WEDDING BELLS.

One of the Talented Young Ladies of this Place, Weds a Plymouth Gentleman.

Wednesday evening Oct. 9th, 1895, one of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in this town took place at the Methodist Episcopal Church on Third Street. The contracting parties were Miss Harriet H. daughter of Mrs. Clarissa Peacock, of Fifth Street, and Mr. H. Russel Williams of Plymouth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. C. Connor and was witnessed by a very large audience. Exactly at six o'clock, the time appointed, the party led by the ushers entered the church and passed up the aisle to the wedding march which was beautifully executed by Mrs. Fred Holmes. Upon the arrival of the bride and her party at the altar they were met by the groom and his best man who had entered by the other aisle, when the beautiful marriage service with the ring of the Methodist Episcopal church was performed. The bride was given away by her brother, C. C. Peacock, Esq. The maid of honor was Mabel Peacock, niece of the bride; best man Dr. Herbert Williams, of Philadelphia, brother of the groom; bridesmaids Miss Bertha Williams, sister of the groom, of Tamaqua; Miss Elizabeth Straw, of Wilkes-Barre; Miss Lettie Seligman, of Mahanoy City, and Miss Elizabeth Low, of Lime Ridge; and the pretty little flower girls were Clarissa and Helen Peacock, nieces of the bride. Messrs. Edward Jenkins, of Plymouth, Frank Ikeler, Frank Pursel and Robt. Hartman, of this town, were the gentlemanly ushers.

The bride was becomingly attired in a beautiful white silk, and carried a bunch of beautiful white roses. The attendants were also handsomely dressed, which with the floral decorations of the church presented a scene seldom witnessed. One of the decorations which deserves special mention, and which was admired very much for the artistic manner in which it was arranged was two hearts and an arrow of flowers.

After the ceremony had been performed the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride on Fifth street where a reception was held, and elegant refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams left on the late train on the D. L. & W. Rail Road, and upon their return will reside at Plymouth. The presents received were not only numerous but unusually beautiful and costly. Among the guests present were: Mrs. E. L. Williams, mother of the groom, Mrs. H. D. Smith, and Miss Effie M. Williams, sisters of the groom, of Tamaqua; Mrs. Jos. Seligman, Dr. J. H. Hagenbuch and wife, Mahanoy City; Miss Harrington, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Fowler, Willow Springs; Dr. and Mrs. E. W. M. Low, Miss Helen Low, E. E. Low, Geo. Low, Lime Ridge; J. J. Robbins, Misses Hattie and Laura Robbins, Wilkes-Barre; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Christian, Mr. J. E. Eves, Miss Clara Eves, Millville; Mrs. Frank Masters, Sereno; Mrs. Frank Jackson, Berwick; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Llewellyn, Shamokin; J. Shannon and wife, Mrs. John Rote, Misses Gaskin and Lyon, Danville; Rev. Gideon H. Day and wife, Riverside; Fred Davenport, Blanche Davenport, Harry Nesbit, Clara Nesbit, Plymouth; The Misses John, Mainville; Mrs. Deborah White, Almedia; Mrs. Jos. Robbins, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robbins, Light Street; Mrs. Boone, Rupert; Miss Everhart, Asbury Park; Mrs. A. L. Bevier, Bainbridge, N. Y.

By previous arrangements Judge Ikeler, was obliged to leave on Tuesday for Girardsville where he will meet the Board of City Trusts of the Girard Estate and their guests, at a banquet given them by E. C. Wagner, Esq., Assistant Superintendent of said estate, and continue with the Board on their tour of inspection of the lands and collieries in Schuylkill and Columbia Counties.

One object of the visit is to locate a summer home for the younger children of Girard College on one of the farms in Schuylkill county, near Girard Manor.
