Dull eyes, blotched or sallow face, and a wasted form, follow them. This is the time to turn to the right remedy. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription builds up and strengthens the system, and regulates and promotes every proper function. It's a quieting, soothing nervine. It corrects and cures, safely and surely, all those delicate derangements, weaknesses, irregularities and diseases peculiar to the sex.

GONE TO HIS REST.

One by one, the old residents of the Town are passing away, and Saturday afternoon at half past four o'clock Jeremiah M. Hess breathed his last. He had been sick for a long time, and his family realized the fact that the time of his departure was near at hand. He was born in Wapwallopen, Luzerne County, February 22nd, 1823, and consequently aged seventy two years, seven months and twenty seven days, at the time of his death. When he was six years of age, he moved with his parents to Salem township, Luzerne County, where he lived on a farm until he was nineteen years of age, when he was apprenticed to Charles Hagenbuch, a blacksmith residing in Centre Township. After working at this trade several months he abandoned it, and returned to his former home in Salem Township where he was married January 26, 1843, to Miss Maria, daughter of Joseph Pohe. After his marriage, he moved to Orange Township, on the farm of his father-in-law, which he subsequently purchased. He resided there until 1869, when he purchased a residence in this place. He left to survive him four children as follows: George Wil-Cavanee, Jeremiah A, and Sarah Agnes, wife of Clark Shuman, of Main people in these announcements." Township. He was a member of the Reformed Church of this place. The funeral services were held in the said church Tuesday morning, at nine o'clock and were conducted by his pastor, Rev. C. H. Brandt. The body was taken to the Union Church at Orangeville, where services were held which were in charge of Rev. A. Houtz] and the interment was in the Orangeville Cemetery.

SENATOR HERRING'S CASE.

The following editorial appeared in the Catawissa News Item this week, and it fits the case so well that we reprint it with our full and hearty endorsement.

The Item says: The result of the investigation at Scranton last week by the United States Government of the charges made against Senator Herring as Revenue Collector, by Burke, a discharged Deputy Collector, was, in effect, that the charges were false, and a wicked political plot to secure the removal of Senator Herring and injure his good name. This result will preserve and enlarge the good opinion which the people of Columbia county and throughout the State have of the public, professional and private life of Senator Herring. It will not be accepted in this light by the political enemies of Senator Herring. These enemies will say, it was not a fair investigation, it was a white wash. The people, however, will clearly understand that these expressions are only contemptible shifts and excuses made to deceive them and to avoid the judgment of truth, for the investigation was by the United States government, and therefore, most impartial, full and strict. It was not an investigation in the absence of the accused, without opportunity to confront the accuser and his witnesses and make defence, as the political enemies of Senator Herring would have had it, but an investigation in the presence of the accused and accuser with his witnesses before a disinterested tribunal under the forms of law. Its result will therefore be accepted by the be a reminder that one who is prompted to attack another through petty malice and revenge will always be vanquished.

The attention of our readers is called to the unique advertisement of the Messrs. Jonas Long's Sons of Wilkes-Barre, that appears in to-day's issue of this paper. Their house is the largest department store in Pennsylvania, outside of Philadelphia, and represents the highest class of merchandise. Their business has assumed mammoth proportions, which necessitates constant change of stock, enabling their patrons to make selections from clean, new goods. It also assures them of the very latest in styles and novelties. They propose giving the patrons of this paper weekly talks on the subjects most interesting to the feminine mind, and to set forth anything new in the dry goods world. As the articles are written by one experienced in the oddities of feminine fashion, they will be of more than passing interest and value to our readers, and son, Mary Catharine, wife of Frank the well known reliability of this firm should inspire the confidence of the

DANVILLE FAIR.

The Danville fair this year eclipsed all former ones not only in the attendance, but also in the displays. The exhibition building was well filled with displays by the various merchants of the town, and the space devoted to ladies work was crowded with specimens of their skill. The attendance on Friday was estimated at 5000, a large number of whom were from Bloomsburg. The racing was very good and in the free for all a 2:19 record was made. The fakirs were there in all their glory, and worked unmolested all manner of skin games. The old adage "A fool and his money are soon parted" was demonstrated on the grounds. In order to preserve order, part of our police force was employed. There were several fights and one person was arrested for working the shell game, and another on the suspicion of being a pick-pocket. The fair was to have closed on Friday, but was continued on Saturday in order to finish the races. Harry M. a horse owned by Harvey Deiterich of this place, took first money in the 2:37 class. Time made was 2:33. Dinsmore, owned by M. L. Perrin of Pittston, was the winner in the free for all. Best time made 2:191.

MRS. BYRON DANARD, of Milford. Prince Edward Co., Ont., Canada, writes: "A few years ago my health failed. I was troubled with female disease in its worst form, having been afflicted about fifteen years. I was also troubled with constipation, loss of appetite, dizziness and ringing in my head, nervous prostration, bysteria, loss of memory, palpitation of the heart, together with 'that tired feeling' all the time. I consulted several physicians — no one could clearly diagnose my case and their medicines falled to give making Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—have taken five bottles and am a well woman doing my housework; from a run-down condition I have been restored to health. I feel it my duty to recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' for ladies afflicted with female diseases as I have been." The Institute proceedings are crowded out, they will appear in our next issue.
