit the bill to be printed. At 5 o'clock the senate again reconvened, passed the bill finally, and it then had to go to the house for concur-rence. It was then engrossed, and just at 7 o'clock, as the members were taking their places at the banqueting board, Governor Aastings affixed his signature to the bill, which practically assures the formation of the western Pennsylvania metropolis.

Mr. McGaughey's Sarcasm.

After the resolution of Mr. Focht, of Union county, on the Nicaraguan question, and the resolution of sympathy with Onban revolutionists had passed the house on Thursday evening Representative Mo-Gaughey introduced the fellowing: Whereas, Cuba is now engaged in an unequal contest for liberty, and, whereas, the fool killer is still at large; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the logislature of Pena-sylvania enlist with the Cuban patriots in a body.

Before the resolution could be introduced, however, the time for original resolutions had passed, and it had to be held over until this week.

During the summer weather of last week considerable difficulty was experiwindows in the house, no provision for handling them having been made when

Found a Dead Baby in a Store Box.

HAZLETON, Pa., May 13.-While at work in the Catholic cemetery at Beaver Meadow, Cormac McGreary and Martin Mulligan came unexpectedly across a small store box containing the body of a male child about 8 months old. An effort had been made to conceal the box in the underbrush. Last Tuesday evening a oarriage was seen to stop before the grave-yard, and a woman alighted carrying a bundle. As this was not a very unusual proceeding, no particular attention was paid to it at the time.

Murder and Suicide Through Jealousy.

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.-August Tapper, 36 years old, a pocketbook maker, shot and killed Clara Arnholdt, alias Smith, aged 26, on the sidewalk of 416 North Seventh street, and then killed himself. Tapper, who was a married man, had been a lover of the Arnholdt woman for some time, and it is supposed he killed her because she had tired of his attentions. Tapper's wife refused to allow the body of the murderer to be taken into his late home, and it was carried to the morgue.

Fell Dead at the Throttle.

EASTON, Pa., May 11 .- While his train was running at strapid rate on the Central Railroad of New Jersey, Engineer Isaac Miller was attacked with paralysis, with his hand on the engine throttle. He dropped to his knees beside the boiler and was dead in an instant. The fireman ran the train to Bioomsbury, and the remains were left there. Miller was one of the oldest engineers in the employ of the com-pany. He resided at Phillipsburg, N. J.

PITTSBURG, May 13 .- On Saturday the Delaney brothers, convicted in the criminal court on the charge of conspiracy in connection with the discretionary pool op-erations conducted by W. F. Delanoy & Co., were called up for sentence. Charles Delaney was sentenced to nine months in the county workhouse, and Henry Delaney to five days in the county jail.

Rented a Wonse for Immoral Porposes. WILKESBARRS, Pa., May 13.-Mrs. Eliz aboth Stewart was fined $1,000 for renting a house for immoral purposes. One hun-dred days ago she was warned not to allow disreputable people to live at the house, but paid no attention to the wara-

the great parties to make any declaration as to silver coinage, affirmatively or negatively." Judge Berry says " It looks to me as though a great portion of the southern people had gone crazy on silver. I guess they will get over it in time and will wake up some day to a realization of the folly of such a policy. Of all the people in the U.S. the southerners ought to stand most inflexibly in favor of a sound currency. They don't mine an ounce of silver and their chief product, cotton, is valued on a gold basis on the other side of the Atlantic. At present the silverites are howling with the same fervor that the desciples of the old greenback doctrine displayed, but a year from now under the quieting influence of better times their ardor may be abated and the movement may die out as completely as the fiat money craze did.'

The completed model of the eques trian statue of Gen Winfield Scott Hancock was exhibited to day to a number of prominent people, in the studio of Mr. H. J. Ellicott, the sculptor selected by the Commissioner charged by Congress with the duty of superintending the making and erection of the statue. The model made an excellent impression on those who saw it, the likeness in face and figure of Gen. Hancock being specially commented upon. President Cleveland is uncertain as to when he will leave Washington for the summer. He would like to go to Gray Gables when Mrs. Cleveland and the children go, which will be in the neighborhood of the first of June, but it will depend entirely upon circumstances whether he does.

Secretary Gresham has so far recovered from his recent illness that he is going away for a short rest. Things in his department are all in good shape, notwithstanding the many republican predictions of the serious trouble which was certain to result from some of the recent complications with foreign governments.
