THAT LUMP IN A man's stomach which makes him irritable and miserable and unfit for business or pleasure is caused by indigestion. Indigestion, like charity, covers a multitude of sins. The trouble may be in stomach, liver, bowels. Wherever it is, it is caused by the presence of poisonous, refuse matter which Nature has been unable to rid herself of, unaided. In such cases, wise people send down a little health officer, personified by one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, to search out the seat of trouble and remove the cause. One little "Pellet" will remove a very big lump and act as a gentle laxative. Two "Pellets" are a mild cathartic. A short "course" of "Pellets" will cure indigestion permanently. It will cure constipation. After that, you can stop taking them. A good many pills act so violently as to derange the system, and in its disordered state, digestion will not go on without a continued use of the pills. That's the worst feature of most pills. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets never make slaves of their users.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—it's an easy name to remember. Don't let a designing druggist talk you into "something just as good." He makes more money on the "just as good" kind. That's why he would rather sell them. That's why you had better not take them. Whenever they are tried, they are always in favor, so a free sample package (4 to 7 doses) is sent to any one who asks. A son-in-law of Alfred McHenry, of Cambra, by name of Brown, died at the home of the former last Friday night. The deceased was an accomplished dentist and highly respected. He was a son of Adison Brown formerly of New Columbus, and has been in poor health for a long time.

The visible supply of buckwheat may keep the price of that commodity at a low figure. But buckwheat cakes and apple sauce will hardly mingle this year.

Everything seems to be going on wheels. No one seems particular about the motive power; whether steam, electricity or horse; whether pushed by hand or legs, whether the vehicle has four, three, two or one wheels, like women pushing their babies in baby carts, or men and women riding bicycles and tricycles, or paddy pushing the wheel-barrow on the turnpike.

Notice.

"At a regular meeting of the Bloom Poor Directors April 27, 1895, a resolution was adopted that all orders for relief must be signed by a majority of the Directors, and any order without being properly signed by at least two Directors will not be accepted or paid. ISAIAH HAGENBUCH, Pres."

The passing of the above resolution is one of many foolish acts consummated by Messrs. Rhoads and Hagenbuch. Who but them would pass a resolution that orders for relief must be signed by a majority of the board? Section 12 of Act of 1860, which applies to the Bloomsburg Poor District, provides as follows: "That all orders issued for the relief of any poor person or persons within said township shall be directed to the directors of the poor of Wilkes-Barre twp.; and upon the receipt of such orders, said directors, or any one of them, shall immediately proceed to inquire into the circumstances, and if the person or persons therein named are found by him entitled to relief, he or they shall furnish such relief, or cause such person or persons to be removed and taken to said poor house, and there kept and maintained until legally discharged; any one of said directors shall have authority to direct a poor person to be admitted into said poor house; but no person shall be discharged therefrom unless at his or her own request, except by the direction of at least two of said directors."

So it will be seen that in relieving poor persons one director has just as much power as a majority of the board, and the passing of such foolish resolutions shows just what length Rhoads and Hagenbuch will go in their efforts to defeat and prevent the voters of the district from having the benefit of my experience as a director. The resolution was aimed at myself and was intended to tie my hands so I would be unable to do business for the district. The law is on my side and I propose to exercise my rights as a director, and any order signed by myself will be honored or I will know the reason why. The public will take notice and act accordingly.

O. T. WILSON, Poor Director.

Notice.

At a regular meeting of the Bloom Poor Directors April 27, 1895, a resolution was adopted that all orders for relief must be signed by a majority of the Directors, and from this date orders without being properly signed by at least two of the Directors will not be allowed or paid. ISAIAH HAGENBUCH, Pres. Sept. 28, 1895.

The gutters on the several streets, are receiving the attention of Commissioner House and his men. Winter will find them, as well as our streets, in a good condition. This is one thing, among the numerous other ones which always attracts the attention of visitors to our town. They always comment upon our wide, and well kept streets and pavements, and substantial and well preserved buildings.

S. H. Harman has sold two lots on 9th and 10th streets to William Ferguson. The sale was made through J. S. Williams, real estate agent.

Accounts of broken limbs, the result of chestnut parties, will soon be going the rounds of the newspapers. The same papers will also contain articles relating to trespass cases.

Main Street is receiving attention from the Street Commissioner. This is work in the right direction. The old adage "a stitch in time saves nine" is exemplified in this work.

W. B. Taylor has the paper hangers and painters at work on his home on Iron Street. There is no telling what improvements he will make before he stops, as he never does anything by halves.

The large front show window of the "Leader" presents a very fine appearance. It shows a bed room completely furnished. The party who did the decorating deserves great credit for the taste displayed.

The Ent building is being repainted and it adds greatly to the appearance of the structure. There are some other buildings along Main Street which would be greatly improved were the same kind of work done on them.

John B. Hunt, is always looking for fine horses and he has recently purchased at Allentown one of which he feels justly proud. It is a bay pacer, and although he has not been worked for a year shows a 2-22 gait.

If everybody who wants printing for the fair, waits until only a day or two before it opens, some will be disappointed. There is always a rush of work at that time, and it is impossible to do it all at the last minute. Bring it in now.

Factory Inspector J. K. Robison of Millintown was in this place on last Thursday on official business. He reported the factories in this place as being in splendid condition and highly complimented the Silk Mill, Woolen Mill and Carpet Works.
