It is said the recent advance made in the pay of the striking woolen mill hands is equivalent to about half the reduction made in their pay in 1892.

The board of management of the next Agricultural Fair may well expect an unusual influx of big pumpkins, the season being most favorable for them. In fact an unusually fine display of vegetables of all kinds may this year be seen at the fair.

Warren Eyer and Boyd Evans rode to Liverpool and back on Sunday, a distance of one hundred miles. E. Skyles McKillip started out with them, but after making seventy three miles the heat was too great for him, and he came home Monday on the cars.

J. Frank Smith, in excavating along his property on Wyoming avenue, Forty Fort, unearthed the stone work of a cellar which seems to be a mystery. The stone work seemed well preserved and in the wall he found Indian moccasins, arrows, hatchets, and other Indian equipments. Mr. Smith prizes his find quite highly.

Although an edition of five thousand catalogues for the Normal School was printed in July, another edition of three thousand is now in press, so great has been the demand for them. The prospects are that the attendance at the school the coming year will surpass any previous year in the history of the institution.

When the heathens begin to kill missionaries, as they are now doing, it is a pretty sure sign that the missionaries are trying to do something toward their reclamation and christianization. The present environment of the heathen is no doubt very exasperating, he being to day more than ever the subject of rivalry and anxious acquisition on the part of many and various christian denominations. Feeling it to be their duty to capture him, if they can, he strikes in his mad frenzy for the personal liberty and privilege of bowing if he likes to a multiplicity of Gods made of inanimate but perceptible material. In the present as in the past important reformations are seldom effected without some sacrifice. Before the heathen is fully reclaimed many more missionaries will be killed by them, no doubt.

Among the recently captured counterfeiters in Jersey City was one by the adopted name of William Brockway, who, being past his three score and ten years, and boasting a criminal record covering a period of forty years, was therefore honored with the leadership of the notorious gang. The fault of his being at large to day rests upon those controlling the executive clemency which is too frequently shown expert and rich rascals. Twice before he was in the hands of the law for expert counterfeiting. He began upon the first issue of government bonds, was arrested, but escaped punishment.

In 1880 he was sentenced for thirty years for counterfeiting and forging government bonds, but his sentence was suspended on condition of his surrendering his plates and giving the government valuable information. In 1883 he was sent to Sing Sing for five years for forging Morris and Essex railroad bonds, and after serving his short sentence he was discharged on Aug. 4, 1887. Since then he has been free.

A Dog With Blind Stagers.

Our reporter noticed and called attention to a dog having blind stagers, on Main street, on Wednesday morning. Upon inquiry he was told it was the smaller one of the beautiful prize dogs belonging to Dr. Purman. Even temporary ailments of dogs, whether prize or worthless curs, are suspicious and dangerous when they are at large in the summer time.

Wood's Colleges Set the Pace.

Wood's Colleges in Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and Carbonale, set the pace for all the commercial schools in this country. The combined Scholarship, including the Business, Shorthand and Normal courses, at the price of one scholarship, has touched the keynote of success. It is a reciprocal plan helpful to the institution and a great bargain to the student. Prof. Wood is deserving of the great success that attends his efforts and is entitled to the business in this part of the State, as hardly another teacher in the nation would have risked a fortune in the equipment and organization of these three schools.

Advance Autumn Talk.

Gidding & Co. are making special preparation to make the season's furnishing business the largest they have ever experienced, and in order to do so it is, of course, necessary to have goods that are right up to date and in keeping with everything that is new and original. They are now sole agents for "Monarch" shirts and night robes, Earl & Wilson's collars and cuffs, "Cluett" collars and cuffs, Dent's gloves, &c. They make a specialty of fine neckwear and you can always find the newest patterns and shapes as soon as they are out. Their advance autumn styles are now on sale, and are very beautiful. They have made arrangements to have new neckwear shipped every 15 days during this season, thus giving their patrons the very latest things as soon as they are out.

"Defender"

is the name this fall's popular shaped derby or stiff hat, and it certainly does credit to the beautiful yacht after which it is named. A more artistic shape has not been introduced in recent years. It comes in black "maure," golden brown and Havana, and will no doubt have a very large sale, which it merits. J. M. Gidding & Co. are sole introducers in Bloomsburg.

Estey Organs! Estey Pianos!

BARGAINS!

BARGAINS!

Now is your time to purchase the Famous ESTY Organ and Piano.

For many years J. Saltzer has held the agency for the sale of these very reliable instruments in Columbia and Montour counties.

As an agent, he has been very successful in placing large numbers of organs, especially, in the homes of the good people of his district.

This agency, so long held by him, he has yielded, and it remains for us to continue our business relations with the people, either directly or indirectly through another agent.

At present, we propose to meet the people of this district, with whom Mr. Saltzer has been so intimately acquainted, and who have been so well and faithfully educated in regard to the merits and real value of our instruments, directly; and for a short season at least, give them the benefit of our reduced rates.

Therefore, all persons who are thinking, or who have been thinking of purchasing an organ or piano, are most cordially requested to call at our store—next door to Vanatta's paper store, Bloomsburg, Pa., and look over our stock of instruments, and get prices.

For the next thirty days we shall make special rates for cash and good notes, on our entire stock of organs and pianos.

We offer large inducements to would-be-purchasers of violins, accordians, banjos, guitars, harmonicas and jews harps—violin, banjo and guitar strings.

Also, extra large inducements to persons wishing to purchase SHEET MUSIC.

We have a large assortment of music on hand which we offer at 3 cts. per copy.

Come everybody, and see how well we can please you.

Estey & Bruce
