from ou r Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8th, 1895.

Political defeat is a part and portion of the history of every political party and amounts to little when the members of the defeated party have the sense and the courage to profit by the lesson which can always be learned from defeat. The lesson of the defeat by which the democratic party last week lost the states of New York, New Jersey, Maryland and Kentucky, which are naturally democratic, and allowed the republicans to pile up ab normal off year majorites in other states, is so plain that he who runs may read it, and he can run a great deal faster than some of the democratic candidates did in the states named, too. If the rank and file of the party displays the sense and courage to profit by this lesson, the democratic party has still a good fighting chance to elect the President and a majority of the House next yearthere is no chance to regain control of the Senate before 1899 or later; if not, its chance for doing either may be considered infinitesimal.

Everybody knows the cause of the democratic defeat last week, as well as that at last year's Congressional elections. It is because there are not enough democrats to win when they are divided into administration and anti administration democrats. In 1892, when the party was united it won a great victory, capturing at one time the Presidency and the control of both branches of Congress. Barring the control of the Senate that victory can be duplicated in 1896, provided that the Cleveland democrats and the anti Cleveland democrats can be made to become just plain democrats, and to stop cutting each others throats. A good start might be made in that direction by those-this is no time for crimination and recrimination; therefore no names need be called-who excused their opposition, both open and secret, to the regular democratic nominees in several states on the ground that it was an off year and defeat would have no effect upon the Presidential contest. Let them come out like men and say whether they are democrats from principle, or only democrats when they can name the parties nominees, and having declared themselves let them live up to their declarations.

In this same connection there is also a duty devolving upon the men who manipulated the party machine. A little consideration will convince them that they are not blameless. Had they been less arrogant in displaying their power to force objectionable cominations, in some instances for no cominations, in some instances for no Liberty street they passed a fruit better reason than a desire to force stand where some big horse chestnuts objecting democrats to eat a dish of crow by voting and working for those a better showing. Let these men forto get the party united once more. One of the principal reasons why a have occurred in the states in which the campaigns were personally managed by anti-administration democratic Senators. President Cleveland, as well as the members of his Cabinet, have some decided opinions on this subject is certain, but it is fortunate for the party that they have the good the party, who are neither responsible for nor have taken any part in the bickerings, are smarting under a defeat which they believe to be undeserved. It is a matter that should only be discussed in private.

Little Man of 50 and a Big Woman of 55 Elope.

Jerome Zimmerman, aged 50, and

Susan Parker, aged 55, eloped from Loganton, Clinton county, last Friday, boarding Pacific express at 4.30 a.m. They were arrested at Pittsburg on the arrival of the train in that city at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Pittsburg Gazette, noting the arrest, says: "It is doubtful whether the prisoners were most surprised at their arrest or the detectives at their appearance. The man was small and round, the woman long and lean. Instead of a pretty and giddy young girl, she looked every day of her age, and a pair of steel bowed "specs" set on her rather sharp nose, did not qualify her for a latter day eloper.

"When informed they were under arrest the woman undertook to faint, but Detective Fitzgerald headed the attempt off with a glass of water. When she recovered Fitzgerald escorted the woman and Coulson the man to Central station. On the way down were roasting in a pan. "Zimmerman has a wife and seven Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Washington, Nov. 4 .- The customary Thanksgiving proclamation was issued by the President to day as follows:

A PROCLAMATION. By the President of the United States: The constant goodness and forbearance of Almighty God which have been vouchsafed to the American people during the year which is just past, call for their sincere acknowledgement and devout gratitude.

To the end, therefore, that we may with thankful hearts unite in extolling the toving care of our Heavenly Father I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of the present month of November, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed by all of our people.

On that day let us forego our usual occupation, and in our accustomed places of worship join in rendering thanks to the giver of every good and perfect gift, for the bounteous returns trying to impress Christ and Him that have rewarded our labors in the fields and in the busy marts of trade, for the peace and order that have preready to select such pieces as would vailed throughout the land, for our protection from pestilence and dire As a member of the Official Board calamity and for the other blessings he was willing to give his advice but that have been showered upon us from an open hand.

And with our thanksgiving, let us humbly beseech the Lord to so incline the hearts of the people unto Him that He will not leave us nor forsake us as a nation, but will continue to use his mercy and protecting care, guiding us in the path of national prosperity and happiness, endowing us with rectitude and virtue and keep ing alive within us a patriotic love for the free institutions which have been given to us as our national heritage.

And let us on the day of thanks giving especially remember the poor and needy and by deeds of charity let us show the sincerity of our gratitude.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of

A Hundred Dollar Ride.

J. G. Bennett, Esq., of Danville, took a ride on Sunday a week that cost a cool hundred. Mr. Bennett is the great patent lawyer, and he was coming from Chicago to Danville. He arrived in Harrisburg long after News Express had left, so he hired a special train. It consisted of one car and an engine and contained beside the crew, one passenger and a trunk. It arrived in Sunbury at 3:10 and was met by a Sunbury Division special at the depot. Mr. Bennett changed cars and in a few minutes the special was speeding to Danville. He returned to Sunbury in time to take Accommodation at 8:22 p. m., to return to New York City. Mr. Bennett paid the Company $100 for the service rendered him.

We mentioned in the COLUMBIAN last week that Judge Ikeler was obliged to leave on Tuesday for Girardville, where he met the Board of City Trusts of the Girard Estate, the object of the meeting being the location of a summer home for the younger children of Girard College. Girard Manor, Schuylkill County, was selected as the place, and the construction of the buildings will be commenced next spring. It is four miles west of Lofty, along the Catawissa branch of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, and is a most desirable place for a summer home.

In the disposition of the Dunham-Sittser Judical contest a number of nice questions of the law were ruled upon by the Court with regard to the marking of ballots. One was that a ballot marked in the party circle with a straight perpendicular or a straight horizontal line is legal. Circles with in circles were also declared legal. The Court decided that in every instance where a ballot fully set forth the wish of the voter it should be counted, except where dot marks were used. The Judges drew the line on those, of which there were
