

OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND ON THE SILVER QUESTION.

A Curious Ecclesiastical Expression on the Subject—Project for Beautifying the Lake Front—A New "White City" to be Built.

Special Chicago Letter.

The hotbed of the free silver movement has experienced an undoubted chill during the past week.

Archbishop Ireland is popularly supposed to be a Republican. His diocese is the granary of the United States.

The study provides for five large buildings. In the center of the park, facing Congress street, there is provision for a permanent museum.

out of what seems to have been the mere mist of a glorious vision.

Plans for the rehabilitation of the lake front into a scene of incomparable beauty are already on file in the office of D. H. Burnham.

Fred Law Olmsted Landscape Architect.

Fair builder. What the exposition was to Jackson Park three plans are to the lake front.

Two marked features of the scheme are splendid parade grounds, one to the north and one to the south of the park.

The present silver agitation might check the period of prosperity which it seems about setting in for us.

Without entering into the merits of the difficult and intricate questions involved in a discussion of the silver phase or craze, I would say that, so long as there is no international agreement between the great governments of the world.

This, John Brown said, and they settled the problem for the time by hanging him.

The Latest.

A woman well known among society people recently astonished her friends by appearing in public wearing three solid gold rings on the third finger of her right hand.

Estimated His Value.

Some time ago the Prince of Wales visited a factory where a great number of men were employed.

Bill Nye is a man of very sober demeanor, and rarely cracks jokes outside of newspaper columns.

WOMAN AND HER WAYS.

Queen Victoria has signed the bill making full woman suffrage in South Australia an accomplished fact.

Queen Victoria has signed the bill making full woman suffrage in South Australia an accomplished fact.

The population of the world averages 100 women to every 100 men.

Women are gradually winning recognition in China. Twenty years ago you could buy a good sort of a wife for $25.

It is the custom among the Eskimo for the women to gather the wood, make the fire, and do the cooking.

Gladstone said recently that he was too old to have an opinion on the new woman. His "ideal woman had not altered in the last three score years or ten."

The Empress of Japan is so liberal in her aims-giving that, it is related, if it were not for the care of the chancellor of the exchequer her private allowance would all be given in this direction before the end of the first week of the first quarter.

Beatrice Harraden is visiting in San Francisco, and an Examiner reporter says "she looks like a child, with her slight figure, and her short, brown, curly hair, and her big, brown, astonished eyes—a very good little child, with nice gentle manners and a sweet voice and a wonderful amount of interest in everything she sees."

An Englishman, Mr. Ashby Sterry, is on the side of those who would do away with that time-honored institution—the honeymoon.

Du Maurier is gathering in about $1,000 a month as royalty on plays based on his story of "Tribby."

Joseph Smith, Jr., son of the Mormon prophet and one of the chiefs of the church, is a man of sixty-five, with a fine physique and an agreeable voice.

Senator Allison is emphatic in his denial of having a presidential bee buzzing in his bonnet. He will be content to be re-elected to the Senate.

Among the French men of letters who ride the bicycle are Emile Zola, Jules Lemaitre, Jean Richepin, Henri Renouvier, Octave Mirbeau and Arthur Meyer.

John B. Curtis, of Portland, Me., is one of the largest landowners in Nebraska. One of his pastures in that State is eight miles long by five wide, and is fenced in.

Lord Wolseley, whose tenure of the command-in-chief in Ireland will shortly end, has only five years of active service before him now, since he was born on June 4, 1833, and generals have to go at sixty-seven. He will thus hardly be available for any further post, short of a command in the field.

John C. S. Hancock, of Hancock, Md., who has only his left arm to shoot with, the right having been lost in a carriage accident, has killed this season with his shot gun 209 squirrels, 125 rabbits, 217 partridges, 62 pheasants, 28 wild turkeys and 35 woodcock.

It is likely that Elizabeth Cady Stanton's new Bible will show clearly that Adam picked the apple himself, and that he sometimes saw snakes.

HINTS TO BASEBALL PLAYERS.

Don't let your pitcher get too hot often.

CARRYING THE PURSE.

A Problem Which is Seriously Troubling the Fair Sex.

"How and where shall I carry my money?" is an important question to a woman who has had her pockets picked twice within a week.

The second time her pocket—one of those un-get-at-able pockets, too, in the rear region, where its unhappy possessor is forced to sit upon its contents—was ignominiously turned wrong side out.

"Pardon me, madam, but I feel constrained to tell you that I have just seen a lady's purse snatched out of her hand and the thief escape with it."

Some women have adopted the separate pocket tied around the waist, under the dress skirt, but this, of course, necessitates raising the skirt to reach the pocket, and not infrequently, by some method best known to themselves, thieves manage to ride them or remove them altogether.

However, it must be remembered that he will not undertake to treat all cases, but only those which he is positive can be cured or greatly relieved.

Advertisement for Dr. MacTaggart, featuring a portrait of a man and the text 'I AM A WORKING GIRL'.

Advertisement for Crown Acme, featuring a portrait of a woman and the text 'I have suffered terribly with bearing-down pains'.

Advertisement for Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, featuring a portrait of a man and the text 'Cleanse the Bowels and Purify the Blood'.

Advertisement for Pennyroyal Pills, featuring a portrait of a woman and the text 'Cleanse the Bowels and Purify the Blood'.

Advertisement for The Columbia Kitchen Spoon, featuring a portrait of a woman and the text 'for dipping Ice Cream, Pickings, Batter, Washed Potatoes, and anything that sticks to the bowl'.

Advertisement for Steel Roofing and Siding, featuring a portrait of a man and the text 'Lighting, Fire and Storm Proof'.

Advertisement for Dr. MacTaggart, Pennsylvania Railroad, featuring a portrait of a man and the text 'The Doctor wishes the public to understand that he is not soliciting the ordinary run of cases'.

Table with columns for various locations (e.g., Harrisburg, Bloomsburg, Sunbury) and train times.

Advertisement for People of Note, listing names and brief descriptions.

Table with columns for various locations (e.g., Harrisburg, Sunbury, Pottsville) and train times.

Table with columns for various locations (e.g., Harrisburg, Sunbury, Pottsville) and train times.

Advertisement for Reading Railroad System, featuring a portrait of a man and the text 'In effect May 12, 1905'.

Table with columns for various locations (e.g., Harrisburg, Sunbury, Pottsville) and train times.

Table with columns for various locations (e.g., Harrisburg, Sunbury, Pottsville) and train times.

Advertisement for Steel Roofing and Siding, featuring a portrait of a man and the text 'Lighting, Fire and Storm Proof'.