Candidates.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE, MORDECAI MILLARD, CENTRE TOWNSHIP.

The Governor Very Sympathetic.

Governor Hastings, recently finding nineteen Philadelphia vagrants in need of money to pay their fines before they could be released from New Castle Prison, in a jocular and sympathetic way during a casual visit, reached down in his pants and pulled up enough ducats to pay their fines and leave them again at liberty to ply to worthy young men giving them their respective want of callings. To Philadelphians now abroad taking a bath, and whose houses are not doubly locked and barred, this may not be the most cheering news; but we must give it as current news for whatever it may be worth to them and the sovereign power of this state, as well as to other vagrants at other points who may be in need of a little money to set them free. Vagrants, like flies and mosquitoes, no doubt have their use in the world, and the Governer seems to know it.

Cause and Effect.

What called the Republican party into power and gave it its waning prestige was its real or pretended sympathy with the lowly, the oppressed and the enslaved, as against those of aristocratic design who would fane luxuriate through the sweat of the brow and the extended enslavement of others. The Republican party becoming debauched with the Providential success of war and forgetting the source of the enviable prestige it gained through the aid of many Democrats as well as Republicans, got eventually so far above its business in catering to the lofty and forgetting the lowly as to be swept from power-just where they stand to-day. Democracy may, or she may not, know from this illustration on which side her bread is buttered for the future. Duty points with outstretched finger, but money beckons the other way.

Russian Warfare.

In America hot words are frequently used when we want to give somebody or something a blowing up; but the Russians prefer dynamite or giant powder. They recently raised from the earth and firm footing about 300 soldiers, along with their barracks, at Toula, Russia. Strange enough, the barracks were completely undermined and the explosion effected before the plot was detected. Many arrests have been made, but the principals of the villainous plot are yet to be brought to justice. In this country we cannot understand the remarkable success of the Russian dynamiter. He seems to be a double-dyed villain who is three times worse than the open and manly assailant who gives his victim some little chance to strike back in manly defense of his life or property.

The Revolt in Cuba.

Madrid, August 20.—General Sal cedo, who commanded the Spanish troops in the First Military district in Cuba, has returned to Spain, arriving at Corunna on the 20th. General Salcedo declares that the campaign against the insurgents in Cuba will be actively resumed in November, and that Santiago de Cuba, Ciego de Avila, and Puerto Principe will be strongly garrisoned with Spanish troops. The concensus of opinion among the Spanish officers in Cuba, he says, is that these movements, together with keeping a close watch on the coast, will put an end to the rebellion by 1896. A dispatch to the Impartial from Havana says the death sentence passed upon the rebel chief Mujiga was confirmed by the authorities, and it is understood that the sentence was executed at Matanzas yesterday.

Hit Him Again.

Chairman Gilkeson, of the Republican State Committee, replied as follows to the recent letter of Senator Quay, asking that the committee be called together to make up the roll of delegates to the State Convention : "The duty of preparing the roll has heretofore always devolved upon the State Chairman, and I am aware of no reason why a new precedent should now be established."

A good appetite and refreshing sleep are essential to health of mind and Sarsaparilla.

EX JUSTICE STRONG DEAD.

In the recent death of Judge Strong, for 15 years a member of Pennsylvania's Supreme Court and subsequently Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, the legal fraternity has lost a venerable and honorable jurist, and society a worthy and magnetic member.

His ailment was a catarrhal affection of long standing, aggravated by a re-cent fall down a flight of stairs at his home in Washington, and a more recent stroke of paralysis after reaching about it. the Lake. The catarrhal fever recurring, he was unconscious for some time before death ensued. His burial was in Reading, Pa., where he achieved his early prominence and distinction as a trustworthy and prudent counselor and eloquent advocate, and from whence he went to Congress as a Democrat on several occasions with phenomenal majorities.

In his boyhood he supported him-self by teaching school in the rural districts in Connecticut and New York, frequently carrying his few and borrowed law books with him. His early efforts were marked by the pinch of poverty which frequently has its beneficial effect in the after life, provsome true knowledge of the value of money and individual achievement.

In the death of Judge Strong society has lost another representative of our self-made men whose greatest pride lies in their high sense of personal honor, integrity and consequent achievement.

Justice Strong was a man of strong personal magnetism and a particularly good conversationalist as well as an eminent jurist and frequent contributor to the press.

GENERAL NEWS.

We suppose school-book publishe s must live also; accordingly, after a red hot fight, the Reading school board recently voted to change their text books.

Judge W. E. Biddle, of Carlisle, having not the least fear of the bribery allegations made against him, now demands a hearing at the earliest day possible. The judge don't believe, like some folks, that everything is fair in politics.

So far as the sun has a ripening effect upon fruit, the Delaware peach crop may be said to be safe this year.

After suspension of business for nearly two years the Atlantic Iron Works of Sharon, Pa., started again on the 19th instant. They run two mills and employ nearly 1,000 men.

Having an abundance of work on hand the firm of Tippett & Wood, boilermakers in Phillipsburg, recently gave their employees a voluntary increase of ten per cent. in their wages.

The National Switch and Signal Company of Easton, Pa., recently increased the number of its employees, and also increased wages 10 per cent.

Rounder-" This has been a very expensive summer for me." Sounder - I thought you sent your family away on a farm somewhere." Round er-"So I did; but I staved in town."

Agricultural fairs are now fast ripening. The Mount Gretna Fair opened on Monday to continue throughout the week. They claim for its exhibits of agricultural products, farming implements, live stock, poultry, &c., that they are this year unex-celled by any previous exhibition. This sounds kind of fair like as an attractive inducement. Then, besides, to further attract, the board of management assures the innocent public that both Governor Hastings and Senator Quay are on the program for A Warning to Bachelors Contemplating Marriage.

Dr. W. B. Mills, of New York, is in a padded cell temporarily insane. The doctor was married four weeks ago to a Philadelphia girl, and had just concluded a trip through Michigan. While waiting for his train on the 19th inst., he left his bride on the pretense of getting a shave. The train went, but the doctor did not appear, and his wife was distracted. Several hours later she found he had become insane and was locked up. She said he had taken an overdose of morphine. He will recover.

The York State Democratic Convention.

The New York State Convention will be held at Syracuse on the 24th of September. Up there it seems to be Whitney or a third term for Cleveland, with sentiment somewhat in favor of Whitney, and a general disinclination to talk much about three terms for anybody. The New York World says the State Committee which met at the Hoffman House on the 15th inst., passed harmony resolutions with a good-sized club in them; but Senator Hill was not present. body, and these are given by Hood's They seem to have their political troubles in the Empire State also.

Future Freight and Passenger Rates.

Senator Chandler is certainly a bold man in his public expression. But mission vigorously protests against the proposed agreement of the Trunk Line Association. He says their object is simply to abolish all committee to be too in formal design and the committee of radical cases sometimes and generally He died at the old age of 87 years at Lake Minnewaska, N.
