

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1895.

Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 1, 1888.

BRIEF MENTION.

About People You Know.

Ex-Representative Tewksbury transacted business at the County Seat on Saturday.

Dr. J. H. Vantine of Catawissa, was noticed on the streets last Saturday.

Frank Colley has returned from Pittsburg, and will go to Philadelphia next Tuesday.

Mrs. Anstok transacted business at Catawissa on Wednesday.

Benjamin Fry of Barr Oak, Michigan, is visiting his cousin Mrs. Vost, at Rupert.

C. E. Yorks, of Central was noticed on the streets Wednesday.

Miss Lillie Doak is spending this week in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Kate Ale of Indiana, is visiting her father Caleb Barton.

Charles Applegate, porter at the St. Elmo broke his leg at the ankle on Tuesday.

Harry McBride spent last Sunday in town visiting his parents.

Job Grassly of Berwick has been granted a re-issue of pension.

J. L. Girton was sixty years old last Sunday. He celebrated the event by having a sumptuous repast at his home.

A. C. Fowler, brother of County treasurer Fowler returned to his home in Chadron Nebraska last Tuesday.

J. H. Geary, Postmaster at Catawissa, visited the County Seat Wednesday morning on business.

Miss Mary Garrison of Berwick, is visiting her cousin Miss Agnes Garrison, on Fifth Street.

Charles Cadman will move next Tuesday in the house of Mrs. Lavina Shoemaker on West Main Street.

Dist. Atty. Hanly has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to be at his office part of the time.

Miss Annie Fornwald of Waller is visiting her grand-parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fornwald on East Street.

Miss Leatha Lockard is visiting at Jameson City, the guest of her sister Mrs. S. A. Goodhue.

G. E. Distelhurst, of the Leader, returned a few days since from a business trip to New York City.

John Gross who presides over Harry Dieterich's restaurant, is taking a vacation. He is spending it visiting friends in Williamsport and Lock Haven.

W. H. Christian of Wellersville transacted business at this office Tuesday morning. He is in attendance at the Institute.

F. Freeman Boas, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., went to Erie on Wednesday, to attend the State convention of that organization. Mrs. Boas will visit relatives at Reading during the coming week.

Robert Hartman, the Eighth Street shoemaker, has placed a lamp near his shop. It is a convenience not only to him, but to his neighbors as well.

Hon. C. R. Buckalew and wife, returned from Ganoga lake Monday evening. Mr. Buckalew informs us that he left a tracking snow there.

Russel E. Andreas, of Wilkes-Barre, a son-in-law of C. P. Sloan, has been appointed assistant paymaster of the Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Coal Co.

County Commissioner Utt did not attend the Commissioners Convention at Meadville. It was attended by Commissioner Swank and Clerk C. M. Terwilliger.

Mrs. George S. Robbins, gave a 5 o'clock tea last Friday at her handsome residence on Normal Hill in honor of Mrs. J. E. Vanatta, of Lewistown.

C. B. Jackson, Esq., of Berwick, and W. H. Rhawn and C. A. Small Esqs., of Catawissa, transacted business at the Court House on last Saturday.

Jerry Geese who went to Atlanta, Georgia a few weeks since, has returned. He has not a very good idea of the South or its people.

J. A. Karns, one of the overseers of the Poor of Fishingcreek Township, transacted business at the COLUMBIAN office on Saturday.

Miss Jennie Long, an estimable young lady of Nanticoke, is visiting relatives and friends in Town. She gave this office a pleasant call on Saturday morning of last week.

H. D. Smith of Jerseytown, transacted business at this office on Monday. He is employed by the P. & R. Rail Road Company at Williamsport and at present is home on a vacation.

Wilson M. Gearhart, Thomas Chalfant, Post-master of Danville, and Editor of the "Danville Intelligence," James Scarlet, Esq., and William J. Baldy, Esq., of the same place attended the funeral of Hon. William Elwell on last Friday.

The fence which surrounded the Gas Works has been removed.

The addition to the Tube Works is rapidly nearing completion.

The house of John Culp on East Street is undergoing repairs.

H. G. Eshleman is erecting a new house along the Light Street road.

The job work executed at the COLUMBIAN office is just right.

The D. L. & W. Rail Road Company is repairing the siding near the School Furnishing Company.

We are under obligations to J. W. Moyer, for a beautiful calendar for 1896.

James Ferguson has removed the fence from the front of his lot on Ninth Street.

J. L. Dillon is having his residence heated by steam. He has a handsome and convenient home on the hill.

During the past season William Ferguson has manufactured over one and a half millions of brick at his kilns.

The family of John Masteller of the New York Novelty store has been increased by the arrival of a girl baby at his home.

The Supreme Court has decided that the Superior Court law is constitutional, and that no one can vote for more than six candidates for that office.

The Steam Heating Company have had men at work for several days repairing a leak in the pipes at Fourth and Market Streets.

Samuel Shaffer has grown tired of taking the dust from every body, and hence has purchased a new horse. It is said to be a goer.

The house which Jacob Rhoades is building at Port Noble is enclosed, and it will be ready for occupancy in a short time.

A new fruit and oyster house has been opened on West Main Street opposite Corell's furniture rooms. It is conducted by Fox and Phillips, of Wilkes-Barre.

R. B. Grimes of Millville transacted business at the County Seat on Saturday. He informs us, that he could not possibly get along without the COLUMBIAN.

The chestnuting expedition of Misses May Sharpless, Lillian Drinker, Helen John and Lulu Mendenhall in the neighborhood of Benton was an enjoyable occasion.

We are informed that it is the intention of Mr. Snyder, the owner of the Exchange Hotel, to make extensive alterations to the building in the near future. Charles Krug had some men at work this week making minor repairs.

The foot-ball game last Saturday between the Normal and Selinsgrove teams, resulted in a victory for the Normal by a score of 6-0. Mr. Smethers of the Normal team had his thumb broken.

Berwick is undergoing an epidemic of that dreadful disease diphtheria. We hope its ravages may soon be abated. The greatest precaution should be taken by our people whose business requires them to visit that place.

A new crossing has been placed over Fourth Street at Market. A car of crossing stone has been purchased by the Town Council and they will all be put in proper shape as rapidly as possible.

The Sunday closing question is being agitated at Wilkes-Barre. Last week there was a lively time at the Mayor's Court when a lot of butchers were each fined $4.50 and costs for doing business on that day.

Thomas Nankivel is now wearing a diamond ring. He held the lucky ticket at the drawing at the recent drawing of William Dentler.

The premiums awarded at the Columbia County Fair will be paid at the office of the Secretary on and after Nov. 1st 1895.

Our readers in need of stoves, heaters, plumbing, or tin work of any kind will find it to their advantage to read the advertisement of W. W. Waits.

There will be a Prohibition meeting held in the P. O. S. of A. Hall in Light Street Wednesday evening Oct. 30th, addressed by State Chairman H. D. Patton.

The family of the late Jeremiah M. Hess desire to return their sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors who so nobly and kindly assisted them during their recent bereavement.

There was a quoit pitching contest for a prize, and the championship of this County, at the Athletic Park yesterday afternoon. We went to press too early to give the result.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the Milton Piano and Furniture Company in another portion of this paper. They are offering extraordinary inducements to purchasers.

E. P. Williams now owns another fast horse. He has purchased "Butcher Boy" owned by J. L. Cocoman. This horse was entered in the 2:33 pace at the late fair, but did not start.

Robert M. McBride has completed the painting and glazing at the addition to the Carpet Mill, at J. O. Wilson's house, and also at C. C. Peacock's on Center street below Fifth. They are all good jobs.

Thomas J. Thomas of Montreal, Canada, who has been in this place nearly a year started for Chicago last Saturday. He was known by many of our people, and especially by the bicyclists.

On Sunday morning next at 10.30 o'clock a memorial service will be held at St. Paul's Church, at which time Rev. D. N. Kirkby will preach a sermon on the life and character of the late Judge Elwell.

Prof. C. H. Albert of the Normal School, has been busy doing institute work in Elk County. He is now engaged in the same work in Allentown and Easton. He is a popular instructor and always in demand.

Mr. Hyde, of the Leader has recently returned from New York and Philadelphia where he purchased a large and fine line of new goods which are artistically displayed in their mammoth store on Market Street. The windows attract a great deal of attention on account of the beautiful manner in which they are arranged.

Mr. John K. Grotz, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of this place was eighty-five years old last Tuesday. He bears his age well, and his friends wish that he may live to celebrate many more birthdays. He is one of the best informed men of the Town, having lived continuously in it. It is a pleasure to listen to him when he is in the reminiscent mood.

Bryfogle Bros. are having a new 60 horse power boiler placed in their green house near this place. Last winter their two 36 horse power boilers were inadequate to properly heat their buildings, and hence this improvement. In addition to this, they have had a telephone placed in their office, which will greatly facilitate their business transactions.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Rosemont Cemetery held at the office of J. G. Freeze Esq., Monday evening, the following persons were re-elected managers for the ensuing year: John G. Freeze Esq., R. R. Little Esq., John Wolf, C. A. Klein, C. S. Furman, Wm. Neal, Jno. K. Grotz, J. J. Brower, I. W. Hartman, W. E. Rinker, and J. E. Wilson. An organization will be effected next Monday night.

The following letters are advertised October 22, 1895. Mr. John Hughes Blackman, Mr. John Brown, Miss Charlotte Brown, Mr. H. H. Davis, Mr. C. G. Gerstner, Mr. B. H. Johnson, Mr. J. C. Jones, Mrs. Eva Keller, Mrs. A. M. Ogle, Mr. Martin Oner, J. A. Rolhaupt, (2) Mr. Henry Scantling, Miss Florence Vought. Will be sent to the dead letter office November 5, 1895.

JAMES H. MERCER, P. M.

W. H. Gilmore gave an oyster supper to his surviving comrades Co. E. 132 Reg. Penna. Volunteers at his restaurant on Monday evening. Of course they had a good time, as he always treats his guests in a royal manner. It was almost enough to pay for all the suffering they endured at the front to be invited to attend one of "Gillys" lay outs. After they had eaten all they possibly could, he got out his band and entertained them with music for a considerable length of time.

ABSOLUTELY PURE
THE OLD RELIABLE
SWEET CAPORAL
CIGARETTE
Has stood the Test of Time
MORE SOLD THAN ALL OTHER BRANDS COMBINED

To the Public.

Mr. H. C. Churchill, who has been engaged with us for nearly two years as superintendent of our factory, and who was also a stockholder and a director in our company since its organization, this day terminates his business relations with us. He will leave Bloomsburg to engage in business for himself.

CUMMINGS & VERDY CO.
Bloomsburg, Pa., Oct. 17, 1895.

Joseph J. Rielly of Shenandoah, and a member of the graduating class of 1895 of the Bloomsburg State Normal School died at his residence last Friday from the effects of typhoid fever. The funeral service was held on Monday, and the school was represented by William Higgins, Daniel Mulherin, Rush Hosler and Mr. Cavanaugh.

...CLARK & SON...

Constant Improvement

Is the watchword here. We are continually setting a higher standard, and never resting in the effort to provide you with the best of everything—qualities—styles—service—coupled with the lowest prices on all goods. Your evident appreciation is most gratifying.

Women's Coats and Capes.

Full lines of the season's latest. All the newest effects in styles and materials. All sizes—to fit all.
$9.50—Ladies' jacket, rough material. Ripple back, silk lined, box front.
$15.00—Ladies' jacket, French curl, ripple back, Franklin collar, mandolin sleeves, inlaid velvet cuffs—a beauty.
$8.00—Fur capes, 30 in. long, 100 in sweep, silk lined.
$12.50—Velour cape, extra large sweep, jet and braid trimmed, edged with black thibet, silk lined, arm straps.
A full line of infant's, children's and misses' coats.

Underwear.

A full line of ladies' and children's. Ladies' fleecy lined vests, 21c. Ladies' fleecy lined vests, 31c. ex. heavy. Ladies' combination suits, 50c. ex. heavy fleecy lined. Children's combination suits, 50c. fleecy lined.

Dress Goods and Trimmings.

The finest collection of these materials we have ever shown. All the season's latest. Large line of novelty dress goods. You should see the new button and buckle sets. Jet yokes, collars and fronts. Black dress goods. Full lines of figured and plain materials. Also a full line of black cashmere shawls, and Nun's veilings for veils, made up and by the yard.

Small Wares.

Hair and tooth brushes, pocket books, silver umbrella clasps, curlers, darning cotton, toilet waters, toilet soaps, hair pins, high top combs, jewelry, scissors, 25c. pair up; dressing combs, children's caps, fancy collars, silver chain bracelets with locks.

Table Linens.

A full line of table linens, napkins, table felt and towels. See the 50c. linen. A full line of fine bleached table linens with napkins to match from $1.00 to $1.85 yd. Turkish towels, large and heavy, 15c. See the napkins at $1.00, $1.25, $1.65 doz. A lot of children's all wool red underwear, almost at the price of cotton to close. Not all sizes. Look them over. Your size may be among them.

SPECIAL OFFER.—With purchases amounting to ten dollars ($10.00) and over, we will present you with a HANDSOME MEDALLION PICTURE free. With all $5.00 purchases and over, a handsome silverline frame, or framed picture. All goods sold for cash—one price, the lowest.

H. J. CLARK & SON.

ATTEND SIMON LONG'S SONS'

48th ANNIVERSARY SALE.

Sale begins next Friday, Nov. 1, and lasts a week, ending Saturday, November 9th.

Everybody invited to come to Wilkes-Barre and help the old reliable Simon Long's Sons celebrate.

CLOTHING ALMOST GIVEN AWAY

READ SOME OF OUR PRICES DURING THIS GREAT ANNIVERSARY SALE:

Children's pants will be sold at	.09
Children's waists	.10
Children's and boys' suits	.74
Children's and boys' overcoats (special)	.50
Children's and boys' cape overcoats (extra value)	.98
Boys' genuine Scotch caps (worth 50c)	.15
Extra heavy genuine Jersey shirts	.39
Men's suits (special value)	2.99
Men's fine cassimere suits	4.99
Men's fine suits, formerly $10.00, now	5.99
Men's heavy storm overcoats	3.99
Genuine Shetland storm overcoats	5.99
Men's heavy pea jackets	1.75
Men's heavy pea jackets, worth $5.00	2.99
Men's "Never Rip" pants	.75
Boy's long pants	.75
Men's cardigan jackets, all wool	.50
Men's and boys' heavy working gloves in buckskin and wool	.25
Men's dress suits and overcoats in endless variety from $5 to $10

In addition to the above inducements every article in our $150,000 stock will be sold ten per cent. below the regular marked price, except Dunlap hats and E. & W. collars.

SIMON LONG'S SONS,

10 AND 12 SOUTH MAIN ST., WILKES-BARRE.

Don't throw that old garment away.

You can make it look like new for 10c. How? By the use of a package of the imported German Household Dyes. It makes no difference whether it is wool, cotton, silk, or linen, the same dye does the work for all. There is where it has a big advantage over all others. Then you get a piece of yarn with each package which shows you the exact color you get. They are all fine bright colors and guaranteed fast. Try them and you will use no other. The price is 10c. We also have Diamond Dyes, Extra Logwood and a full line of dye stuffs. This should save you money and if you watch this space every week you will save more.

W. S. Rishon, Ph. G.
Opposite Post Office. DRUGGIST.