THE OOLIMA'S LOST GOLD.

FULLY $160,000 KNOWN TO HAVE BEEN ON THE STEAMSHIP.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. June 2.

The lost Pacific Mail steamship Colima had on board $160,000 of treasure, shipped to Mazatlan from the house of the Melchers, Echegueven & Co. It is insured in London and Germany.

Until the depth of the water in which the steamer went down was positively known two diving plants and two steamers belonging to Hidalgo & Co. and the Cornego Company, of La Paz, were kept waiting to attempt the recovery of this treasure.

Third Officer Hansen, of the ill-fated vessel sends some gruesome details of the disaster. The heaviest squall of all those experienced came after the steamer had foundered and while passengers and crew were struggling in the water. The force of the gale at this time was dreadful. Many were washed from the wreckage to which they clung. Some were killed or rendered unconscious by being struck by timbers, which were dashed about with resistless fury. Rafts and boats were overturned. Had it not been for this squall many more would undoubtedly have been saved.

The gale drove rafts and wreckage before it with great rapidity. Mr. Hansen saw a raft pass at 6.30 P. M. on the day of the disaster. On it were three men. They drifted away fast and were soon lost to view. He also saw a raft on which were Mr. Chilberg and six others. These men had two oars and seemed to be making for shore. Mr. Hansen also saw a boat in which was First Officer Griffiths and four or five men. When last seen this boat was trying to pick up the purser, but it was not seen again, and is supposed to have been swamped in the heavy sea.

Sutherland and Hansen both tell harrowing stories of the misery they witnessed while keeping themselves afloat. Many bodies which floated past them were entirely nude. Either the clothing had been torn off by the fury of the wind and waves or the victims had been too ill or too terrified to leave their beds until the last, and had then rushed upon deck clad only in their chamber robes. Apparently the children were all drowned in the cabins.

COLLARS AND CUFFS that are waterproof. Never wilt and not effected by moisture. Clean, neat and durable. When soiled simply wipe off with a wet cloth. These house bills passed with amendments and were returned to the house for concurrence: Requiring tax collectors to give a number of tax receipts from a book to be furnished by the county commissioners, containing a correspondingly numbered stub and requiring sheet setting forth name, amount of tax paid and number of receipt to be sent ten days before each election to the county commissioners for public inspection; authorizing companies incorporated under the laws of any other state for the manufacture of glue or any other articles of commerce or material which may be manufactured from the waste products of tanneries or slaughter houses or for the manufacture of any kind of acids or other chemicals therefrom to erect and maintain buildings and manufacturing establishments and to hold real estate necessary therefor; to prohibit the adulteration of milk by the addition of so-called preservatives; appropriating $23,000 to the Danville hospital; providing that none but citizens of the United States shall be employed in any capacity in the erection, enlargement or improvement of any public building or public work; to return to A. CORBETT-FITZSIMMONS.

A TEXAS SYNDICATE POSTS $41,000 AND THE FIGHT WILL LIKELY COME OFF IN OCTOBER.

The New York Herald of June 2 says that there is now little doubt that the long delayed battle between James J. Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons will take place in Dallas, Texas, in the fall. "Dan" Stewart, the representative of the syndicate of Texans who have put up the money to bring off the match, arrived in this city yesterday and showed certified checks to the amount of $41,000—the size of the purse for which Fitzsimmons and Corbett are to fight. This money Mr. Stewart is prepared to post with the stakeholder at a moment's notice, as a guarantee that the event be decided in the Lone Star State and that every contract made by him will be faithfully carried out. According to Mr. Stewart there is no law in Texas that will in any way prevent the meeting. "The contest," said Mr. Stewart last evening, "will be scheduled for decision in the second or fourth week in October."

Abner Welsh Says:

that after suffering for years of a distressing rupture he was COMPLETELY CURED by Dr. O'Malley in eight weekly treatments and has discarded his truss for which he has no further use. Mr. Welsh is superintendent of the Jackson & Woodin Car Works at Berwick, Pa., and his work is worth something to many sufferers. He was not detained from his business while under treatment, save the time taken in coming to Wilkes-Barre once a week. This is an entirely new method of treatment. No knife, no operation and no pay unless cured. Hundreds of other testimonials may be seen at my office.
