The Williamsport Sun thinks that "almost every county in the state is liable to be cut in two now that the legislature has set the precedent by forming a new county to please the boss who owns the legislature. Lycoming county need not expect to escape, and in a few years we may expect to see a new county formed of parts of Lycoming and Clinton, with Jersey Shore as the county seat."

When the editor of the Philadelphia Press speaks in contemptuous terms of such a man as CHARLES R. BUCKALEW, he shows his ignorance of not only a great Pennsylvanian but of one of the country's greatest statesmen, remarks the Harrisburg Independent. He is the nearest approach to ALBERT GALLATIN of any man living to-day. The Press editor should shake off some of his New York and Yankee ideas and get to know something of the history of Pennsylvania before he attempts to belittle the reputation of one of its most distinguished sons.

The President has issued the following proclamation:

WHEREAS, the Island of Cuba is now the seat of serious civil disturbances, accompanied by armed resistance to the authority of the established government of Spain, a power with which the United States are and desire to remain on terms of peace and amity; and

WHEREAS, the laws of the United States prohibit their citizens, as well as all others, being within and subject to their jurisdiction, from taking part in such disturbances adversely to such established government by accepting or exercising commissions for warlike service against it, by enlistment or procuring others to enlist for such service, by fitting out armed or procuring to be fitted out armed ships of war for such service, by augmenting the force of any ship of war engaged in such service and arriving in a port of the United States and by setting on foot or providing or preparing the means for military enterprises to be carried on from the United States against the territory of such government;

Now, therefore in recognition of the laws aforesaid and in discharge of the obligations of the United States towards a friendly power and as a measure of precaution and to the end that citizens of the United States and all others within its jurisdiction may be deterred from subjecting themselves to legal forfeitures and penalties,

I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States of America, do hereby admonish all such citizens and other persons to abstain from every violation of the laws hereinbefore referred to and do hereby warn them that all violations of such laws will be rigorously prosecuted; and I do hereby enjoin upon all officers of the United States charged with the execution of said laws the utmost diligence in preventing violations thereof and in bringing to trial and punishment any offenders against the same.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 12th day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and nineteenth.

(Signed) GROVER CLEVELAND,
 By the President.

FIVE MORE JUDGES.

GOVERNOR HASTINGS APPROVES THE JUDICIAL APPOINTMENT BILL.

The judicial apportionment bill passed in the closing hours of the recent legislature has been approved by Governor Hastings. The measure creates five new judges and goes into effect at once.

Under the new apportionment Washington and Westmoreland each get an additional law judge, Centre is detached from Huntingdon and made a separate district, Huntingdon is tacked on to Mifflin to form a district and Jefferson is detached from Clarion so as to make each county a separate district. These are the only changes in the apportionment of 1883.

BILLS MARKED FOR VETO.

LEGISLATURE REFUSED TO HEED THE GOVERNORS WARNING IN THE MATTER OF APPROPRIATIONS—THREE MILLIONS TO BE LOOSED OFF SOMEWHERE—HASTINGS RETURNS HOME FROM THE SEASHORE.

Governor Hastings will have his hands full during the next three weeks with the legislation left with him by the recent legislature. He has 468 bills to dispose of, or 100 more than the entire number approved by Governor Pattison two years ago. Half of the bills awaiting the governor's action are appropriation measures, the aggregate amount being about $23,000,000.

Private Secretary Beidler and Executive Clerk Harris have prepared for the use of the governor a chart of the appropriation bills which tells at a glance whether any bill is a senate or house measure, its number, subject and amount. The chart shows that the senate appropriation bills yet on hand include $28,000 for miscellaneous appropriations, or a total of senate bills of $77,091. Of the house bills in hand those of a miscellaneous character, including the general appropriation bill, appropriate $15,584,535.18; for institutions partly dependent on the state, $1,938,171.23; institutions wholly dependent on the state, $4,951,753.60; gratuities, $1,056,55; pensions, $1,392; annuities, $1,160, or a total of house bills of $22,501,668.56, and a joint total of house and senate yet to be acted upon of $22,578,759.50.

During the session the governor approved bills appropriating in the aggregate $152,581.49 to institutions wholly dependent upon the state; pensions and gratuities, $576, and miscellaneous, $152,581.49, or a total of $22,749,149.99, or almost $3,000,000 more than the state revenues.

Early in the session the governor sent a message to the legislature urging it to go slowly in the matter of appropriations and stating that the revenues for the next two years could not exceed $20,000,000. The legislators did not heed the executive warning and the result will be that a cut of $5,000,000 will be made by the governor in the appropriations. The state institutions will be taken care of first and then the most worthy of the charitable institutions dependent partly upon the state will be considered. The lopping off of $5,000,000 means that many local charitable institutions and many institutions that barely live through the year with the little state has heretofore given them will suffer severely.

The governor will hardly give much attention to their disposal this week. To-day and to-morrow he will hear delegations for and against the Woods water bill and the Quay county bill, and on Wednesday he will go to Johnstown to appear in a suit for libel against ex-District Attorney O'Connor for remarks made by him while he was a candidate relative to the operations of the governor while he had charge of affairs there after the Johnstown flood. Saturday is taken up with an engagement in Philadelphia, so that he will hardly get down to the real work of examining bills before June 24, and will have until July 8 to finish them up.—Patriot.

American Extravagance.

The American thinks it a fine thing to be pound-foolish, and a mean thing to be penny-wise. He lacks patience also; he loses courage over any plan or scheme that requires years to perfect, such as mapping out his life and saying, "I am now grown and educated; in five years I will do this, in five more that, in ten more something else," as the European does. He does not say, "In ten years I shall have paid all my father's debts; I shall then marry; in ten more I shall have laid by for my wife and children five, ten, twenty, fifty, a hundred thousand dollars, shall have bought this or that place for myself, this or that business for my son." The American's mind is so full of large and splendid possibilities that he comes to regard them as probabilities and to scorn the day of small things, the patient processes and careful economies by which important results are more often achieved than in any other way. Every American expects to succeed; every European looks to it that he shall not fail ignominiously in the race of life. He handicaps himself, he will give so much time, youth, money, to win such and such a result. He will not marry too young or foolishly, knowing that ruin a deux is all that awaits him. He takes long views, and makes careful plans, not leaving much to chance or accident, unlike the American, who is always waiting, Micawber-wise, for the splendid chance that is to make his fortune, the "something to turn up" that is to revolutionize all his future. The turn in the tide that is to lead on to victory—though as often as not it strands him on the beach of adversity, old age, and failure.—Frances Courtenay Baylor, in July Lippincott's.

CENTRALIA CAFE-IN.

TWO MEN BURIED TO THE WAIST WHILE WORKING ON THE NEW WATER MAIN—BOTH BRUISED.

An accident that might have resulted fatally occurred on the 14th, about 2:40 o'clock at Centralia. A new water main is being built through the borough, upon which Samuel Miller and Robert White were working, when the earth and rock gave away and buried the two men to their waist. The dirt was quickly removed, the men released and Dr. Millard summoned from Mt. Carmel. The two men were badly bruised about the body and it was at first thought that Miller was injured internally, but an examination by the Doctor dispelled the thought. The accident occasioned a good deal of excitement for a while.

Forest Fires Raging.

TWO HUNDRED MEN FIGHTING THE FLAMES—COMMUNICATION CUT OFF.

BRADFORD, June 16.—Forest fires between Mount Jewett and Riterville have destroyed a vast amount of wood and timber owned by F. K. Kane. The conflagration is in the centre of the Riterville oil district, but at the time of receiving the last report from that vicinity no oil well rigs had been destroyed.

Wires are down and all telegraphic communication has been cut off. A force of 200 men have been fighting the fires since yesterday afternoon and it is thought they are under control to-night.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

No mistakes to acknowledge. No blunders to correct. They come from the very best mills in America and Europe. They are stylish, seasonable, and in every way splendid fabrics. Wouldn't be on our counters if they were not. We will let you say how much more they are worth. Prices range from 50c. to $1.75.

UNDERWEAR.

We mean muslin underwear just now in particular. All correctly made, well made, and made of good material. We have never sold as much as now. We are out of one kind just now, but only for a day or two; have it coming as fast as we can. Can't be equaled in town for the prices, as the make up is the very best. Some go for 28c., others higher.

PLISSE.

Just new this season. Oh, how lovely. Nothing cooler or more stylish. Just the thing for these hot summer days that are coming. We have it in all kinds of designs. Light and dark back grounds. Some have the waves in the stripe, others in the body. They all go for 15c. the yard.

DUCKS.

There is nothing more stylish or neater looking than duck suits. Every one wants one for this summer. Dark blue back ground, with white stripe is one. Can you imagine anything prettier? Lots of others, especially the linen colored duck. All just the thing at 12½c.

DOTTED SWISS.

These are being shown and are going to be worn more than ever this year. We have them in plain, and also with the flouncing around the bottom, insertion four inches from the flouncing, full skirt length, all different designs, at $1.00, $1.20, $1.40. Children's at less than half of some of these.

SHOES.

Do you know that we are now carrying the most complete line of anyone in town? Why? Because we never do anything by halves. We can show you more value and style for your money than anywhere else. A full Russia leather tan shoe for $2.25.
