

The Columbian.

ESTABLISHED 1866. The Columbia Democrat, PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING...

FRIDAY, AUGUST 30, 1895. Candidates. FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE, MORDECAI MILLARD, CENTRE TOWNSHIP.

QUAY TRIUMPHANT.

THE JUNIOR SENATOR IS STILL THE LEADER OF PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICANS.

The Republican fight for supremacy is over and Matthew Stanley Quay, the astute politician, has defeated Governor Hastings...

On Tuesday night it was apparent that Quay had a sure majority of delegates in his favor, but the Philadelphia Press of Wednesday still claimed that Hastings would win.

It was half-past 11 o'clock to the minute when Chairman Gilkeson called the delegates to order. He ordered that all not delegates leave the main floor...

Ever so many claims were made by the opponents of revision of the wool tariff that reduction had no other meaning than ruin for the farmers...

The charge was an open one, for example, that the sheep raisers and flockmasters of Greene and Washington counties could not possibly survive the new tariff regulations.

At this point in his speech Quay walked down the aisle and whispered to Governor Hastings, and the walls of the opera house echoed the cheers again and again.

There were but two nominees. Robinson was elected temporary chairman by 163-23 to 135-13. Upon the announcement of the vote, Hon. Henry Hall moved that the election of Hon. John B. Robinson for temporary chairman be made unanimous...

Mr. Robinson on assuming the duties of the Chair made no speech, but said: "I am ready for business." On motion of Hon. Henry Hall the appointment of a committee of fifty was authorized to nominate officers for the convention.

A resolution on the order of business provided for a recess, when Governor Hastings moved to strike out the provision for a recess, and it was agreed to.

Senator Quay submitted a resolution declaring against the use of money by corporate bodies in politics, and for such a civil service regulation as will free employees of the public service from political enslavement.

Mr. Ritter, of Philadelphia, submitted a resolution declaring against the free coinage of silver and advocating only sound money. This resolution was also referred to the committee on resolutions.

The committee on permanent organization reported Governor Hastings for permanent chairman and this was adopted. The Governor was escorted to the chair by Senator Quay and State Senator Flinn, of Pittsburg.

He was loudly cheered, as he took the stand and made these remarks: "I thank you for this great honor. I will not make a speech because it is too warm. Recent events in the Republican party in this State prove that electric storms clear the atmosphere."

Governor Hastings had hardly assumed his position as chairman when the committee on platform, previously appointed, made a report. After its adoption Col. Henry Hall, an anti-Quayite, in one of his able speeches, placed Benjamin J. Haywood, of Mercer, in nomination for State treasurer.

Senator Quay then arose amid terrific applause and moved the nomination of the six present Republican members of the Superior court. They were nominated by acclamation.

State Chairman Gilkeson announced in the interest of party harmony his withdrawal as a candidate for State chairman, and moved the unanimous election of Senator Quay for the office. This was greeted with great cheers.

There were loud calls for a speech from Senator Quay after his election. The Senator arose in his seat and simply said: "I will endeavor, in the campaign now ensuing, to make it a campaign of merit."

Congressman Robinson then asked consent to make a statement and proceeded to eulogize Gilkeson, declaring satisfactorily explained all matters under dispute during the late heated campaign and said he desired to publicly state that no touch of discredit lingered about the skirts of Mr. Gilkeson.

Wool Fallacies at an End. Ever so many claims were made by the opponents of revision of the wool tariff that reduction had no other meaning than ruin for the farmers and wreck for the mills and factories...

The charge was an open one, for example, that the sheep raisers and flockmasters of Greene and Washington counties could not possibly survive the new tariff regulations.

It is likewise true that there has been a decided increase in the purchase of foreign wools, but sales in the domestic article have kept pace with the foreign and at equal figures.

This total of 105,236,027 pounds shows a purchase of more wool than was ever bought before in the same period, and the product is much greater than the mills are capable of turning into finished goods...

There is no longer need to search for proof for prosperity in the wool trade and among the mills. Existing conditions, constantly improving in a broadening market and voluntary advances in wages, are enough.

Hon. C. F. Black on Silver.

Under date of York, Pa., August 24, Hon. Chauncey F. Black writes to Lawrence Gardner, secretary of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, with reference to a newspaper article published in the Baltimore Sun, to the correctness of which he takes exceptions, and in the course of his letter says:

"The silver question is of a temporary character, however it shall be decided," and he asserts that either side defeated in National Convention will submit to the will of the majority.

In a brief sentence commending the integrity of Democrats, no matter what their views about silver, Mr. Black declares there should be no separation on such issue, and concludes:

"Shall we wreck the great party of constitutional government and expose ourselves to the untold miseries of a centralized, prodigal and corrupt government, taxing the masses for the classes, upon a comparatively paltry question of coinage? The spirit of the silver Democrats, South and West, shows that no such result is possible, and they may be assured that their Northern and Eastern brethren are equally loyal to the great cause of free government, which the Democracy has had in charge for more than a hundred years."
