DISGRACEFUL STATE PRINTING.

The Laws so Blingingly Printed That They Should Be Reprinted.

The pamphlet laws of the last session of the Legislature have been so carelessly printed that difficulty is likely to be experienced in determining what some of the laws mean. The book is full of errors, whole lines being transposed. As this is the authorized copy of the law and is used everywhere over the State and intended for all future years. It can be easily understood what confusion may be caused by the blunders that have been made.

The work ought to be carefully revised by competent proof readers and a new edition issued as soon as possible to take the place of that now in the hands of the public. It must be taken for granted that the Superintendent of Public Printing has not approved this work, and until he does approve it the contractor can get no pay for it. It should be placed in competent hands for execution and the cost charged to the contractor, who has obviously failed to do his duty in this instance. Payment for such work should not be permitted, and it is the business of the Superintendent to see that it is not.—Press.

Washing Machine Works.

This is an industry which has grown up with Bloomsburg, and has kept pace with the developments of the other industries. To-day we have two well equipped plants for their manufacture, which are able to complete a large number of machines daily. The fact that they are in great demand, and each factory has numerous orders on hand, is the best evidence of the confidence the public have in them. They have been before the public, and in constant use for several years, and have in every instance given entire satisfaction.

The factory of C. Mears is located at the corner of Fifth and West street, and that of David Savage, on Iron street. Parties in need of washing machines will find either of the gentlemen men of integrity and with whom it will be a pleasure to transact business. The wood used in their construction is well seasoned, and the castings are first class in every particular. Both of them have an exhibition on the Fair ground where they will be pleased to explain their workings to any desiring information.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

In the case of Rebecca Hunsinger vs. S. H. & W. Rail Way Company the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $686.30.

The following Sheriff's deeds were acknowledged in open Court.

To E. W. Ivey for property of Albert Gillespy, consideration $50.

To John R. Thomas for property of W. H. Manning, consideration $151.

By an order of the Court the office of tax collector in Conyngham Township was declared vacant. This became necessary because no one would take the office.

The next case called and put on trial was Lavina Rabuck vs. S. H. & W. Rail Way Company. This like the other damage case came from Beaver Township and the evidence was similar to that given in that case. They claimed however as special damage that their spring was ruined by the wash from the rail road running into it. They had a jug of the water in Court. The jury awarded a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1352.52.

A jury was taken in the case of Creasy and Wells vs. Emanuel Reformed church of Madison Township owner and Jacob Shoemaker contractor, case to be tried Monday morning.

The plaintiffs claim in this case the sum of $885.38 for material furnished for said church. Counsel for defendant moved to strike from the plaintiff's claim the sum of $475 for frames, mill work, mouldings &c. on the ground that the charge was lumped. The Court rendered the following opinion.

OPINION OF THE COURT.

The present consideration arises upon a re argument of the demurrer filed Feb. 5, 1895 to the item of mill work, frames, moulding &c. as per specifications and drawings $475, alleged to be a lumping charge without being itemized or explained for the information of the owners of the building against which the lien was filed, and should therefore be stricken off. In our former consideration of this question we held the said item, or charge of July 31, 1893 to be defective and that we were warranted according to the practice of the lower Courts and under the Act of Assembly of June 11th, 1879 in allowing it to be amended notwithstanding the fact that more than six months had elapsed since the date of furnishing the last item or material named in the lien. Since our former ruling in this matter the Supreme Court in the case of McFarland vs. Shultz and Magill 168 Pa. State Reports, 593 have plainly and distinctly ruled that a lumping charge like the one in question, not setting forth the kind or nature of the work done or the kind and amount of materials furnished, and the specific

AN ATTRACTIVE WOMAN. If a woman is not attractive, there is something wrong. Any woman can be attractive if she will make the effort. It isn't all together a question of beauty. It's largely a matter of health. The bloom and glow of health go far toward bringing beauty. A clear skin, bright eyes, red lips and the vivacity which bodily good feeling brings, will make even a homely woman handsome. Half of the women one meets are semi-invalids. Failure to heed the warnings of outraged nature—failure to give the help needed by the most delicate and sensitive organs—little troubles ignored until they have become dominant—disease allowed every chance to spread and gain a settled seat—these things bring about the sunken, circled eyes, the hollow cheeks, the pale and sallow skin, the flabby, strengthless flesh, which characterize the appearance of the woman who suffers from "female weakness."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has cured thousands of suffering women. It is a perfected specific for the troubles peculiar to them. It eradicates the disease, stops the dragging, life-sapping drain, and in a perfectly rational, natural way, builds up the wasted strength. It will bring buoyant health. It will put roses into pale faces—solid flesh in sunken places. It does away with the humiliating examinations and "local treatment" so much dreaded by modestly sensitive women. For thirty years, it has been successfully prescribed by Dr. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y.

terms and dates when the materials were furnished is incomplete and cannot be amended or itemized under the Act of Assembly of June 11th, 1879 so as to make the said charges conform to the 12th Section of the Mechanic's lien Act of Assembly of June 16th, 1836. In that case the Supreme Court reversed the judgment of the Court below because it refused to strike from the record of the lien a charge really more specific and full than the one in question. In the case now under consideration it is urged by counsel for plaintiff that because the charge complained of refers to the "specifications, drawings &c." of the building into which the materials went, and upon the credit of which the work was done, and which drawings are alleged to be, and have been, in the hands of the owner, he was thereby sufficiently informed of how the charge or sum total was made up, and that therefore it should remain at least until after the evidence shall have been heard, and that if it shall appear from that, that the owner had full knowledge of the several items constituting the whole, then the charge should be held good and valid.

We think that the fact of the perfection or sufficiency of such preferred and favored lien should not depend upon or be decided by evidence outside the record. Upon its own showing or inspection for its foundation it must stand or fall. The remedy by mechanic's lien is special and should strictly follow the requirements of the statute. It cannot be supplemented by oral testimony or left to inference. It is our unquestioned duty to follow and obey the decisions of the Supreme Court, and it seems to us that a refusal to sustain this motion would be in direct conflict with their recent rulings on this very subject. March 25th last we overruled this demurrer, but we are now obliged to sustain it under the decision of the Supreme Court above referred to and the authorities therein cited. It seems to us that a different determination of this matter by us would end in a reversal of our judgment and useless litigation and costs to the parties. And now Oct. 7th, 1895 our former order made in the matter March 29, 1895 is revoked and set aside, and the present motion is sustained, and the charges as set forth in the mechanic's lien, as of July 31, 1893 is stricken from the record and not to be considered in the trial of the case.

PAYING THE SCHOOL MONEY. Two-Thirds of the Districts Get Their Appropriations.

State Treasurer Jackson has paid 1,800 of the 2,400 school districts in the commonwealth their share of the school appropriation of $5,500,000 for this year. The small districts are being paid first on account of the difficulty of many to collect the taxes. Several have not yet been able to collect enough taxes to pay the school teachers for the last school term. Philadelphia has received $300,000 of its share of the appropriation. Pittsburgh, Allegheny and other large districts will not be paid for some time. The payments for this year aggregate about $3,000,000 and are being paid at the rate of $200,000 a week. The appropriation to the Bloomsburg School District this year was $427.64 and was received by the treasurer in August.
