Not for a hard winter, but there is full and plenty for every body - and hence entirely those who have a large surplus should invited. see to it that those are supplied who are in need and want. All have not the same opportunity to sow and gather that others have, and though there may be drones in the hive of industry; yet it appears that all have their use in society, and as the saying is, "it takes all kinds of people to make a world"; hence there is a mutual dependence, one upon the other, through the entire brotherhood of mankind.

The new woman with pants and bloomers will have some advantage in a gale over her predecessors, as she will not catch and resist so much wind.

It is said "there is always room on the upper shelf." Yes the upper shelf is always up so high that nobody can reach it. Otherwise excursions and picnics would fill it when they are once all shelved. Even worn out party hacks and disappointed politicians never get on the upper shelf, though they get effectually shelved.

The general health of our people is good at present.

Healthy, happy babies are generally the offspring of healthy, happy mothers. It would hardly be natural if it were otherwise. The baby's health and happiness depend on the mother's. The mother's condition during gestation par-ticularly exerts an influence on the whole life of the child. Impure blood, weakness and nervousness in the mother are pretty sure to repeat themselves in the child. If a woman is not careful at any other time, she certainly should be during the period preliminary to parturition. It is a time when greatest care is necessary, and Nature will be the better for a little and Nature will be the better for a little help. Even strong, well women will find themselves feeling better, their time of labor shortened and their pains less-ened if they will take Dr. Pierce's Fa-vorite Prescription. To those whom troubles peculiarly feminine have rend-ered in any degree weak, it will prove a veritable blessing. It is a good general tonic for the whole system, and at any time will promote the proper and regular action of all the organs.
