HARRISBURG LETTER.

The Arrest of Legislators the Sonsation of the Day.

DESERTED THEIR POSTS OF DUTY.

As a Result They May Re Obliged to Pay the Expenses of Their Arrest by the Sergeant-at-Arms and His Deputies.

(Special Correspondence.)

HARRISBURG, May 20 .- There is nothing left for the lawmakers to do but work if they expect to got away by June 6. The house calendar is crowded with bills, many of which will be dropped to save time and hasten the final adjournment. The senate continues to move along in that leisurely manner which has characterized its proceedings all through the ses-sion. The calendar is clear of sonate bills and crowded with house measures on final The latter number about 200, and will have to be disposed of before the representatives will agree to adjourn.

The greatest interest centres in the house proceedings. Aside from the affair of to-night, when members will be brought up for contempt, there will be much business of general importance to transact. To-morrow will be the busiest day, the first order being the consideration, on third reading, of the congressional, legis-lative and senatorial apportionment bills. Judging from the unanimity with which these measures passed second reading they will pass the final stage by a comfortable majority. The representatives from counties which lose in representation by the apportionment will oppose the measure. They are, however, in the minority, and their only hope is in the senate or a conference committee.

The apportionment bills out of the way, the house will turn its attention to the Smith school bill, which distributes the appropriation by scattering one third according to the number of teachers actually employed for a full term and the balance on the basis of the number of taxables. Mr. Smith has served notice that he will call the bill up tomorrow morning. The opposition to his proposition is too strong to overcome, and for this reason the member from Bedford will try to change the bill to meet all objections. This will not be an easy task. What suits the rural members does not satisfy the "city chaps,"

Should there be a full house on Wednesday, when the order of business will be senate bills on third reading, the Quay county bill will be called up for final pas-sage. The boomers of the new county have more than enough pledges to assure the passage of the bill. Their only trouble has been to get its friends here at one

There will be trouble if the supporters of the elections committee in the session of 1893 endeavor to secure a reconsideration of the bills making extravagant appropriations to pay the expenses of the members and officers of the committee in the investigation of the election contests decided by the last house. There are three of these bills, and all of them have been

The bill creating an appellate court will also be called during the week by Repre-sentative Kunkel. This measure has gone through the senate and is on the house calendar among the postponed bills for third reading. Mr. Kunkel believes he can pass it with a full house, notwithstanding the fierce opposition of the rural mem-

The appropriation bills are being gotten out of the way as fast as they come from committee. About forty have passed finally, and there are seventy on the calendar for second reading. These will all be disposed of this week, so that the general appropriation bill may have a clear track. Chairman Marshall is working on the bill and hopes to have it in shape to bring out this week. He stayed over in the city Saturday and Sunday to work on the bill. The various departments of state have submitted their items for the next two years. Mr. Marshall is not waiting on the chief clerks of the senate and house to get their figures in shape.

The bill will be reported with the school appropriation reduced to $10,000,000. This is absolutely necessary if the state charities are to be given a show. Chairman Marshall has figured very closely, and sees no way out of the difficulty but to reduce the school appropriation. The institutions dependent entirely upon the state will require $3,595,593. This includes the indigent insane, National Guard, penitontiaries and state hospitals. The institution for the blind, deaf and dumb and feeble minded must have $847,434.50, and the private institutions dependent partly upon the state require $704,609 to keep them going the next two years. Bills making these appropriations have been reported out of committee, and many have passed

The sergeant at arms of the house and his assistants on Friday night last were traveling all over the state with warrants for the arrest of seventy-four members who must be brought before the bar of the house this evening and purge themselves of contempt. The whole trouble arose over the tendency of the members to go home on Thursday evenings and neglect the Friday session, without first obtaining the neces sary leave of absence from the house. With the near approach of the end of the session work must be pushed, and a sharp lesson was needed to make the members attend to their duties. It was the first time since the session of 1889 that the speaker was compelled to send the sergeant-at-arms after absent members; but even then it was not found necessary to issue a warrant for the absentees, as enough members were found in Harrisburg to make up the quorum. On Friday, however, the full powers of the house were exhausted without securing a quorum, and the speaker was compelled to adjourn the house and issue his warrant for all those who were absent without leave. When the speaker rapped the house to order there were not more than about seventy-five members in their sents, and the session was not fifteen minutes old when a call was narrowly averted. Representative Martin offered a resolution fixing a special order for the Fritz bill to change the method of apportioning the state appropriation among the various school districts. By the change Philadelphia would lose nearly $100,000, and Representative Stewart promptly gave notice that he would demand the year and nays. As there was clearly not a quorum in the house at the time, Mr. Martin finally con-sented to withdraw his resolution. The members had, however, not completed their sigh of relief when Representative in progress.

Riter caused renewed apprehension by giving notice that he would demand the yeas and mays on the bill imposing a tax on beer, and there was an immediate scurrying around to look after absentees. So successful were they in this that when, a short time later, Representative Cochrane called for the yeas and mays on the bill imposing a tax of 4 mills on the value of bank stock, 117 members, 14 more than a quorum, answered to their names. When the vote was taken on the beer bill a bare quorum voted, and then, supposing all danger at an end, a number of members left to take the 11.40 train to Phila

The train had hardly left, however, when senate bills on second reading were reached and Representative Peltz moved to take up from the postponed list the Grady antipool selling bill. On this motion the yeas and nays were again demanded, and the vote showed 77 in favor and 18 against, a total of 95, or eight less than a quorum.

Then the trouble began. Speaker Wal-ton ordered all strangers out of the house and the doors were locked. The roll was then called and showed ninety-five members present. Sergeant-at-Arms Shoener was called to the bar of the house and instructed to go out and arrest all the members he could find and bring them before

The first member brought in was Representative Patchin, of Clearfield, but as he explained that he had just stepped out for a moment as the doors were closed, he was excused. Subsequently, when it was shown that Patchin had been present and voted on the main question, he was noti-fled that he had not been in contempt.

J. Ross Raymond, of Erie, was the next one brought in, but he explained that having been suddenly called to Philadelphia Thursday night, he had missed the morning train and had just arrived, and was Representatives Woodring of Northampton, Tilbrook of Allegheny and West of Berks were brought in in the order named, but as they had good reasons they were excused.

There were still only 100 members present, and after waiting for over an hour the sergeant-at-arms explained that he had searched all the depots and hotels, but had been unable to find any more members. Of the 104 who were still absent the record showed that twenty-nine had been granted leave of absence. For the others Speaker Walton made out a warrant of arrest, which he gave to the sergeant-at-arms, and then adjourned the house until Monday evening.

The members in contempt of the house are: Messrs, Ames, Anderson, Andrews, Clark T. Baldwin, Biddle, Bolard, Bolles, Comly, Cruise, Dambly, De Velin, Dixon, Douthet, Eby, Ellis, Farr, Fredericks, Garvin, Goentner, Gransback, Griner, Heldelback, Merrmann, M. Hershey, Hopwood, Hunter, Jennings, Keen, Kerr, King, Kinner, Luden, John H. Marshall, Mast, Millard, Frank N. Moore, Linus W. Moore, Muchibronner, McLane, McFarlane, Nickel, Page, Pascoe, D. Hunter Patterson, James Patterson, John K. Patterson, Pennewill, Pomeroy, Porter, Pritchard, Raven, Reeves, Rice, Ritchey, Butter, Schulik Scarce, Smith W. M. Rutter, Schrink, Scanor, Smiley, W. O. Smith, Snively, Spangler, Tiffany, Under-wood, Varc, Wanamacher, Weibel, Weiliver, Weyand, Williams, Hugh J. Wilson, John S. Wilson, Matthew M. Wilson, Zehnder and Curtis.

The affair has created considerable excitement among the members who remained, and there is talk of inflicting some severe penalties as examples. The house has absolute power in the matter and can inflict heavy fines or even expel a member. As the arrest of the seventy-four members will inflict a heavy expense on the state in the way of the sergeant-atarms' fees and mileage, there is some talk of compelling the absent members to foot the bill in the way of fines. #### Trolley Car Fell with a Bridge.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., May 20.-A bridge on the Philadelphia and Reading pike crossing the Trenton cut off railroad in Ply mouth township, fell Saturday afternoon, carrying down with it summer car No. 16 of the Schuylkill Valley Traction com-pany, crossing at the time. The bridge, a temporary wooden structure, was seventy two feet long and thirty feet high. The car contained the fatal number thirteen persons, but owing to some fortunate circumstance no one was killed, and only five were seriously injured.

Recovered $1,200 for Fatal Injuries. HARRISBURG, May 20. — In February, 1894, as a merry sleighing party from this city was returning home, on their way through Steelton a car of the Citizens line struck the sleigh and overturned it. Several of the party were injured, and one of them, William Mehaffle, died some time afterward. It was claimed that his death resulted from his injuries, and his father brought suit against the Citizens' company for $10,000 damages. The jury Saturday night brought in a verdict of $1,200 for the father.

An Old Couple Chloroformed and Robbed. Johnstown, Pa., May 20.-Word was received in this city of a daring robbery which took place at the residence of Hiram Hoffman, near Davidsvine, While Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, both of whom are advanced in years, were sleeping, two men entered the house by raising the window, and after chloroform ing the couple ransacked the house and succeeded in obtaining about $600 in money and securities.

Burglars Held for Trial. LANCASTER, Pa., May 20.—Two robbers, George Williams and John Green, who tied the family of Abous C. Mylin, near Willow street, last week and robbed the premises, were given a hearing by Alderman Halbach and committed for trial on various charges. Williams, who claimed to be from Philadelphia, was identified as Daniel Landis, a former back driver of this city. The men will probably be tried at the June term.

Bank Examiner Causes Arrests.

HARRISBURG, May 20.-Joseph E. Raymond, one of the receivers of the Raymond and Campbell Manufacturing com pany, and Joseph Campbell, one of the directors of the defunct Middletown bank, were arrested on information furnished by Special Bank Examiner B. E. Thompson, who has been making an examination of the institution for the past couple of weeks. They were held in $5,000 bail each.

Two Bodies Buried in a Culm Bank. HAZLETON, Pa., May 20 .- Great excite ment was created at Honey Brook when a party of workmen employed carrying away the old culm banks unearthed two coffins in which bodies had been buried. The boxes were of rude construction, were placed side by side, and must have been there several years. An investigation is

WASHINGTON.

Prom our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, May 17, 1895. Secretary Lamont took a turn at wrestling with the regular weekly cabinet resignation rumor this time, and he took a fall without half trying. This rumor, which came by telegraph all the way from Ohio, gave ex Con-gressman Outhwaite as Secretary La-monts's successor. There isn't the slightest doubt that Mr. Outhwaite would make a good Secretary of War. but inasmuch as Dan Lamont is now giving satisfaction in that position and has no idea of retiring until March 4, 1897, the rumored change must be packed away with its long list of too previous successors.

Ex-Speaker Crisp was in Washington this week. He has been resting since the adjournment of Congress and looks better than he has for several years. He is decidedly opposed to the plan of fighting the Presidential campaign a year ahead of time, and thinks much ammunition is being wasted by democrats in various

The statement is very positively made, and generally believed, that the decision of the Supreme Court, which will be handed down next week, will declare the entire income tax to be unconstitutional.

The peculiar stand taken by the Fitish government, in refusing to reenact the regulations in force last year to prevent illegal sealing in Bearing Sea, is harshly criticized. It is a practical nullification of all the measures for the protection of the seals which were agreed upon at the Paris arbitration, and may result in the United States officially declaring the treaty abrogated. The action of the British government is apparently entirely in the interest of the Canadian pelagic sealers, and will result it the extermination of the seals, unless some way of stopping the killing can be devised by this government.

Hon. Samuel L. Rogers, who has just been appointed Collector of internal revenue for the Fifth district of North Carolina, and who is regarded as authority on the politics of his state, is in Washington. Speaking of the situation he said: " North Carolina, despite the revolution of last November, is still a democratic state, and democrats will regain its control within the next two years. The coalition between the republicans and populists will be short-lived. Already they are tiring of the fusion compact, and though it may hold together for one more campaign, that will be the end of it. It doesn't take any prophet to tell that the combination, in the very nature of things, couldn't be permanent. A few sore-headed democrats who have gone over to the fusion side in the hope of spoils, will be kicking themselves ere many days go by for deserting their party, for they will find that the fellows they deserted to will be empty-handed themselves."

Everybody is glad that President Cleveland decided not to court mar-tial Admiral Meade for his recent very indiscreet remarks in a printed newspaper interview. That he was guilty of a serious infraction of the naval regulations, one for which a younger officer would have deserved severe punishment, there is no doubt. But the Admiral had grown old in the service, is hightempered, and has a disordered liver which makes him see things to worry him in incidents that others would never notice; therefore everybody is glad that he will escape with a reprimand, and on every hand is heard the wish that Secretary Herbert will make that as light as possible.

Ex-Speaker Reed was in Washington this week. He tried to keep his visit secret, and having failed in that said he was only paying a visit to his friend, Congressman Hitt, of Ill., who has been quite sick for several weeks. Mr. Reed did not say what other objects he had in view, but there are indications that some of them will not be pleasant to certain republican Congressmen, who, believing themselves slated for choice committee positions under the next House, have been conspiring against Mr. Reed's boom for his party's Presidential nomination. The big man from Maine heard about the conspiracies, and there are reasons for the belief that the Congressional conspirators will not fare well when Mr. Reed makes up the committees of the House. He hasn't the reputation of turning the other cheek to those who smite him. On the contrary, he smites back every time, and he is a hard hitter, too. It is said that he found his Presidential boom in a very dangerous condition, and that he may announce his withdrawal from the race, in order to throw all his strength to some man who can be certain of beating Harrison, who is the one man that Reed will do almost anything to keep out of the nomination. The feud between him and Harrison is an old one, dating away back to the early part of Harrison's administration.

What Dr. MacTaggart

HAS DONE AND IS DOING.

The Doctor wishes the public to understand that he is not soliciting the ordinary run of cases, but desires just such discuses to treat that other physicians cannot succeed with or at least fall to cure. When you suffer from such consealt that other physicians cannot succeed with or at least fall to cure. When you suffer from such consealt that course, when you suffer from such consealt that course when he such as fact which he tells you can be relied upon as a fact beyond refutation. Some may say, "Why go to Br. MacTaggart when we have as good doctors here as anywhere?" Yes, so you have in their line of practice, but not in these specialties that Dr. MacTaggart is schooled and practiced in. In support of this unqualified assertion read his testimonials—not only read them, but investigate the truthfulness of them. Where are the physicians who can remove cancers without pean and cure it beyond peradventure? He does it. Where can you find another physician in Pennsylvania who can remove tumors of even 65 pounds weight without the use of the knife, without pain, and without leaving a scar? Dr. MacTaggart does it. What physician can cure fistulas without cutting or causing the least pain or soceness during treatment? Dr. MacTaggart does it successfully. These are golden truths—poiden because it proves beyond dispute that the science of medicine in specialities particularly, is advancing with rapid strides far in the lead of the regular practioner.
