

The Columbian

ESTABLISHED 1866. The Columbia Democrat, ESTABLISHED 1867. CONSOLIDATED 1869. PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING at Bloomsburg, the county seat of Columbia County, Pennsylvania.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1895.

Every Democrat should come out to vote this year. His presence at the polls will help to elect the whole Democratic ticket.

Hon. Benjamin F. Meyers is known to be an honest and a zealous public official. Vote for him this year and end fraud in the State Treasury.

Are you getting tired of having public office corrupted for the sake of political barnacles? If you are, vote the straight Democratic ticket next Tuesday.

The hope of real reform in Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and Pittsburg lies in the success of the Democratic party this year; vote the ticket and assert your love of honest government.

The Republican papers say that the Democrats in Pennsylvania are conducting a "still hunt." The Democrats have been anything but still. It is the Republican party that is keeping very still on the condition of State affairs.

Every vote for the Democratic ticket this year will be so much the greater aid toward actual reform in Pennsylvania's present corrupt and expensive government. Are you tired of corruption? Then vote the Democratic ticket.

A vote for the Democratic candidates for Superior Judges means that a superfluous and unnecessary Court, originated by the Republicans in order to get $70,000 of the people's money every year, will be abolished. The Republicans do not care for keeping up any office that is not in their own grasp.

Next Tuesday is election day and nothing done by Senator Andrews' Legislative Committee to investigate corruption in Philadelphia. Voters who believe in honest government should remember this on election day and show Mr. Quay that his idea of reform is not the kind the people want.

United States Senator Quay is actively pushing his boom for Republican National Chairman. He lets no chance go by to keep the name of Matthew Stany Quay before the people, and, as usual, is ready to sacrifice all others to attain this end. His champion is the Philadelphia Inquirer, and while that paper does not publish one editorial in favor of the Republican State ticket it gives columns to Quay and his schemes. His latest scheme was promulgated from Washington in the form of an interview, in which he explodes a plan to raise $40,000,000 by increasing the import duties on woolen and other goods. He says he will do great things in the way of harbor improvements, etc., if the tariff is increased. He is another instance of "the people b—d," for he wants to increase the duties on woolens and increase the cost of goods to our people. It is a great play for increased popularity, but it will hardly work, as the people are satisfied to pay low prices for good clothing, and will not willingly return to high prices and low wages.

In his speech in Philadelphia last Saturday, our candidate for State Treasurer, Hon. B. F. Meyers, said:

"The rapid return of the country to prosperous conditions promises sufficient revenues. At any rate an election at which only a State Treasurer and seven Judges of a superfluous Court are to be chosen, can hardly be expected to determine the question whether or not a revision of the tariff should be had. True it is that the changes are being rung on this question by our political adversaries. Even the transcendent splendor of Senator Quay's civil service reform program is not permitted to dazzle the eyes of the Republican saints, so as to blind them to the great importance of saving McKinleyism by the election of a machine-made candidate for State Treasurer. Nay, the unspeakable virtues of the Senate Lexow Committee, whose grand and glorious purpose seems to be to get such information for the use of the next Legislature as will have the effect of deterring that body from changing the name of this city to Martinsburg, is postponed until after election, lest, indeed, the calcium light which is to flash upon the precincts of the City of Brotherly Love might so affect the optics of the regulation Republican voter that he would get his cross-mark in the wrong column for State Treasurer on the Australian ballot."

Next year is the time to talk about the President and the tariff and money questions. To day is the time to consider the way the State has been robbed by the Republican party. Republicans are trying to hide their frauds behind the tariff question, but the corruption of State officials has come to the surface, and will stay there without the aid of an alleged "Lexow" investigating committee.

MRS. DAVID ACHENBACH DEAD.

Mrs. David Achenbach, who resided near Orangeville, died at her residence last Thursday aged eighty-two years, seven months and twenty-four days. The funeral was held at the Union Church at Orangeville Tuesday at 11 o'clock. She left to survive her children as follows: A. C. Hagenbuch of Orangeville, Oscar Hagenbuch of Williamsport, Sophia intermarried with H. L. Murray of Williamsport, Rebecca J., intermarried with M. M. Megarell of Orangeville, Anna and William also residing at the above named place. Harriet E., Calvin, and John J., also children of said deceased died several years ago. Her death was the result of paralysis.

The children desire in this public manner to return thanks to the friends who so kindly assisted them during her illness.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.

A few days since a man came to the boarding house of Mrs. Blosser on East Street, and engaged boarding. He remained there several days waiting, as he said, for his trunk to come from Danville. He left the house ostensibly for the purpose of looking up a drayman, but not returning in due time, investigation proved that he had left the town, not only beating her out of her board bill, but stealing several articles of jewelry, as well as a pair of trousers belonging to one of her boarders.

TO BE ENLARGED.

In accordance with the recommendations of several Grand Juries, the vault in the Register and Recorder's office is being enlarged. In order to do this, it was necessary to remove the water closets in the rear of the Court House. They will accordingly be moved to the cellar under the Commissioners office. The cellar wall has been cemented, and a cement floor laid, so as to be able to thoroughly flush and cleanse it daily. They will be supplied with the very latest appliances which are conducive to health.

GOT THE WRONG MAN.

Elijah Shutt, of this place, received a circular letter a few days since from M. S. Quay, chairman of the Republican State Committee, urging upon him the necessity of not only voting himself, but getting out the entire Republican vote at the coming election. He is indignant over the receipt of it, and says they have not enough money to purchase his vote. Were they to come this way Elijah says he has something he would like to tell them. Evidently they have got hold of the wrong man.

LETTER FROM J. HOWARD KLINS.

WESTON, Wood County, Ohio. October 26th, 1895

Dear Sir: Since I left old Columbia County I see there are a great many of the older people have dropped off.

We have had several Columbia County people to visit us this summer Miss Edith Moyer and Miss Annie Snyder of your town and J. W. Connor of Orangeville. Well, we have one of the drest years that Wood County has ever known but we are not burnt up nor blown away. Our crops are good but prices low, hay is the shortest crop.

Corn is selling for 28 cents per hundred on the ear that makes about 19 1/2 cents per bushel, oats 20, wheat 60, Oil is the best for that have it.

Politics are taking the lead of anything else just now.

Our general health is as good as common. Yours &c, J. HOWARD KLINS.

Mr. A. J. Davenport

Impure Blood Cured large boils on my face and neck. I was told to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures... Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and do not purge, pain or grip. Try a box. 25c.

WILKES-BARRE, PA., October 30, 1895.

Now that we have started our Weekly Chats, we feel free to ask: Were you pleased with the item of dress goods we sent you last week? Of course you were. The quality was right and the price we know was less than you paid for the same grade of goods before. You'll find everything you order from us fully up to that standard. We have been in business a long time and want to give you better Dry Goods, better service, better prices, in fact the best of everything is at your command here. By doing things a little better than our neighbors we have established a business larger than all the rest. This is to your advantage, for it is only by buying in great quantities we are able to control the markets and secure the extra discounts allowed to the big dealers.

The sharp air between night and morning warns you to prepare in time for the cold season. Now and then we may still have a pet day, but you shouldn't be caught napping. We have selected for you this week some of the things we know you ought to have; send for them now. You'll thank us for the suggestion later.

California Blankets with delicate pink blue and old gold borders, soft and fleecy as down, the kind you like to cuddle to on snappy nights. These blankets are of extra weight and should sell at $5.00 the pair. We will send you a sample pair for $3.75.

Misses' All Wool Ribbed Hose, all sizes, with fine Merino heels and toes; they are extra length and weight and are just the stocking for cold weather wear, you will be surprised when you learn the price. This week they will be offered at the pair 19c.

Ladies' Extra Weight Wool Vests and Drawers. Some call them all wool. We don't; there is just enough cotton to prevent shrinking; they are natural grey, silk bound, with woven rib cuff and skirts. If ordered this week you will save at least 25 cents on the suits. They are genuine bargains at our price—each garment 46c.

Ladies' Heavy Fleece Lined Vests and Drawers, extra gusset in drawers, draw strings in back and additional side buttons. These garments are especially recommended to those who cannot wear wool as an undergarment. We have lessened the price for this week to per garment 46c.

Children's Fine Fleece Lined Vests and Pants, either white or grey, with necks crocheted and shaped Vests, all sizes, if ordered this week the price will be per garment 29c.

We are sole agents for the Armorside Corset, the only corset that never breaks down in the sides, it is extra boned, which gives it the Venus back shape. Unlike most corsets the Armorside clings close to the body, giving an easy, graceful carriage and at the same time is absolutely comfortable, no matter whether stooping, standing or sitting. We will send your size in white, drab or blue for $1.00.

We have built up a great Boy's Clothing business by selling a suit we call our Special at $1.98. We have pleased 400 boys with these suits this season and can please your boy. It's an all wool Grey Cassimere suit, double breasted, square cut, stylish, durable. Try one for sample wear; the cost is a trifle, but it will make for us other customers, $1.98.

With a perfected system in our Mail Order Department you are represented by a clerk who gives her undivided attention to filling your order. Try it to-day. We are sure the items named above are needful and will give you good service.

Respectfully,

Jonas Long's Sons Cor. W. Market and Public Square, Wilkes-Barre.

JOHN R TOWNSEND, Merchant TAILOR, AND Hatter. SUITS FROM $18.00. CORNER MAIN & MARKET STS. BLOOMSBURG PA. TROUSERS FROM $5.00.
