Losses From Field Fires.

Woods fires created considerable havoc between Danville and Catawissa for some time past. Paul Shultz, son of James Shultz, of this city, who occupies one of his father's tarms, lost a whole field of corn and fodder, which was burned in the shock, also 250 rods of fencing and nearly all his timber. The fire started from a spark thrown from the engine at Woodruff and Nelson's saw mill. The fire was soon a conflagration that spread with race horse speed, approaching within five rods of the farm buildings. For a while it seemed that the house and barn were doomed. A crowd of some sixty persons had gathered to assist fighting back the flames. By night fire was under control. An Optical Illusion Explained.

The Richmond Recorder says: "It is curious how much faster a street car humps along when you are running after it than when you are riding on it." It is also curious how much faster the "Atlanta Special" actually moves than it appears to one riding on it, to do; but the explanation is plain-the Seaboard Air Line roadbed is so perfect that trains move over it at a speed of 60 miles an hour without jolt or jar. The "Atlanta Special" is the Seaboard Air Line's Vestibuled Limited Train, operated solid between Washington, D. C. and Atlanta, Ga., via Fredericksburg, Richmond, and Petersburg, Va., and Raleigh, N. C.

Important Civil Service Order.

President Cleveland, last Friday, signed the most important civil service reform order he has ever made, under which all postoffices which are not near enough to a free delivery office can be brought within the classified service, and which, in its practical operation will enable the postmaster general to divide the country into large postal districts, so that the least. postmaster at the metropolitan centre will be the only official, high or low, in the postoffices of the district who bringing seventy-five per cent. of all offices of all classes in the classified

The order will work a revolution in the postal service, but Postmaster them. General Wilson proposes to apply it gradually and cautiously.

Tapped the Susquehanna.

The Ravine Mine of the Newton Coal Mining Company at Pittston is in danger of being flooded by an accithe miners, while at work; fired a ples. blast with the object of taking down top coal. The concussion opened a seam in the roof that caused a stream

After waiting for some time in hope of it stopping, the engineers were sent for. After a thorough investigation they discovered that the leak came from the Susquehanna river, and as yet have not been able to devise plans to stay the inpouring stream. Three large pumps have been put to work, and it is only with the greatest difficulty the mine is kept from filling up.

The mine is one of the most productive of its kind in this valley, and is owned principally by George B. Newton and Frank T. Patterson, of Philadelphia.

He Sleeps Incessantly.

Amos James Manning, of Mt. Carmel, is a wonder to the medical pro-Elizabeth Ramer, to Elizabeth fession. He is afflicted with a malady Lehr, for tract of land in Beaver that causes him to sleep twenty three of a new suit he received this Creasy felt called upon to take some and a half hours per day for weeks week; says it would be extra Bower and wife, to and even months at a time. Nothing Henry T. Yohe, for tract of land in appears to help him in the least, and doctors have given up all hope of get-Peter Helwig Jr. and wife to ting him out of that condition. Manning is thirty one years of age. Eleven years ago he was afflicted with an unnatural disease. He would go to bed and remain there for a week at a time, being awake but an hour or so U. H. Ent Sheriff, to Jane Scott, a day, and eating but one meal. Then again for months he would be all right and worked steadily.

The disease grew upon Manning and it finally got so that the sleeping spells lasted for three and even four weeks. This state of affairs continued until about a month and a half ago when he took to his bed, and remained there until Wednesday evening. During that time he was awake long enough to swallow a little food and then he would sink back into a dreamless death like slumber. For some time past complaint has been made that Rantz Dehart and his wife have been neglecting their two small children (both really babies) and the rumors assumed such a character that President of Town Council action in the matter. Last Thursday morning they were both in town, with the children and were arrested and SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1895, who after hearing the evidence committed them to the care of the Sheriff. From the evidence it appeared that the neglect consisted not sufficient food, as it did in real neglect of them caused by the intemperate habits of both parents. That place where you can get just what they would both become intoxicated and drag the children through the streets at all times of night. Upon one occasion, one of the children was found in the creek bridge, evidently hav ing fallen from the buggy, and the parents had gone home never missing it. On another occasion, one was taken
