WASHINGTON.

From our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, Oct. 25th, 1895.

President Cleveland found on his return from Atlanta that although the season for the propagation of Cabinet resignations was a little late in opening, it had been working overtime to catch up. He learned for the first time that a disagreement existed between himself and Secretary Olney of such a serious nature that the latter was going to retire from the Cabinet. and that it was on account of that disagreement that Mr Olney did not accompany him to Atlanta. This might have been very distressing to him, if he had not known that it was because he would have to go to Atlanta a little later on with the foreign representatives to take part in the exercises of Diplomatic Day at the exposition, and the pressing nature of some private business in Boston, that prevented Secretary Olney going with

The President presided over a Cabinet meeting to-day, but there was nothing said or done which implied in out strings, always in stock at this the slightest degree any disagreement office. over the position of this government in dealing with the dispute between England and Venezuela. From the first the President and every member of the Cabinet have held the same opinion on this matter, and they still do. While not pretending to speak for the President or the members of his cabinet, it can be said that many prominent democrats believe the current stories about disagreements and intended resignations are circulated for the purpose of trying to goad the administration into declaring what it will do in case England should resort to force to carry its point in Venezuela, and that some of the circulators have benefitted at the expense of the English secret fund. Be that as it may, the administration has no idea of showing its hand to England at this stage of the game. Its position has been fully determined upon and will be announced when necessary, and when announced it will be approved by a great majority of our people, if not by all of the President's political opponents.

A very small thing is needed in Washington to start a very big sensation. One of those small things was the order for continuous work on the guns which are being made in the government gun shop, for the new battleship Oregon, now lying at the Mare Island navy yard waiting the completion of her armament. This order was made the foundation for a string of the most outrageous stories as to the administration's hurried preparations for the inevitable war with England and similar rot. truth was easily obtainable, if it had been wanted. The order for contindepartment for no other purpose than to have the guns ready at the stipulated time, in order to prevent the throwing of any blame for delay on the department by the contractor. By working three eight-hour shifts three days work are accomplished on the guns every 24 hours. How very warlike these preparations are may be seen from the size of the working shifts—one foreman, four machinists, one engineer, one fireman, and two laborers to each.

Lit is, of course, known that President Cleveland is and will be a very busy man until after his message to Congress is completed, but there is one thing that all the democrats here.

of business and the restoration of the national credit.

Third. As vindicating the principles of tariff reform, to which the principles of tariff reform, to which the presential tending the property is unaterable pledged, we challenge especial attention to the fact that such prosperity and the consequent material increase of wages whose existence our opponents claimed were dependent upon high tariff duties. The stoomy prediction that the iron and steel industries of Pennsylvania would be destroyed by a reduced tariff has been contradicted by their present unexampled prosperity.

Fourth We invite the attention of the wage carners to the fact that the present voluntary increase of wages of those employed in the manufacturing industries, amounting to not less than $250,000,000, was absolutely unknown under the McKinley tariff net. To prevent the recent State Convention, which would again depress business by destroying faith in the stability of present conditions, we invite our fellow-countrymen acroughout the land, trrespective of parts, to so act together as to insure, by the election of a Democratic President in 1898, the malatenance of the present prosperity.

Fifth, We especially reaffirm so much string the principles of the president in the president prosperity.

Congress is completed, but there is one thing that all the democrats here abouts would like him to take time enough to do. That is to dismiss the negro, Taylor, who is Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia. Taylor claims to have been a democrat before he came to Washington, but his rascalities have been much more marked than his democracy since he secured one of the best local positions in Washington, and this week he attended a negro republican massmeeting and made a speech in favor of a negro republican being elected as one of the delegates to the National republican convention. Since then every democrat one meets expresses the wish that President Cleveland would kick Taylor out of the office to the wish that President Cleveland 000,000 on it, that being about the difference between its cost and the amount of silver dollars it could be coined into. Ineffectual attempts were made to get the last Congress to authorize this coinage.

While Charles Margerum, an employee of the paper mill at Catawissa, as engaged in filling the wood boilers last week, he was taken with a fit and fell directly over the man hole and directly under the flow of alkali. By the time he was discovered his enentire body was covered with the powerful fluid which burned him in a horrible manner. He has since died from the injuries.

The prices of colored printing inks have gone down with everything else, and it costs no more to do printing in colors than it does in black. THE COLUMBIAN office is prepared to print in any of the following colors: Black, orange, deep cherry, brown lake, light blue, ultra marine blue, bronze red, violet, dark red, green, jacqueminot, purple, garnet, peacock blue. Printing in more than one color is done at a slight advance for the additional press work.

THE PLATFORM

The Following is the Platform Adopted by the Williamsport Convention.

First. The Democratic party, in State Convention assembled, hereby renews its alle-glance to and declares its faith in the principles of Democracy as formulated by Jeffer-son and Illustrated by Madison, Monroe, Jackson and Cleveland. It congratulates the American people upon the first fruits of the Democratic administration, which inherited from its Republican predecessor a bankrupt Freasury and unwise financial legislation impaired public credit and widespread disaster, and which, under the sagacious, couragcons and patriotic leadership of its great President, Grover Cleveland, led the people out of the slough of despondency to the high ground of substantial and increasing prosperity.

We challenge the fairness of our country. men and ask that the Democratic party now receive the benefit of that renewed pros-perity whose welcome note is heard on every Second. The enactment of the Sherman silver-purchasing act and the McKinley ariff law found, as accurately predicted by Mr. Cleveland, their results in bankrupt rullroads, closed factories, rulned farms, abandoned fields, impaired national credit and general disaster. The repeal of such iniquitous legislation and the substitution of more moderate tariff laws have found helr immediate results in the resumption of business and the restoration of the na-vorable to the interests of corporations and every democrat one meets expresses the wish that President Cleveland would kick Taylor out of the office to which he appointed him. Secretary Carlisle proposes to set a good example by going all the way to Covington, Ky., to register in order that he may be able to cast his vote for the straight democratic ticket in that state.

The stoppage of the coinage of silver has no bearing whatever, upon the silver question. The only silver that has been coined for some time has been worn and mutilated silver. The appropriation for that purpose for the current fiscal year having been exhausted, Secretary Carlisle directed that the mint at New Orleans be closed and the employes furloughed until such time as coinage may be resumed. It is probable that the question of the coinage of the 137,644,000 ounces of silver bullion which the government now has on hand, remaining from the purchases made under the Sherman law, will be referred to Congress. Should Congress order this silver to be coined, the government would make a profit of almost $54.

The doctors tell us, now-a-days, that disease germs are everywhere; in the air, in the water, in our food, clothes, money; that they get into our bodies, live there, thrive and grow, if they find anything to thrive on.

Consumption is the destruction of lung-tissue by germs where the lung is too weak to conquer them. The remedy is strength—vital force.

Scott's Emulsion, with hypophosphites, means the adjustment of lung strength to overcome germ-life. It is fighting the germ with the odds in our favor. These tiny little drops of fat-food make their way into the system and re-fresh and re-invigorate it. Whether you succeed with it or not depends on how good a start the germs had, and how carefully you can live. The shortest way to health is the patient one. The gain is often slow.
