

THE COLUMBIAN.
BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1895.

Entered at the Post Office at Bloomsburg, Pa., as second class matter, March 7, 1888.

BRIEF MENTION.

About People You Know.

George W. Mifflin was in Sunbury last Saturday.
A. C. Achenbach of Orange, was a caller at this office on Monday.
Col. Jamison spent last Sunday with his family.
Judge Keiser held Argument Court at Williamsport last Monday.
J. B. DeLong was a County Seat visitor on last Saturday.
Warren Lee has accepted a clerkship in the store of W. H. Slate.
Constable Styers of Catawissa transacted business at the County Seat on Wednesday.
R. E. Hartman is in New York this week purchasing goods.
E. E. Johnson and wife of Syracuse New York are visiting C. A. Klein.
H. J. Reeder of Catawissa, was noticed on the streets early Monday morning.
Mrs. Henry Nagle of Eighth Street, who has been sick for some time is slowly convalescing.
George E. Elwell, Esq., proprietor of the COLUMBIAN, transacted legal business at Towanda last Saturday.
Joseph Parloe who formerly conducted the fruit stand on Market Square is making arrangements to move to Chillisquaque.
W. S. Pursel has appeared on the Streets with a new milk wagon. It is not only neat and pretty, but nicely adapted to the purpose.
Joseph Miller went to Wilkes-Barre on Monday where he has secured work at painting. He expects to remain all winter.
S. A. Goodhue of Jamison City, transacted business at the County Seat on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gilbert have changed their address from Philadelphia to 309 Hillside Avenue, Jenkintown, Pa.
George Stephens, who was formerly connected with the Elevator Plant moved his family to Philadelphia on Tuesday.
Lee Martin, was twenty-two years old last Sunday. It is rather a singular coincidence, that the birthday of both of Mr. Well's assistants occur on the same day.
Rev. D. N. Kirkby attended a meeting of the Archdeaconry of Williamsport, at Sunbury on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.
Miss Jessie Ferguson of Kingston visited her sister Mrs. E. B. Tustin last Saturday. She has many friends here who are always glad to meet her.
Information has been received announcing that Thomas J. Thomas was married in Chicago last Thursday evening to Miss Annie Coburn of Montreal Canada.
F. E. Drinker was confined to his house by illness several days this week, and unable to attend to business at the "Saturday Review" printing office.
Rev. U. Myers of Catawissa, was noticed in town last Friday. He has a flourishing congregation in that place, and is highly esteemed by the citizens of the town.
Rev. Samuel Blair, was in Town on Tuesday. He has just closed a successful series of meetings at Beach Haven, and has commenced evangelistic services at Berwick.
F. Freeman Boas who has been attending the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. at Erie has returned. He reports a large attendance and an interesting session.
E. H. Froehlich will cast his first vote at the election next week. He was twenty-one years old last Sunday, and celebrated the occasion by paying a visit to his parents at Harrisburg.

A new crossing is being placed over the street near the Town Hall.
J. L. Girton has sold his omnibus line, horses, omnibus, wagonette, &c., to A. C. Hilday and Bruce Klechner.
Henry Deiterich has purchased a black Shetland pony. His little girls are happy, as it is certainly a beauty.
A new awning is being built in front of the clothing store of the D. Lowenburg Estate.
Giddings' special November sale commences Friday Nov. 1st. Look over the great values they offer in their regular space on first page.
The Farmers Produce Exchange, Limited, is having new shelving placed in their store room on Market Street. This became necessary by reason of their rapidly increasing business.
The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the North Branch Conference, of the Susquehanna Synod, will hold its meetings in St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, November 5 and 6, beginning next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and closing Wednesday afternoon. Tuesday evening at 7:30 there will be a popular meeting, an address will be given by Rev. T. W. Gift, of Scranton. Everybody welcome.

Extra copies of this issue of the COLUMBIAN can be obtained at this office.
The house which N. S. Pursel is erecting on Brugler's alley is enclosed, as is also the barn of T. L. Gunton.
Building operations are being carried on in all parts of the town. Four new houses are in course of erection on Reservoir hill.
Dr. Bierman has appeared on the streets with a new horse and trap. He now has one of the finest turnouts in the Town.
The store of Samuel Trump on West Fifth Street was entered Sunday night and about ten dollars worth of segars and tobacco was stolen.
The County Institute held last week, was one of the most successful in the history of the County. The attendance was the largest, and the instructors and lecturers were among the best in the Country.
The foot ball game between the Normal and Hillman teams resulted in a clean victory for the Normals. Score 48-0.
Training is hard work, but this game demonstrated the fact that it pays.
In our article on the Bloomsburg Fair, the magnificent display of W. J. Corell & Co., of furniture was inadvertently omitted. It was one of the finest exhibitions on the grounds, and attracted a great deal of attention. The display was valued at $800.
Death entered the family of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Savitts on last Saturday, and removed a little daughter aged about four years. The funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon, and the interment in Rosemont Cemetery.
The work of grading Leonard Street is about completed, and it is a decided improvement over the old road. When the pavements are laid on both sides, it will be one of the finest streets in this town of beautiful avenues.
There will be a Sunday School Institute held at Benton Saturday night and a special train will leave the D. L. & W. Depot at 6:30 P. M., returning after the exercises are over. Fare for the round trip fifty cents. An excellent program has been arranged. An invitation is extended to all Sunday School workers to accompany them.
The Leader store under the efficient management of Mr. Hyde is rapidly forging to the front. A telephone has been placed in the store, which will greatly assist them in the transaction of their business, and it has also been supplied with the "Lamson" system of cash carriers. It is the only store in town using them and they work like a charm. Call and see it in operation.
