

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.
FRIDAY, AUGUST 23, 1895.

Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 1, 1888.

The commercial travelers will hold a picnic at Hess' Grove, Rupert, on Saturday.

The time for discounting County and school taxes in Greenwood Township expires August 24th, 1895.

The following is the list of unclaimed letters at the Bloomsburg post-office this week: Miss Marie Godfrey, Jas. Ray Green, Mr. Calvin Luther.

All effort to down the big but fashionable sleeve is thus far a failure. They trend too much toward the angelic or butterfly appearance to down and out at the mere bidding. The puffed up sleeve has evidently come to stay until the frilled pantalet or something else relieves it.

The following letters are advertised August 20, 1895: Mrs. Ida M. Kile, Mr. Frank Lyons, Miss Bella McCabe, Miss Della Neihart, Miss Mary Miller, Mr. J. H. Rupert, J. A. Rolhaupt, Mr. Charles Wilson. Will be sent to the dead letter office Sept. 3, 1895.

JAMES H. MERCER, P. M.

After three weeks vacation the Lutheran church resumes regular services next Sunday. The Pastor who has been sojourning in New England and Nova Scotia returned on Monday evening and will preach both morning and evening. The evening sermon will be "Gleanings by the way."

The annual Harvest Home Services under the pastorate of Rev. A. Houtz, will be held as follows: On Sunday August 25, 1895: At 10:30 A. M., and Briercreek at 2:30 P. M.; and on Sunday September 1, Zion at 10:30 A. M., St James at 2:15 P. M., and Orangeville at 7:45 P. M. The churches will be decorated, the music inspiring, and the sermon edifying. All are invited. Let every member of the church honor the occasion with a suitable offering to the God of the Harvest.

G. A. R. PICNIC AT ISLAND PARK.

LOW RATES VIA PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

For the G. A. R. Picnic, to be held at Island Park (between Sunbury and Northumberland) on Thursday, August 29, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from Pottsville, East Bloomsburg, Lock Haven, Millburg, Harrisburg, and intermediate stations to Sunbury, and return, good only on day of issue, at a single fare for the round trip (no less rate than twenty-five cents).

The Drawback on Trolley Car Profits.

Should one-half the exorbitant claims set up be granted to persons for injuries sustained by their coming into collision with electric cars, the margin of profits to the companies must necessarily be pretty large to meet these demands and pay running expenses. The exorbitant claims presented, no matter how serious or trifling the injury may have been, seem frequently to be based upon the presumption that if corporations have no souls they at least have plenty of available cash.

Aggravated But Injurious.

Molly from the seashore comes; (Not a single dime!) All her friends are at the train; "Had a royal time!" Bill for board—two hundred, cash; Husband—he rebels—"What have you to show for it?" "This here trunk of shells!" "Atlanta Constitution."

Drug envelopes, Nos. 1, 2 and 3 manilla, white or colored, coin envelopes, and shipping tags, with or without strings, always in stock at this office.

Don't Grope in the Dark.

We have bicycle lanterns from $1.00 to $5.00, bells from 25c. to $1.50, luggage carriers, whistles, cement, chain lubricant and everything a wheelman needs.

A $150 Cleveland (good as new) $80.

This is a bargain.

Call and see me and I will save you money.

DEATH FOLLOWS A STRUGGLE.

AFTER ARRESTING A MAN IN HIS STORE A CIGAR DEALER SUCCEUMS TO HEART DISEASE.

John Helb, 53 years old, a cigar dealer, whose place of business is on the southwest corner of Ridge avenue and Jefferson street, Philadelphia, died suddenly at his store, recently, from heart disease superinduced by excitement in arresting a man for being drunk and disorderly. A man considerably under the influence of liquor entered Helb's store and asked him to wrap up a bundle which he carried in his hand. Helb did not like the tone in which the request was asked, and refused to comply with the demand. This refusal greatly incensed the man, who immediately started in, it is said, to demolish the store and fixtures.

Helb seized him, however, and shouted for help. Park Guard Showaker, who was passing at the time heard the cries and assisted him to subdue the man, and they took him to the station house only a few doors away. The prisoner gave his name as William Toner, 30 years old, of 1966 Patton street, and Mr. Helb made a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct against him.

Five minutes had scarcely elapsed after this when Policeman Plummer rushed into the station house and informed Sergeant Norbury that Helb was lying dead at his residence. He reported the affair to Lieutenant Lyons, who notified the Coroner. There were many witnesses of the affair, who state positively that no blow was struck by either party during the struggle. Dr. Keim, of 2015 Ridge avenue, who was called in to attend Helb, said death was due to heart failure.

The Lower Phase of City Life—Father and Mother Drunk.

William Moran, 35 years old, of 2820 Leamy street, was seen by a policeman of the Thirtieth district on Saturday night carrying his 2-year-old child along the street. The man was too much under the influence of liquor to keep his footing and fell, dropping the baby to the pavement and bruising it about the face and body.

The policeman arrested Moran, and when the case was reported to Lieutenant Enders he detailed men to investigate it.

When they went to the address given by Moran they found his wife, Ella, also intoxicated, while playing about the neglected rooms were two other children, aged 4 and 8 years, while a 6-weeks-old infant lay crying in its cradle. The children were unkempt and neglected and were placed in charge of the Society to Protect Children from Cruelty and the mother was arrested.

Magistrate Lukens sentenced the couple to three months in the House of Correction, where the infant was sent with its mother.—Phila. Times.

The Invigorating Bicycle.

We can thank the bicycle for two things anyway, whether we can ride the pesky thing or not—it has stimulated a movement all over the country for better roads and less tacks.

And Lulu M. Smith poetically observes:

"My cheek was fast losing its color,
"My life slowly ebbing away;
"But the doctor's prescription was—
"bicycle!
"And I'm stronger and better each day."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A lot of new judgment exemption notes, with attorney's commission, and waiving everything, just printed at this office. Sold single, or in books of 25 and 50.

Joseph Ikeler of Mt. Pleasant township, died last Saturday, aged eighty-five years. Two sons and a daughter survive him.

Quart tin cans at the New York Novelty store 45 cents a dozen; Jelly cups 35c a dozen.

Rev. G. E. Weeks will preach a sermon at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning, from Psalms 17, 19. It was delivered several months ago, and is to be repeated by request. The sermon is an excellent one and we are requested to say that a general invitation is extended to all to come and hear it.

QUOIT THROWING.

The quoit tournament of the Bloomsburg Club now on the tapis for Wednesday, August 28th, promises to be an interesting and attractive game, as the participants named are those who are expert enough to throw the quoits about where they want them, provided the other fellow will let them lie there. Among entries already announced we find the names of the following expert pitchers:

Prof. L. P. Sterner, Treasurer Fowler, Surveyor Moore, Doctor Wenner, Miles Betz and M. Ellenbogen. Others will no doubt participate in the game.

Injured While Riding His Bicycle.

We are informed that the popular and affable Charles B. McHenry, of Benton, met with a very serious accident near Patterson Grove last Sunday. He is reported as falling from his bicycle while under full speed and coming down a sandy hill. Losing his equilibrium by the wheel striking a slanting rock, or rut, he fell with such force on his head and shoulders that he was unconscious for a long time. Evidently the bicycle is dangerous as well as healthful at times, as this sad accident demonstrates.

"Defender" and "Rob Roy"

decidedly the most popular hats introduced for some time, and Gidding & Co. are meeting with great success in them. The "Defender" is a derby strikingly beautiful, and is being retailed at $2, $2.50 and $3.00. "Rob Roy" is a Fedora with a combination binding which suggests beauty as well as dressiness. It is shown in six distinct colors at each price—$1.50 $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00. Gidding & Co. report the largest sales on them that they have ever experienced at this season of the year.

Lippincott's Magazine For September, 1896.

The complete novel in the September issue of Lippincott's is "A Case in Equity," by Francis Lynde. The scene is a "boom" town in the South, with the adjoining country, to which a young Northerner went in search of health, and found it and some other things.

"Morning Mists" is one of Julien Gordon's strongest tales, though it has a very mature heroine and a very young hero. Charles Newton Hood tells "How the La Rue Stakes were Lost," in a way highly creditable to the losers.

Helen Fraser Lovett, in "A Mute Milton," gives a revised version of a classic fairy tale. "The Literary Woman at the Picnic," by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, evidently contains more truth than fiction.

Charles Stuart Pratt relates the history of "Napoleon and the Regent Diamond," which was of importance to the conqueror and to the fate of Europe in more ways than one.

Ellen Duvall writes on "Moliere." Edward Fuller has a sharp article on "The Decadent Drama." Calvin Dill Wilson tells all about "Crabbing," especially as practised in Chesapeake Bay. "The Survival of Superstition" is described by Elizabeth Ferguson Seat, and the rise and progress of "Clubs" by Lawrence Irwell.

The poetry of the number is by Susie M. Best, Carrie Blake Morgan, Clarence Hawkes, and Charles G. D. Roberts.

The Immortal Shakespeare at the Opera House.

Charles B. Hanford, Elihu R. Spencer and Nora O'Brien, the triple star Shakespearean Company, will appear at the Opera House early in the season. It is expected that this engagement will prove an intellectual treat to all lovers of Shakespearean dramas. Mr. Hanford produced the play of Julius Caesar two years ago in a very sumptuous manner and received the highest praise for the production and the acting which was of a very high standard. Manager W. O. Holmes has selected for the appearance of the Company this season Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet which will be presented with Mr. Hanford as Mercutio, Mr. Spencer as Romeo, and the part of Juliet will be assumed by Miss O'Brien. New and superb scenery, magnificent in its proportions, will be in the presentation of the play, which is carried complete by the company, and a most perfect scenic production of the play is promised. All during the past Spring and Summer Mr. Hanford had artists and carpenters at work preparing for this tour new and historically correct costumes as well as scenery for each play of their repertoire which includes Merchant of Venice, Othello, Julius Caesar, Romeo and Juliet, Damon and Pythias, Virginius and the Hunchback. They will appear at the Bloomsburg Opera House Monday Oct. 7th.

THE "GOLF" JAP

has come to stay, judging from the friends it has made. Nearly every one has a "Golf," and there is where its popularity is explained. Gidding & Co. originally introduced it some weeks ago, but have just received a new lot. They show 14 distinct colors and designs at 25 and 50 cts.

A good quality of envelopes can be obtained at the COLUMBIAN office, for $2.00 a thousand, with business card printed on the corner.

GRATEFUL TESTIMONIALS

from a few of those who have been cured by the NEW METHOD OF TREATMENT.

Estey Organs! Estey Pianos!

BARGAINS!

BARGAINS!

Now is your time to purchase the Famous ESTY Organ and Piano.

For many years J. Saltzer has held the agency for the sale of these very reliable instruments in Columbia and Montour counties.

As an agent, he has been very successful in placing large numbers of organs, especially, in the homes of the good people of his district.

This agency, so long held by him, he has yielded, and it remains for us to continue our business relations with the people, either directly or indirectly through another agent.

At present, we propose to meet the people of this district, with whom Mr. Saltzer has been so intimately acquainted, and who have been so well and faithfully educated in regard to the merits and real value of our instruments, directly; and for a short season at least, give them the benefit of our reduced rates.

Therefore, all persons who are thinking, or who have been thinking of purchasing an organ or piano, are most cordially requested to call at our store—next door to Vanatta's paper store, Bloomsburg, Pa., and look over our stock of instruments, and get prices.

For the next thirty days we shall make special rates for cash and good notes, on our entire stock of organs and pianos.

We offer large inducements to would-be-purchasers of violins, accordians, banjos, guitars, harmonicas and Jews harps—violin, banjo and guitar strings.

Also, extra large inducements to persons wishing to purchase SHEET MUSIC.

We have a large assortment of music on hand which we offer at 3 cts. per copy.

Come everybody, and see how well we can please you.

Estey & Bruce
